WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM SET

The TWU women's studies program will welcome Dr. Tahira Shahid Khan, visiting professor of political science at Metropolitan State College of Denver (Colo.), on Thurs., Feb. 29, at 4 p.m., library lecture hall 101. The program is free and open to the campus community. Khan, who earned her doctorate in international politics from the University of Denver, wrote her dissertation on "The First Step on the Pathway to Power: A Comparative Analysis of Women Political Leaders in South Asia." A native of Pakistan, Khan has taught at the University of Karachi in Pakistan and currently is visiting the U.S. For details, call Dr. Linda Nickum-Marshall (sociology and social work) at ext. 2052.

FIND THE PAST IN THE PRESENT

A special group of people are "Setting the Stage" right now for fun, fellowship and good food during the 1996 celebration of TWU Founders' Day on Fri., Feb. 16. The evening will please all with piles of pancakes and sweet toppings, finished off with an original musical review. "Founders' Day honors those whose vision formed the university and those whose support ensures the future for each new generation of students at TWU," said Donna Ryan (alumni relations).

The fun begins at 6:30 p.m. in Hubbard Hall with a traditional pancake supper, fruit and sausage. "Setting the Stage: A Musical Review" follows, written by Kay Goodman, TWU regent and alumna. The program features TWU's Simply Jazz/Choraliers, directed by Pamela O'Briant (performing arts, music). Advance registration is requested no later than Tues., Feb. 13; tickets are $8 per person. Please clip or photocopy the registration form below and send it to the TWU National Alumnae Association (make checks payable to the association).

UPDATE ON TWU ATHLETICS

Three of four sports at TWU -- basketball, gymnastics and tennis (beginning Feb. 14) -- are in full swing, keeping student-athletes and their coaches busy and often on the road right now. The tennis team starts its season this Wednesday at 3 p.m. against Collin County Community College. All home matches currently will be played at the Goldfield Tennis Center, 2005 W. Windsor in Denton while construction work on campus closes the existing courts (effective last week) until the new courts are finished.

Correction: TWU gymnasts have spent much time on the road at the beginning of their season, competing against a number of Division I teams. The home opener will be held Fri., Feb. 23, at 7 p.m., DGL, against Iowa State University.

NEWSBRIEFS

The Jackie Greer executive-in-residence lecture series will present Ann E. Margolin, member of the Executive Women of Dallas, on Wed., Feb. 21, from 9:30 to 11 a.m., SC 207-208. Her presentation, titled "Dare to Be Great," is free and open to both the campus community and the general public. For details, call the department of business and economics at ext. 2111.

Reminder: The TWU Blagg-Huey Library and the Woman's Collection will host noted Texas author Ruthe Winegarten for a special lecture titled "Black Texas Women: 150 Years of Trial and Triumph" (also the title of her newest book) on Thurs., Feb. 22, at 3:30 p.m., library lecture hall 101. The event, which includes a book signing and light refreshments, is free and open to the public; all faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. For more information, call ext. 2665.

Excellence in teaching awards will be presented by the College of Arts and Sciences to several faculty members on Tues., Feb. 13, at noon, CFO 13 southeast conference room; the campus is invited to attend. The awards include: Outstanding Undergraduate Teacher -- Dr. Timothy Hoye (history and government); Outstanding Graduate Teacher -- Dr. Adrienne Fisk (performing arts); and Gabriella Miller (sociology and social work). For details, call ext. 3326.

Reminder: Mending the music makers -- rather music and medicine -- will be the focus of a two-day seminar, "Applications of Medicine and Music," presented by the Federation of North Texas Area Universities on Fri. and Sat., Feb. 23 and 24, at the University of North Texas; UNT, TWU and East Texas State University comprise the federation's member institutions. The program is free to FNTAU students and faculty; registration for others interested in attending are: $46 for other professionals (price includes lunch); $50 for late or on-site registration; $10 for continuing education certification; and $10 for lunch on Feb. 23. The deadline for registration is Fri., Feb. 9. For program information, call Dr. John Flohr (performing arts, music) at ext. 2511.

Mortar Board invites the campus community to attend tree planting ceremony to mark the first anniversary of the presidency of Dr. Carol Surles at TWU. The event will be held on Thurs., Feb. 15, at 4 p.m. on the east lawn of the Blagg-Huey Library. The program will feature remarks by the Hon. Darlene A. Whitten, Denton County Court at Law 1, and Dr. Glenda Simmons (student life). Academic regalia is optional; a reception will be held in SC 007.

