HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD
President

The Board of Regents are governors, known to us as 'Our Regents.' They are always our staunch friends in and out of court. We count ourselves most fortunate in having so able a board of governors.

We take this opportunity of expressing thanks to each of the board and to acknowledge our debt to each for the unselfish and fine service given to our Alma Mater.

L. H. HUBBARD
President

To the Class of 1932:

You are apparently closing your undergraduate college careers in one of the world's recurring periods of reconstruction. It is the tendency of human thought to outrun human institutions, for the reason that the mind itself is less shackled than the organizations which it sets up. Therefore, when human thought and human institutions become widely separated, a reorganization both of public opinion and of public institutions becomes inevitable. It looks as if one of these periods of reorganization is upon us. The direction which the impending changes will take depends upon our leadership. The world has a right to look to our college-trained citizens for at least a part of this leadership. That you may furnish your share of it is my earnest hope.

Yours very sincerely,

L. H. HUBBARD.

THE EXECUTIVE

E. V. White, the Dean of the College, is praised and admired by all students for his strength of personality and jovial disposition.

Through the Ex-Students' Association, C.I.A. is known and read of by all men. Because they have loved, worked, and played on Blue Serge Hill; because they have held to the ideal and purpose of creating a stronger and better womanhood, of finding the intellectual and beautiful; because they have kept burning the flame upon our hillside, our sky has been touched with gold; earth has been revealed as good; and ours has been a task made increasingly joyous and fine. To them, we acknowledge sincere thanks.

The Lass-O, the college newspaper, is published weekly by the students in the Department of Journalism. Practically all of the work of the newspaper, including the composition, is done by the students taking journalism and linotype.

The college weekly is a self-supporting newspaper as all of the expenses are paid by the advertisements secured by the class in advertising.

"The Ivory Door"

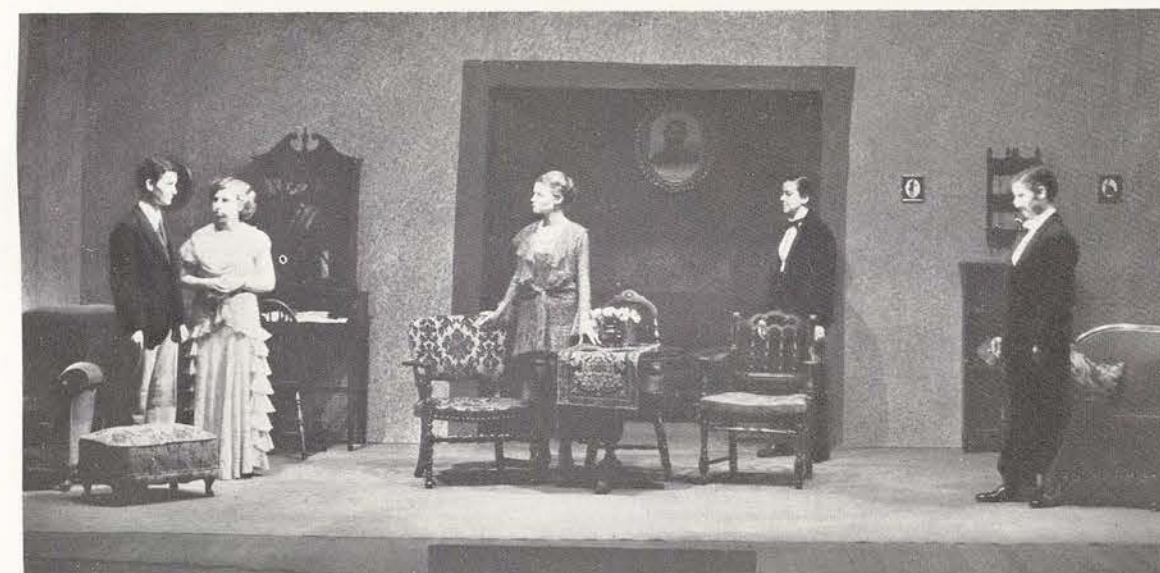

"To the Ladies"

THE C. I. A. LITTLE THEATER

The members of the C.I.A. Little Theater are senior speech majors. Mr. Horger is the director. The first play was "To the Ladies" by Kaufman and Connelly. This was a delightful farcical comedy. "The Ivory Door" by Milne was a romantic costume play. Ibsen's "Hedda Gabbler," a psychological play of intrigue, was the third play to be produced. "Beaux Stratagem," George Farquhar, was an English Restoration comedy of manners. The fifth play to be produced was a mystery thriller, "The Cat and the Canary" by John Willard. The last play was Shakespeare's unique domestic tragedy, "Othello."

"Hedda Gabbler"

"The Three Spinners"

THE CHILDREN'S LITTLE THEATER

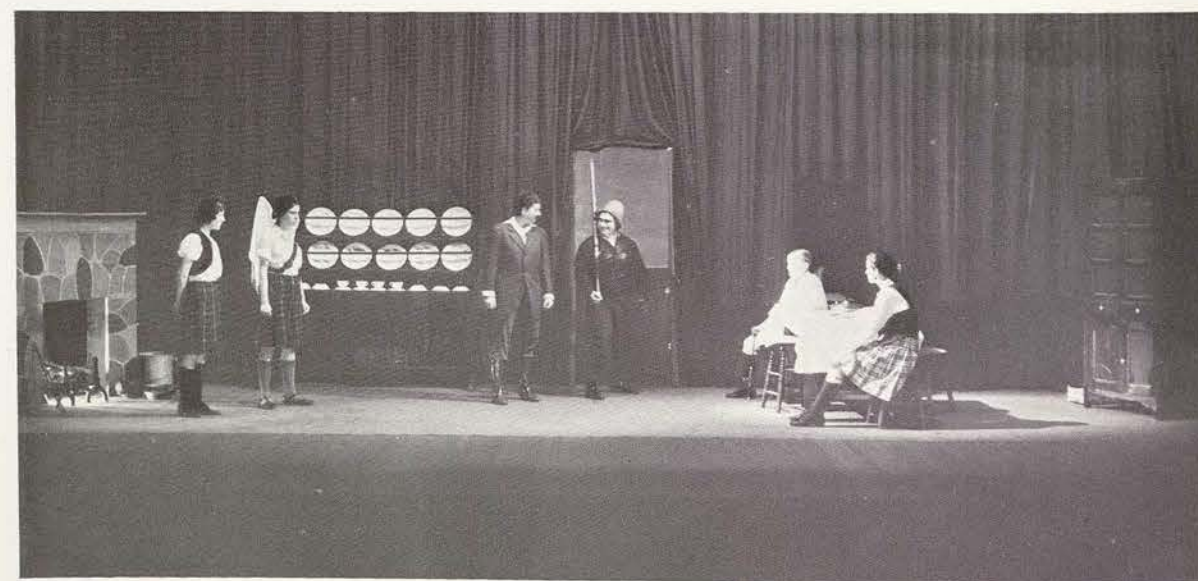

The members of the Children's Little Theater are sophomore speech majors. The plays are given each year especially for the children of Denton and center around familiar tales from story book land.

"The Three Spinners," the first of the Children's Little Theater plays, was a tale from fairyland.

"Little Black Sambo" was a study in negro dialect and action.

"The Scotch Twins" was received with enthusiasm by the children, due to the clever character portrayals of the actors.

"The Scotch Twins"

"Romeo and Jane"

SPECIAL DRAMATICS

The Senior Class Play, "Romeo and Jane," was produced by seniors other than speech majors. The play was made delightful through the clever and catchy lines throughout the play.

The Christmas Choir was presented in College Assembly. Miss Aline Jones directed the singing of the Christmas songs.

The Christmas Choir

The College Choir

THE CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA

The College Choir consists of fifty voices directed by Mr. William E. Jones. The choir is presented on special occasions of the college, and makes frequent trips to neighboring cities to render programs. The choir sang over Station WFAA in Dallas on Pancake Night.

The thirty-five piece College Orchestra is under the direction of Mr. David C. Hansard. The orchestra makes its appearance in college assembly and has also taken part in broadcasts over Station WFAA.

SPORTS

ROSA DEUTSCH
President

THE WOMAN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Woman's Athletic Association is primarily devoted to furthering the recreational interests of the college. Three sports are offered each season; all are urged to participate in some sport. Once a month there is a social and business meeting held in the gymnasium. The W.A.A. Board is composed of the managers of the sports and the following officers:

ROSA DEUTSCH.....	President
AILEENE LOCKHART.....	Vice President
VIRGINIA TURNEY.....	Recording Secretary
VIRGINIA MCCANN.....	Corresponding Secretary
MARY GRACE CHEATHAM.....	Treasurer
FLORENCE L. HUPPRICH.....	Faculty Sponsor

First Row: WIGGINS, MCCANN, FINLEY, HUPPRICH, LOCKHART
Second Row: SIMPSON, KING, TURNEY, GOOD

HOCKEY . . . VOLLEY BALL

Hockey is a sport in which much enthusiasm is manifested each year. The annual Texas-A.&M. Hockey game this year ended in a tie. The line-ups were: Texas: Aiken, H. Anderson, D. Anderson, Brothers, Bundy, Good, Liddell, Riney, Smith, Winter, Zimmerman. A.&M.: Boyd, Blanchette, Deutsch, Erwin, Finley, Forrest, Lockhart, McMillan, Shields, Williams, and Winthrop. Aline Good was manager and Dorothy Anderson was assistant manager.

Volley ball grows more and more interesting as a competitive sport. This year Marjorie Wiggins was manager. One never-failing source of delight is the annual game between the Varsity and the C.I.A. Faculty Men.

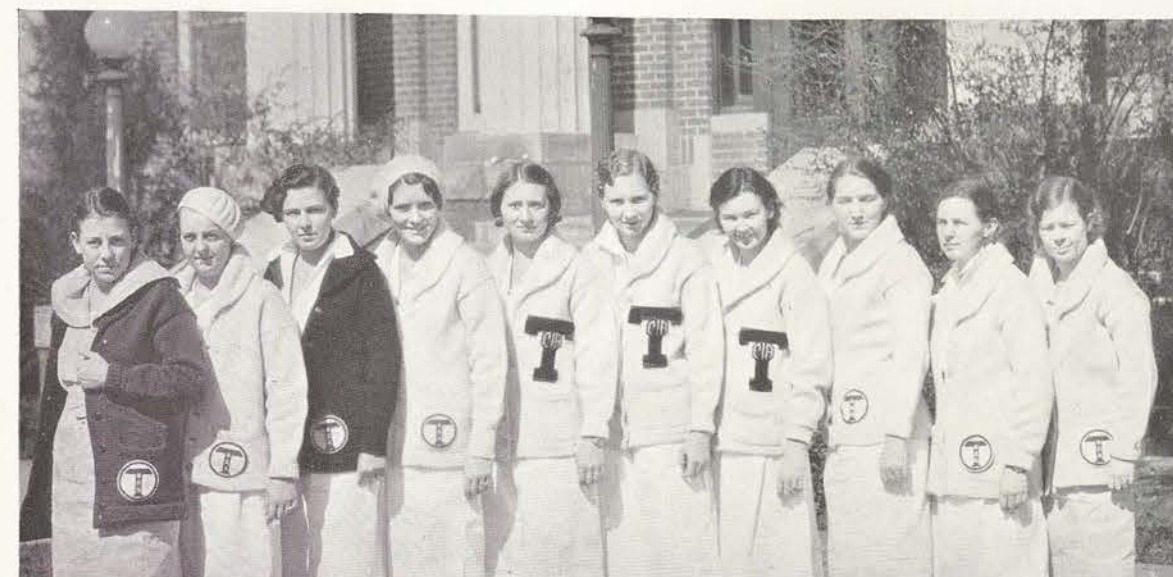

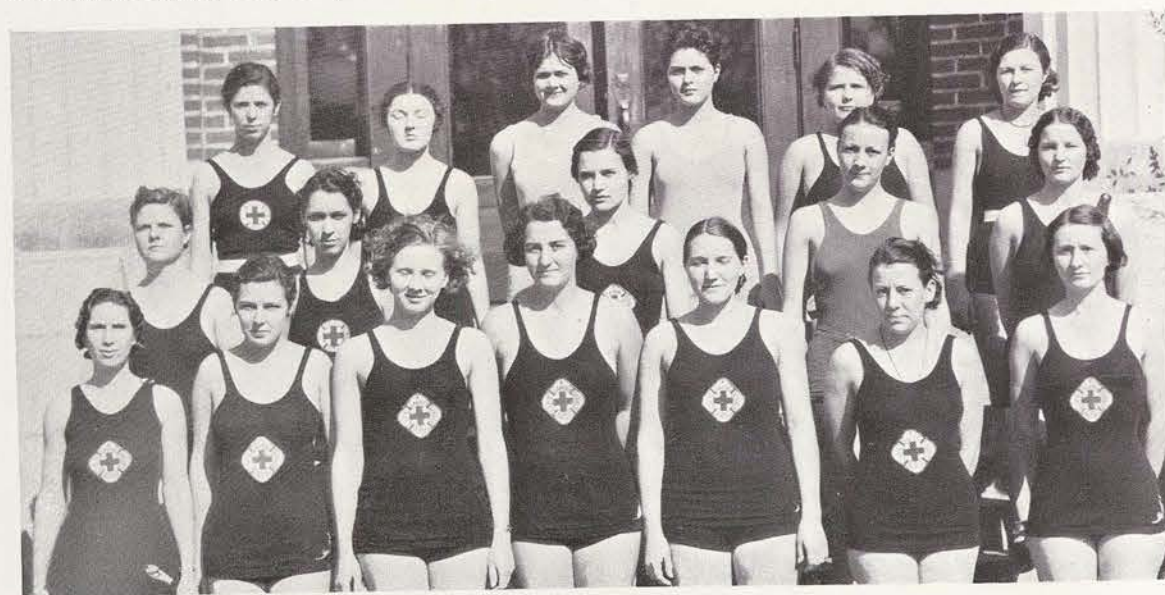

SWIMMING . . . LIFE SAVING

The Triton Club was organized this year to create more interest in swimming and all forms of aquatics. The charter members are: D. Anderson, Cheatham, Davis, Deutsch, Dean, Forke, Forrest, Jamison, Pool, Steely, Terrell, Weems, Wherry, and Winter. There are four degrees of membership: Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, and Master. These can be attained by passing the required tests.

The Life Saving Corps is of great service to the college, since its members do voluntary guard duty in the swimming pool during the entire year. In the spring a field representative of the American Red Cross is brought to the college to give Examiner's tests. The officers of the corps are: Dorothy Davis, Captain; Rosa Deutsch, First Mate; and Dorothy Anderson, Second Mate.

W. A. A. AWARDS . . . DANCING

The highest awards presented by the W.A.A. are the "little" and "big" T's. The students privileged to wear big T's are Rosa Deutsch, Dorothy Davis, and Aileene Lockhart; those wearing little T's are Dorothy Anderson, Elizabeth Finley, Zulika Weems, Aline Good, Geraldine Forrest, Marjorie Wiggins, and Vesta Anthony.

This year the girls interested in dancing have formed an honorary dancing club which meets regularly once a week. Louise King is chairman of the group; Mrs. Marian Rowland Roberts is the faculty sponsor. The charter members of the club are: Louise King, Aileene Lockhart, Vesta Marie Anthony, Eloise Riney, Arlis Owenby, Marjorie Hamm, Virginia McCann, Aline Good, Mildred Bachman, Virginia Temple, Lois Amlin, Mary Brantly, and Marjorie Wiggins.