Reminder: Nominations of TWU students for the Outstanding Senior Award are being sought by the TWU National Alumnae Association. These nominations must be submitted by Fri., March 1, for the Denton campus and the Institute of Health Sciences Dallas and Houston Centers. Student nominations from Denton should be sent to the alumni office; from Dallas to Dr. Michael Laman; and from Houston to Dr. Kathryn Stream. Details regarding the nomination process and necessary information may be obtained from the alumni office. Call Donna Ryan at ext. 2586.

Members of TOSS (TWU Office Support Staff) invite all interested staff members to attend their Feb. 15 meeting, featuring TWU President Carol Surles, who will discuss "Leadership." The meeting, a brown bag luncheon, will be held from noon to 1 p.m., SC 207-208; coffee will be provided. For reservations, call Susan Phillips at ext. 2568 by noon on Tues., Feb. 13.

Deadlines for Good Neighbor Scholarship applications are Feb. 15 for summer 1996 and March 1 for fall/spring 1996-97. International students from the western hemisphere (from Canada south to South America) are eligible to apply. Call Doris Key (admissions) at ext. 3048 for details.

Reminder: Internationally known pianist and author Dr. Maurice Hinson will present a free lecture piano recital titled "Women Composers of Piano Music" at TWU on Wed., Feb. 14, at 8 p.m. in Margo Jones Performance Hall. The campus community and the general public are invited. His selections will include works by Elisabetta de Gambarini, Marianne Martinez, Louise Farrenc, Maria Szymanowska, Fanny Mendelssohn-Henselt, Clara Wieck-Schumann, Agathe Bocker-Grondahl, Teresa Carreno, Amy Marcy Beach, Wanda Landowska and Adaline Shepherd. For more information, call Dr. David Yeomans (performing arts, music) at ext. 2517.

Reminder: A free workshop titled "Fundraising Fundamentals" will be held on Fri., Feb. 23, SH 402, from 1 to 4 p.m. The free workshop for faculty, staff and students will be presented by TWU graduate student Suzanne Killen (Library and Information Studies). Kathleen Gigl (institutional advancement) will be special guest speaker. Seating is limited; registration for the event is required by Feb. 19. For more information, call the School of Library and Information Studies at ext. 2602; call Killen at (817) 484-4951 or e-mail her at G_Killen.

February is the American Heart Association's "Heart Month"; the theme "Don't die of embarrassment" highlights the fact that every year thousands of lives needlessly are lost or impaired because people with heart attack or stroke symptoms do nothing. If you have symptoms, act quickly. The TWU Wellness Center will provide information throughout the month about risk factors, signs and signals, and the importance of having a healthy heart. The center will raffle for a free March membership throughout February; stop by, sign up and receive a free blood pressure check. For details, call ext. 2900.

Reminder: The Academic Advising Center will conduct its semi-annual workshop, "Effective Academic Advising," on Fri., Feb. 23, in JH 239 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Persons interested in attending are asked to call ext. 3850 if they plan to attend or if they need more information. Topics will include the core curriculum, the TASP requirements, campus resources, the role and scope of the academic advisor, and other areas. An optional afternoon session will be held at 1:30 p.m.; during this program, participants will learn how to access advising information through "Colleague." Call Lana Woods (Academic Advising Center) for more information.

The Dallas/Fort Worth area member group of Earthwatch invites interested persons to attend their 1996 expedition gathering on Sat., Feb. 24, from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Gorman Lecture Center at the University of Dallas in Irving. The program will include an overview of the organization's work, plus several presentations by Earthwatch volunteers, including Dr. Ann Uhler (Health Sciences), who will discuss "Sustainably Managing Estonia's Rivers." The program is free and open to the public; for details, call Uhler at ext. 2852.

Reminder: The office of admissions will host a Saturday Visit for prospective students on Feb. 17 from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the SC Underground. A continental breakfast will be served to participants -- high school juniors and seniors -- and an informal program will include information about preparing for college and selecting a major. Campus tours also will be offered.

The spring 1996 semester schedule for the university curriculum committee includes a meeting on Fri., March 1, library lecture hall 101, from 2 to 5 p.m.. The deadline to submit proposals for that meeting to the associate vice president for academic affairs is Mon., Feb. 19; the deadline to submit copies of those proposals to the manager of academic administrative services is Wed., Feb. 21. For more information, call Mary Ann McDuff (academic affairs) at ext. 3310.