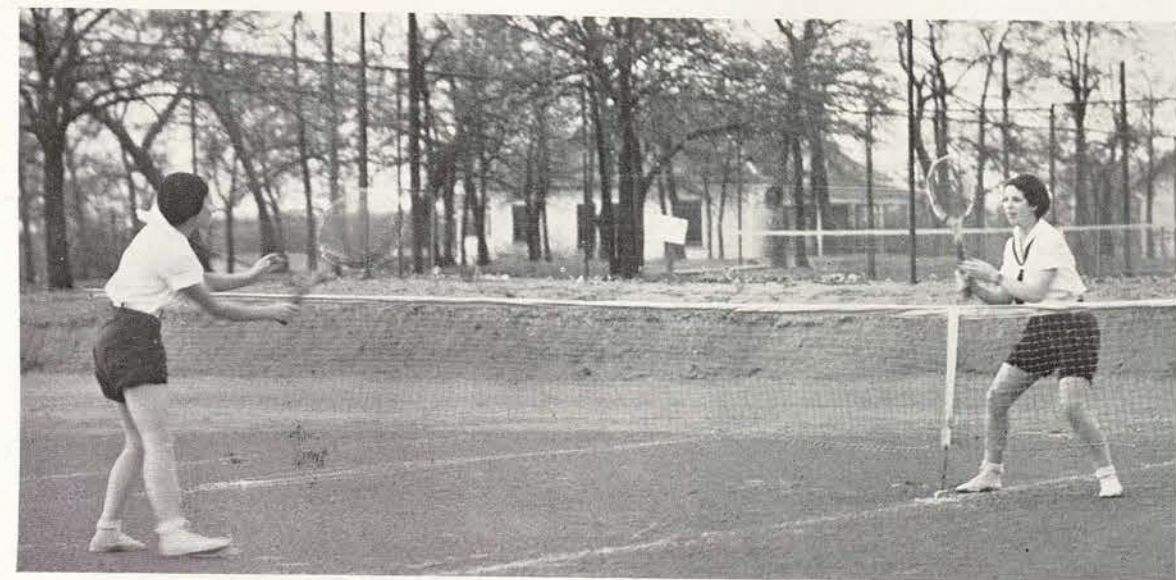

BASKETBALL . . . BASEBALL

Basketball is one of the W.A.A.'s prime sports. There was much competition this year between the color teams and class teams. The Varsity was announced at the annual basketball spread, and as the final game of the season the Varsity played the physical education faculty. Those making Varsity were: D. Anderson, H. Anderson, Finley, Good, Lang, and Winter. Elizabeth Finley was manager of the sport and Helen Anderson assistant.

The energetic arise at 6 A.M. on spring mornings and report to the baseball diamond for the day's workout. Dorothy Davis was manager of this national sport of ours and Vivian Liddell was assistant manager.

TENNIS . . . VARSITY

Spring! Tennis! And we find our courts swarming with ambitious players. Evelyn Simpson was manager of this popular recreation and Marie Louise Allen was assistant manager. The winner of the W.A.A. singles tournament each year has her name engraved on the cup held by that organization. The cup now bears the names: Ezma Taylor '28, Aileene Lockhart '29, Julia E. Bell '30, and Annie M. Blount '31.

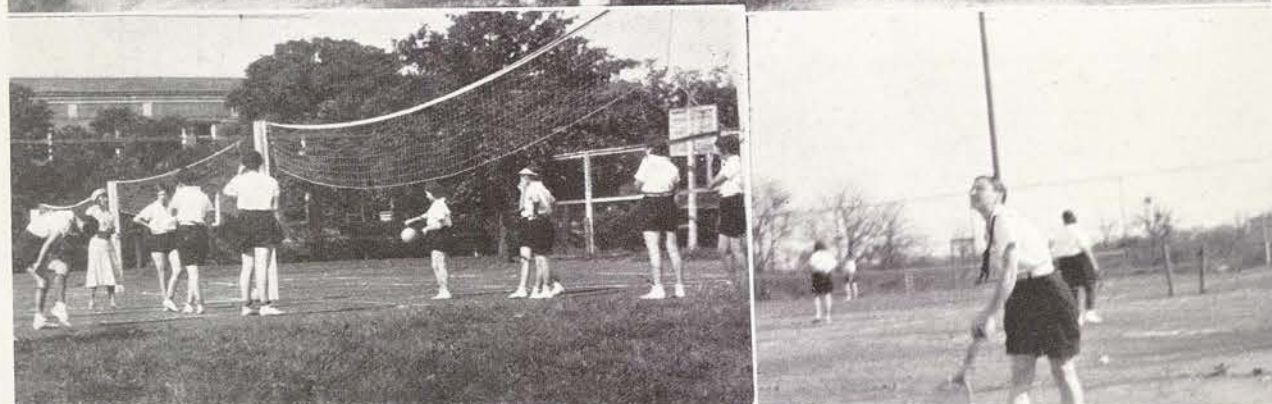

At the termination of each sport season, varsity teams are chosen. Here we have the C.I.A. Varsity Basketball Team 1932. Katherine Winter, Allene Good, Elizabeth Finley, Helen Anderson and Dorothy Anderson.

We have a new "bunker" (between the tee and hole No. 1) on the golf course, which has greatly enlarged some of our vocabularies. Golf classes are quite popular in the fall and spring even though some people still look with disdain upon those who love to chase the little white pill around. Note: Annie Price getting right to strike out.

Is there a game called Ice Tennis? We don't know; however, some people play tennis morning, noon and night, summer and winter. In the lower picture are Marie Louise Allen and Sara Malone, strong contenders for the Leaman doubles championship for 1932.

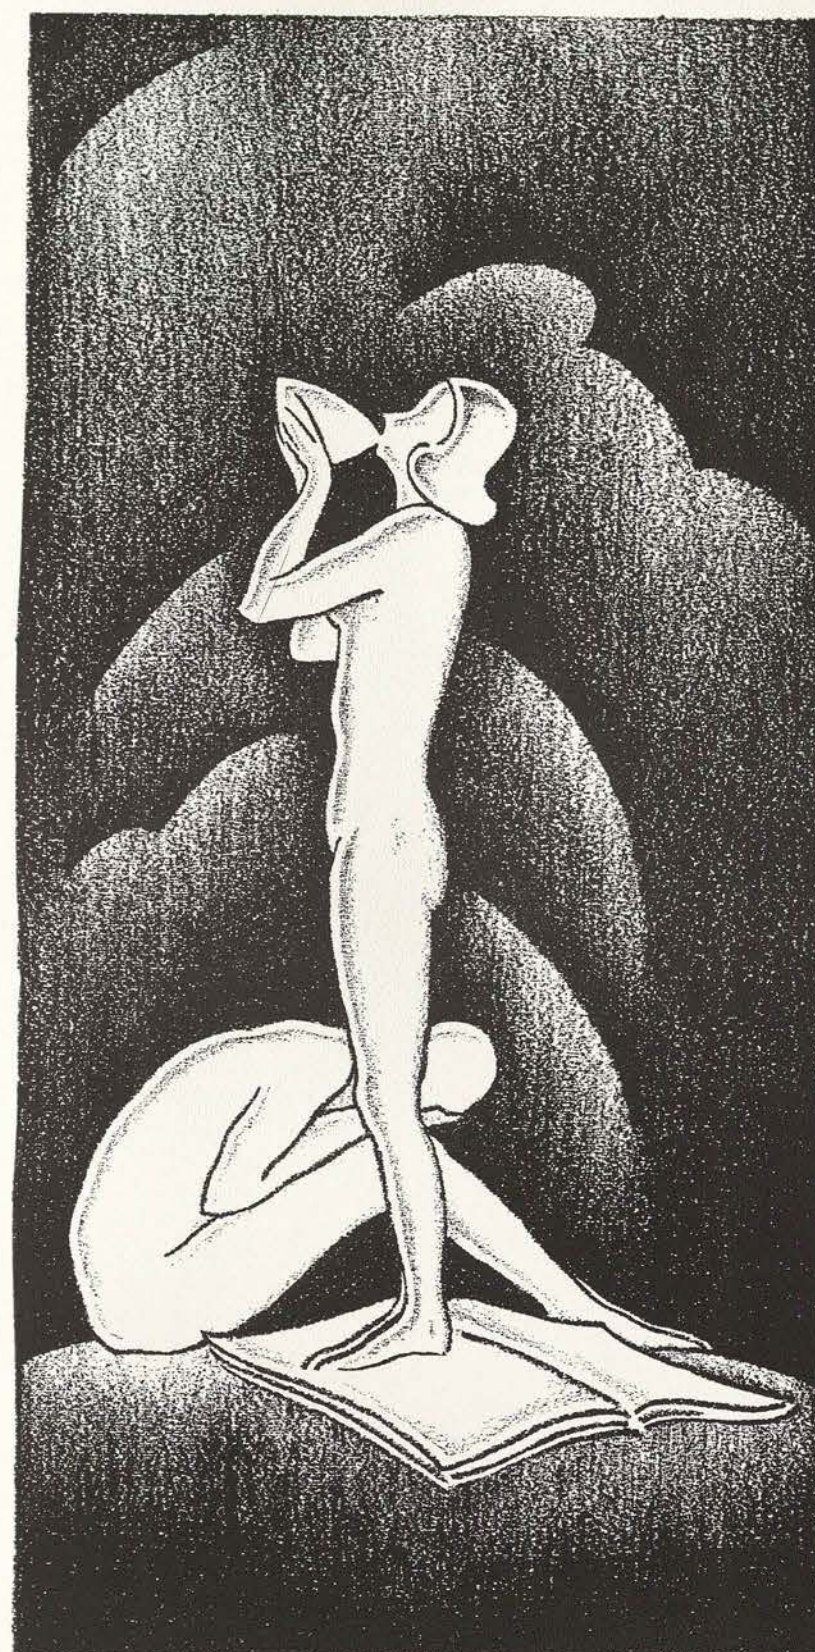

Perhaps you have never heard of 100 and 220 yard dashes, but just ask anyone who participates in fieldball or soccer and she will tell you all about it.

The W.A.A. has a cabin in the woods on the campus. Every Saturday night some group of "back to nature" advocates has a grand time roughing it.

For the benefit of curious classmates the "pillbags" carried by the senior physical education majors are not first-aid kits, nor are they satchels in which the studious transport their books. If you are really desirous of ascertaining their contents, perhaps you can persuade someone to inform you.

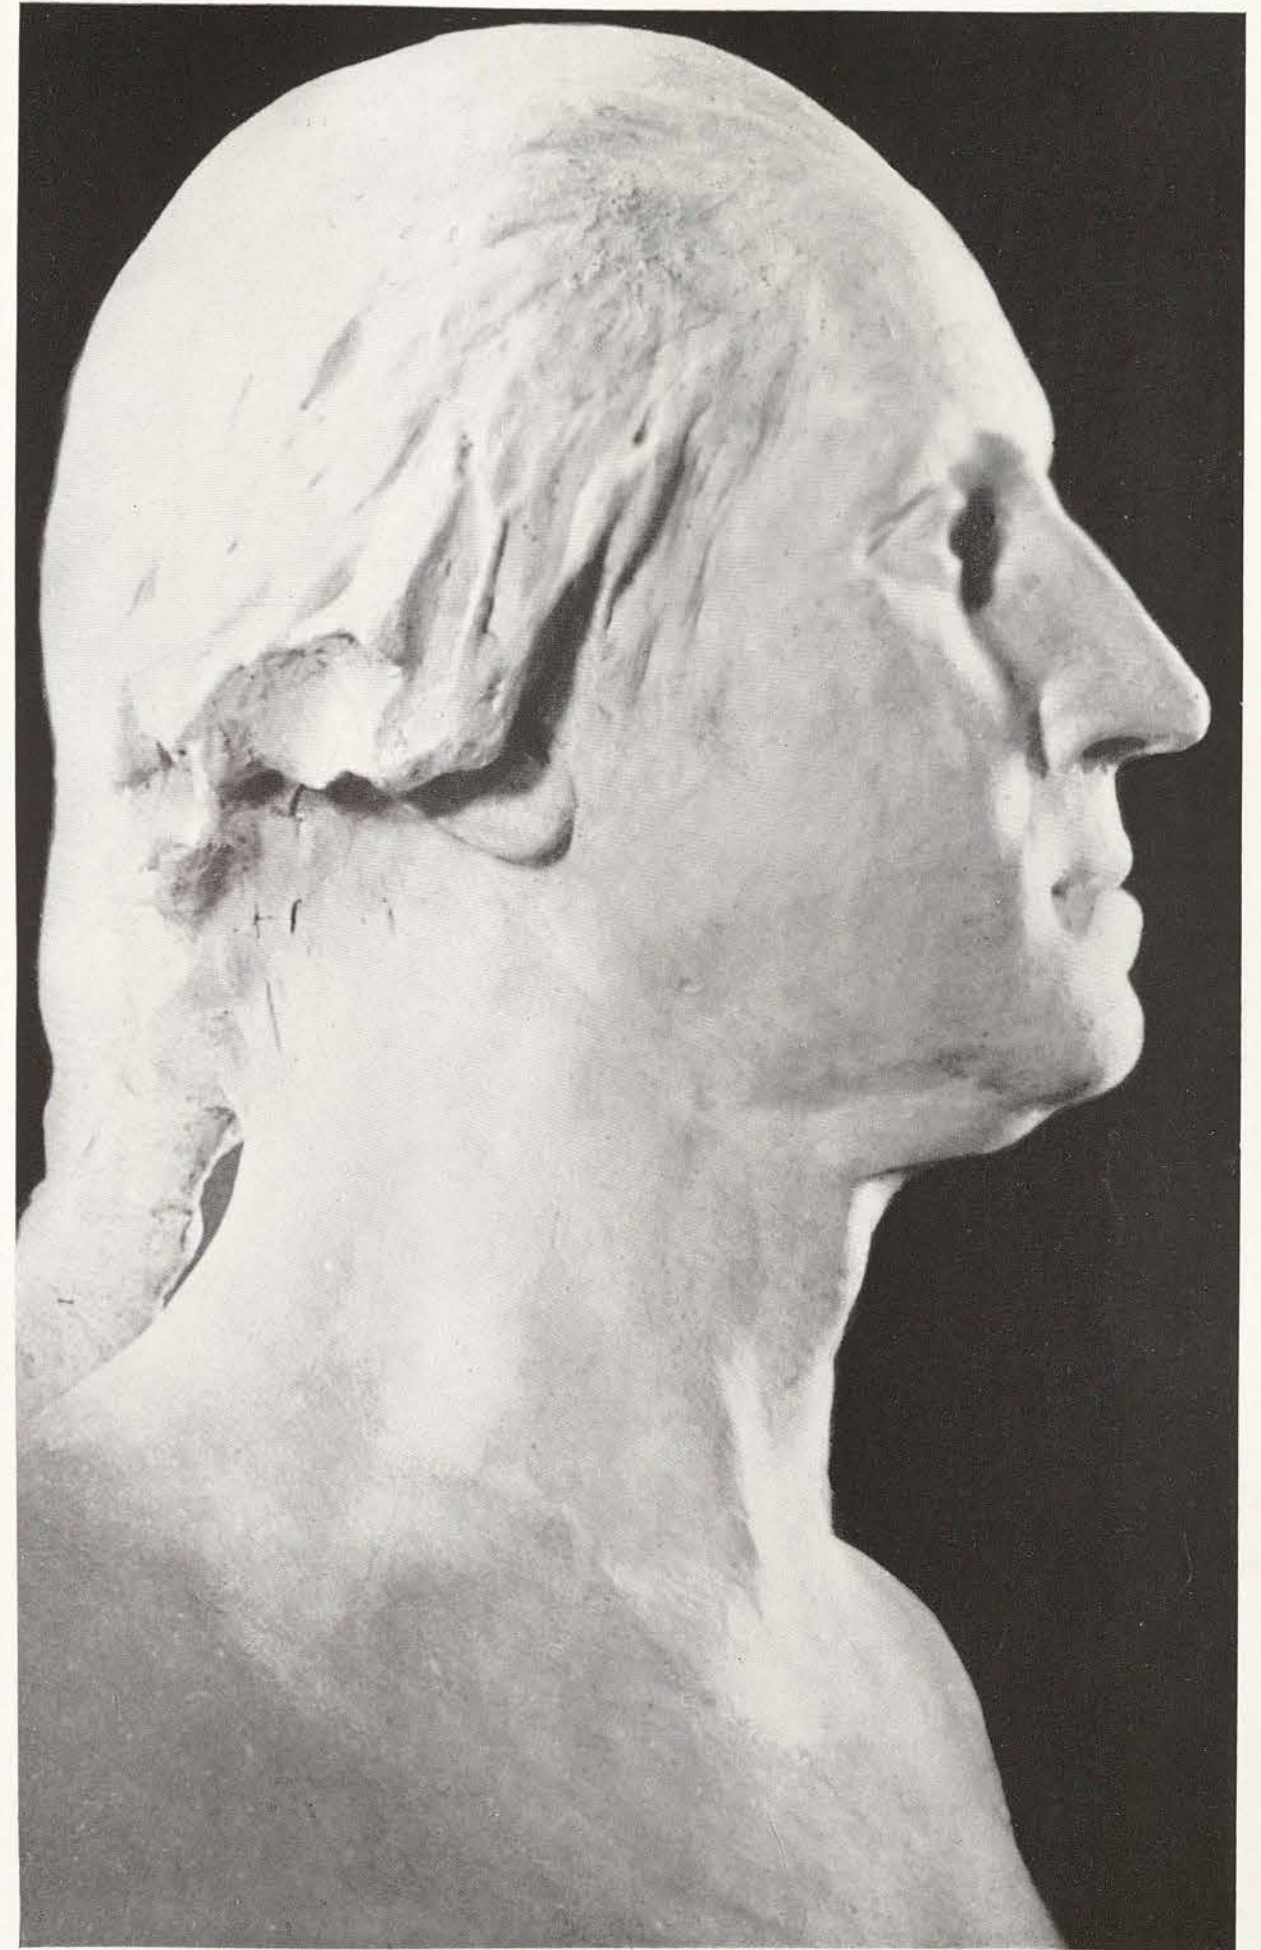

• FEATURES •

The staff of the 1932 Daedalian Yearbook dedicate the Feature Section in memory of George Washington, the greatest statesman of all time.

The photograph was taken from the famous Houdon Bust of George Washington made from life at Mount Vernon by the great French sculptor, Jean Antoine Houdon, in 1785. It was selected as the official portrait of the Father of His Country, by the United States Commission for the Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of his birth.

The college celebrated the Bi-Centennial Anniversary of George Washington by presenting "The Poor Soldier," said to be the favorite play of Washington.

The students and faculty dressed in colonial costume on the eve of the presentation of this play.

A scene from the play, "The Poor Soldier."

Our own President Hubbard, Mrs. Hubbard, and two students, Helen Matthews and Agnes Jones in the guise of the presidential party.

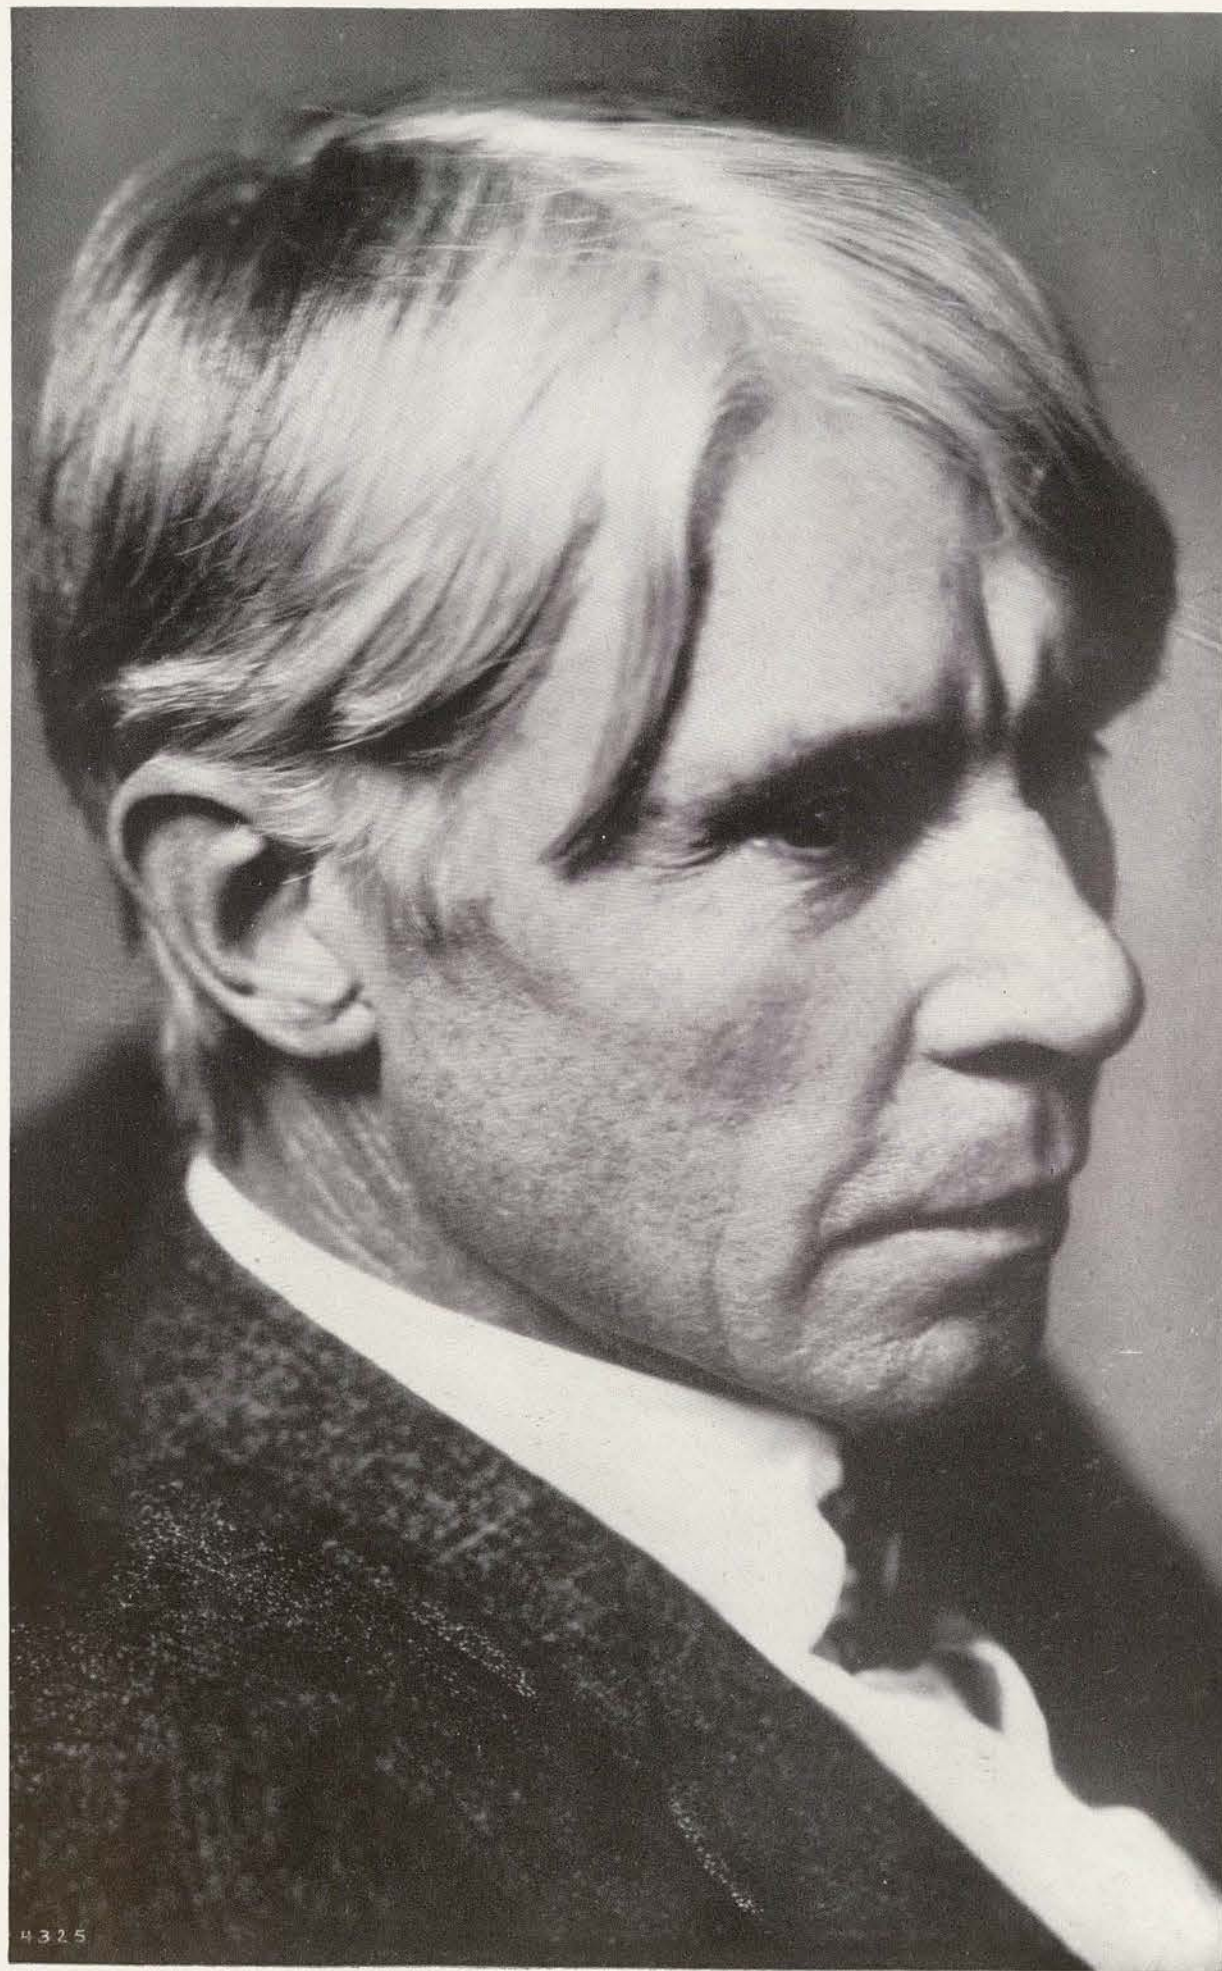

The Colonial Ball was held on Valentine's eve this year, and the students turned back the leaves of time to the day of Martha and George.

The presidential party rode in state to see "The Poor Soldier," the favorite play of George Washington, and then returned home to the parlor to have a cup of tea.

Carl Sandburg, America's most distinctive and beloved poet, was warmly received by the student body during his visit on the campus.

He is also heralded as Lincoln's most understanding biographer, journalist, best author of children's books of this generation, and singer of American folk songs.

Ruth Bryan Owen appeared at the Texas State College for Women this year for a Sunday afternoon lecture.

She is a most inspiring, versatile, high-minded, progressive member of Congress. She is alert, constructive, tolerant, and broad-minded. And, withal, she remains a woman still, with all the artifices, charm, and fine sensibilities of the true American woman.

She happily represents a composite of citizen, statesman, and woman, which is worthy of emulation by anyone, man or woman.

*Yours
Ruth Bryan Owen*

The fantastical musical, "Blue Bird" will never be forgotten by the college as one of the outstanding Artists Course numbers. At the presentation of this musical, the audience greeted with enthusiasm, not only the clever Yascha Yushny, director, but also many of his all-Russian group, of which the singer and G. Orlik, dancer, were two of the most outstanding.

The Barrere Little Symphony Orchestra, composed of fourteen members, presented an unusual and outstanding concert on the evening of February 3.

Good direction plus thirteen accomplished musicians resulted in an almost perfect evening of music.

Jose Iturbi, pianist, who appeared at the College on the evening of April 1, was truly a "sensation." Already famous in Europe and South America, he is fast becoming an idol to audiences in the United States. Mr. Iturbi is a "wizard of the keyboard." It takes the musical public only a very few minutes to become aware of the fact that he is one of the leading virtuosos of this period.

Still in his middle thirties, Mr. Iturbi is one of the great artists of today—an artist to the tips of his fingers.

Bianca Saroya, German soprano, appeared at the Texas State College for Women on the evening of October 21. She has received much favorable criticism by musical authorities, and the S.C.W. audience agreed that the critics were wise.

"To the Ladies," a Little Theater production, was given on Oct. 22. The banquet scene furnished the climax of the play. Many clever speeches were made and—the audience discovered that women sometimes write their husbands' speeches.

Norman Thomas, who lectured at the college this year, exemplifies the moral-political-social type of statesman. He voices the ultra-progressive tendencies bordering on to radicalism; yet he seems to remain sane and of even poise. He has a thorough grasp upon the facts of our present social status, and tries to construct remedies therefor. He is a great pulpit orator, a man who is a mouth-piece of masses, reformer, scholar, and leader. Mr. Thomas is, perhaps, a little in advance of the age.

After the Assembly program at which Mr. Norman Thomas spoke, the audience gathered for a "tree-planting" exercise. President Hubbard presided and Mr. Thomas spoke. The presidents of the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes had a part in the exercise.

Another view of the group which gathered for the "tree-planting."

Sir Philip is the exponent of an art that has become more or less dormant or lethargic; namely, the spoken drama. All too rapidly are his like passing, and the hope is indulged that his disciples may succeed in resurrecting and perpetuating this mode of entertainment, now more or less superseded by the film, but by no means surpassed by any other form of dramatic art.

Let us wish for him many, many more years of service in keeping alive the elegant, polished, spoken language which we all love to hear.

Yours sincerely
Philip Ben-Graet Nov 30th 1931

Mary Becker
Mar 16/1932

On Wednesday evening, March 16, Mary Becker, violinist; Frances Block, contralto; and Charles King, pianist, were presented in concert as one of the outstanding numbers of the Artist's Course.

Mary Becker is one of the youngest violinists to appear on the concert stage. At twenty years old, she plays the violin with 'technical fluency and profound musical insight.'

The college was represented in the Denton Armistice Day parade with a patriotic float carrying eight students. This was preceded by a group on horseback and a carriage bearing the Dean of Women.

The oval picture is an interesting scene in "The Ivory Door" between the two leading characters, Wirtabel Ramsey and Clara Hall.

Clever characterization was displayed in the "Three Spinners," presented by the Children's Little Theater.

Mary Briant and Ellen Welensiek will be remembered by many for their ability in portraying the lovers in the senior class play, "Romeo and Jane."

Alexandre Hogue couldn't select all thirty-two for beauties, so here we see the other candidates. They are: Gladene Parr, Eleanor Rose Cogdell, Anna Mae Young, Phyllis Matlock, Marjorie Shurley and Alice Virginia Baxter.

This group is as popular as it is pretty. They are: Mary Ellen Bellenger, Lavon Wood, Rosalind Hilman, Evelyn Dean, Dorothy Smith and Beatrice McKinney.

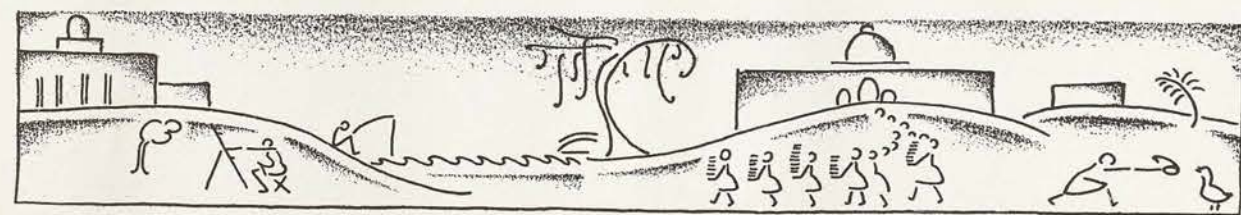

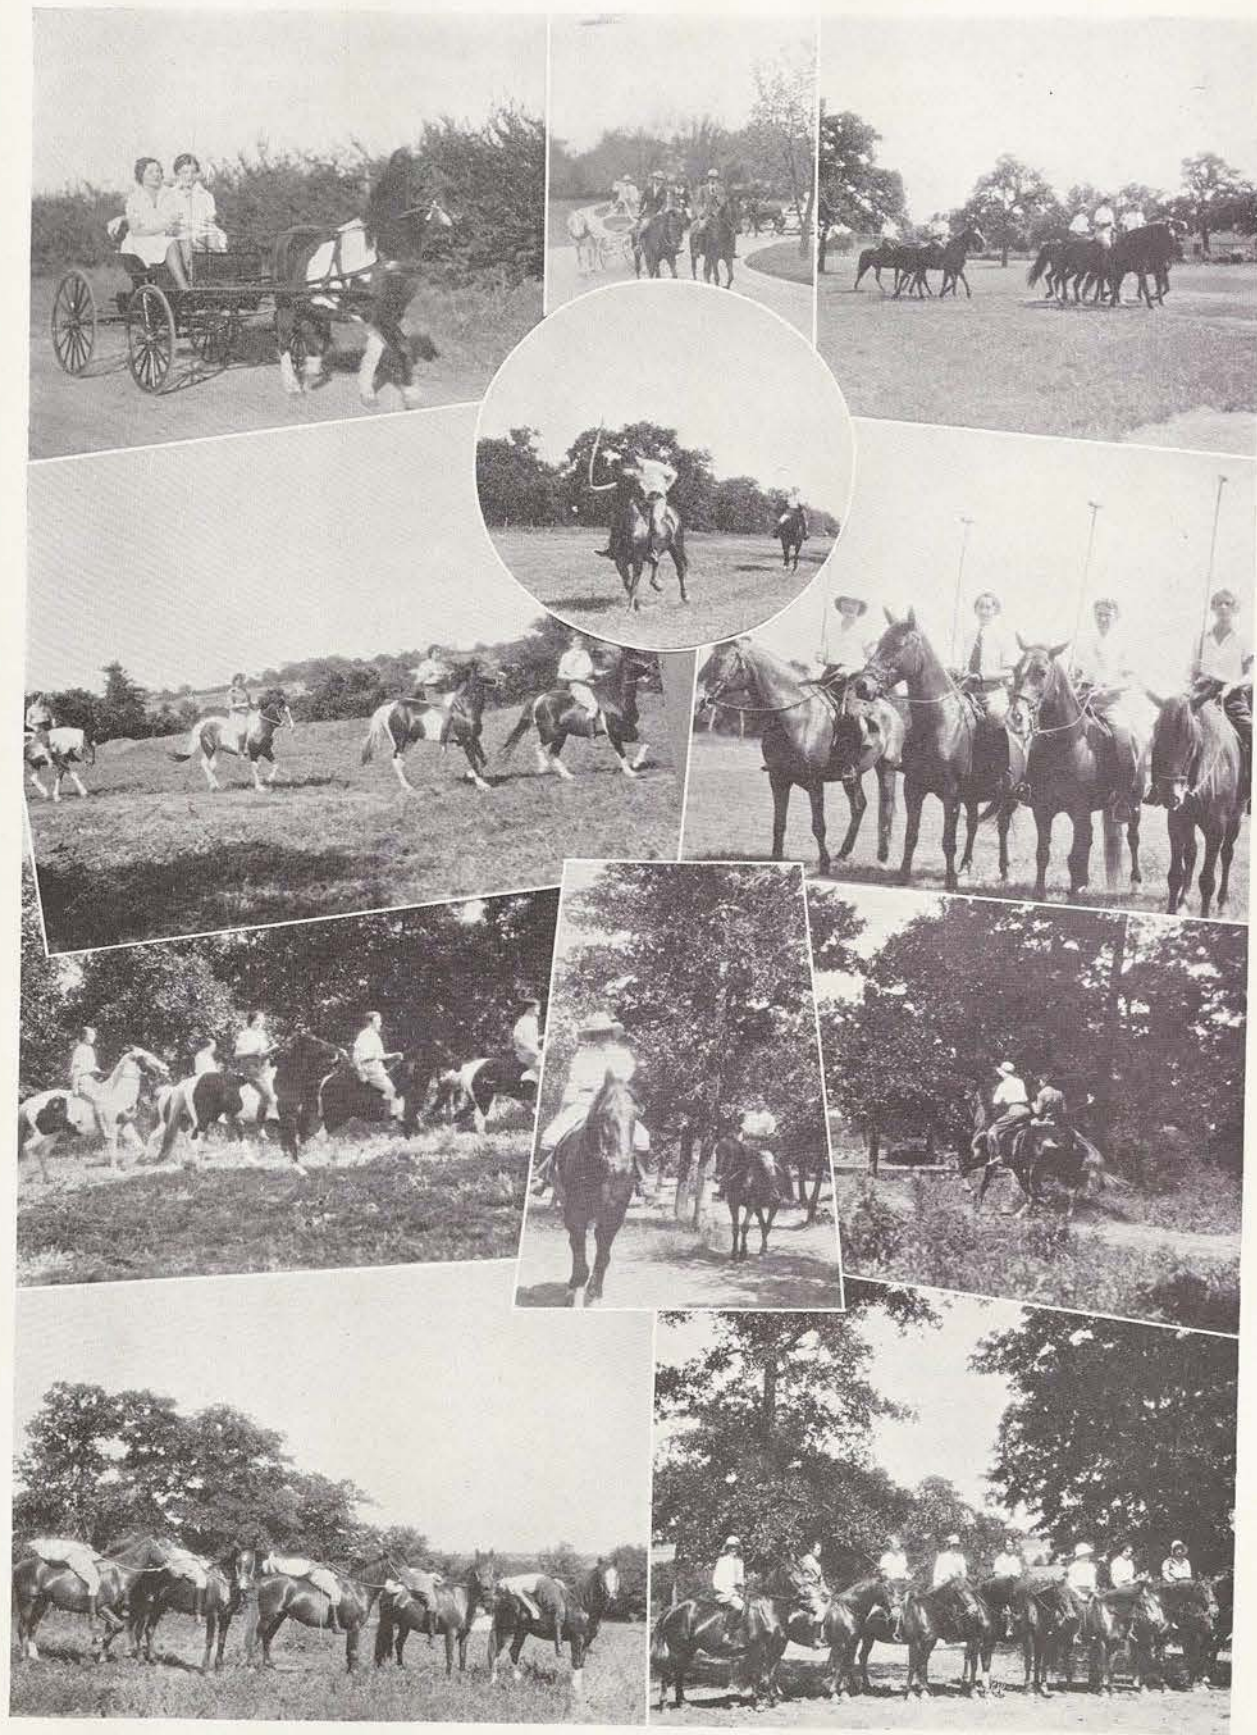

Six other lovely nominees for beauties are: Isabelle Poole, Gwendolyn Moore, Nadine Brown, Nell Penn, Jack Hatfield and Elizabeth Pool.

These are sweeter than the sweets and claim our utmost admiration. The nominees are: Ruth O'Hara, Mary Underwood, Louise Blanchette, Ruth Bounds, Mary Lowry and Jessie Deavenport.

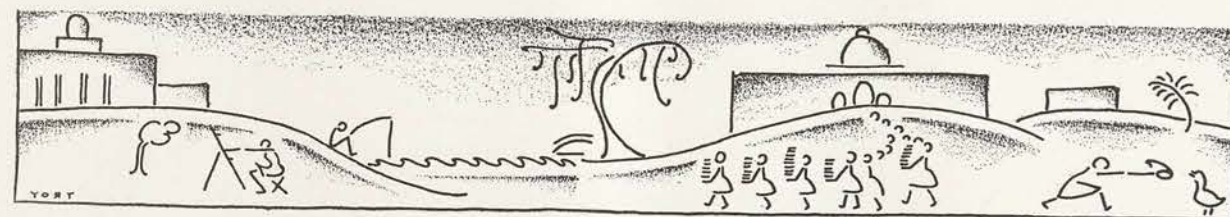

An hour off and we take a horse for a ride instead of the bus. Some prefer the buggy and Shetland pony to the galloping horse. But many who are efficient equestrians, like Julia and Huberta, go in for polo and cross-country trips as regularly as drinking their morning coffee. Miss Branch Williams, the instructor of the Riding Academy, really knows her horses and believes in starting the beginners off with a jump . . . at least that is the way the bareback riders feel about it.

Dear ole Honk, look what she brought home! You can just tell too, she's proud of it.

You'd think a lot more girls take archery than do, because they really teach them to "shoot the bull's eye."

This team here has all the earmarks of an Olympic Team; but no joking it is a real team. Look at Ole Louise and Jerry.

Just an old mail box at C.I.A.

Do you suppose Alice is just affectionate?

Yes, the young lady with the "M" on her sweater is none other than our beloved editor—Pat Fewell.

Dottie and Toddie are trying to fool the girls, they really are not so clean—'tis someone else's laundry.

"Red" Carnike believes in working, yes, dirty work, eh?

Did you ever see such faces? Which is the most perfect resemblance in this group?

"GIDDAP HORSIE," said Branch Williams years ago.

Poor Mary Elizabeth Wilson and Liz Jones are having a hard time staying on the back of the wagon.

Did you know "Honk" Blount was a horsewoman?

This cheering trio, Freda, Dorothy and Kathleen really do make noise; no we didn't say they sang.

My, my, how these juniors study! "An afternoon of hard study like this gives me my A's," says Phillis Matlock.

Brevard Burk and Minnie Thiele appear quite professional at posing, don't you agree?

Wonder if Annabelle Robinson and Bethany Johnson believe the general public think they study—maybe a "drag," reckon?

Who would have thought Nelda Taylor, Mary Loughbridge and M. Jones would be sissy enough for this type of vase garland.

Ruth Bounds looks most innocent on the bench down by the lake with her three buddies.

You would never know from looking, but Celestia Fore is only chasing her shadow.

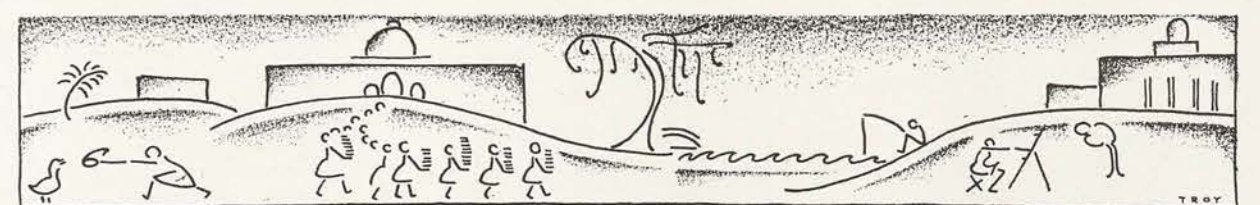

Freshmen like stairs. This group headed by Harlyn Elmore says Sayers is the Dorm for you.

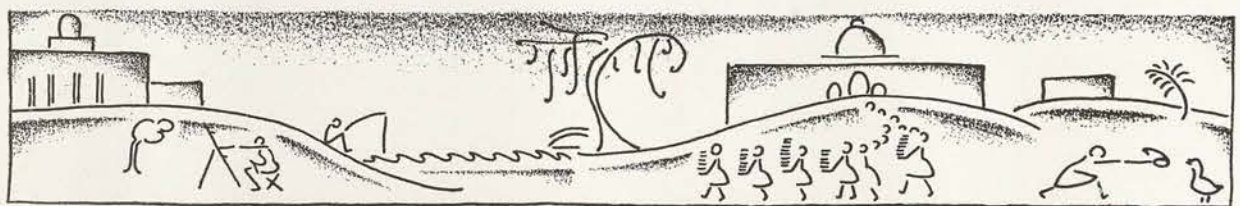

Does Maxine Rigby look worried, or does she seem glad? Maybe Junior dances provoke such expressions.

The motorcycle was the nearest thing handy for Elizabeth Kincaid to ride—do you suppose she's chasing Eli?

Miss Deckard really looks quite commonplace with her pet, eh?

Haven't you often wondered just how many childhoods our dignified seniors pass thru—Blanche Fall is in her third with the dear little teddy bear.

Just a bunch of phys ed. majors loaded for a ride in the caboose wagon.

Reading the "funnies" is the main Sunday diversion for the Durrums.

Rachel and Troy go smiling along their way from sun-up till moon-down.

Reggie—just another one of the editor's sheiks. What a smile.

K. M. has just told Barbara and Fannie a good one.

Beautiful Lou is caught waiting for the bus. Yes, the coat spoils the picture.

The Cotton Festival held at the college last summer seems to have been a big affair.

Mabelle Baird and her husband make a great pair. It is rumored that they had an ideal honeymoon.

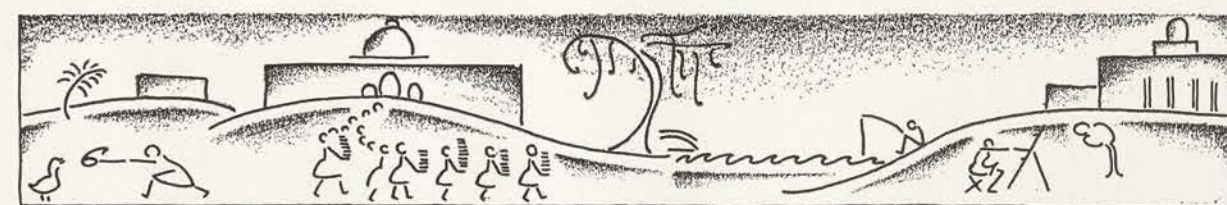

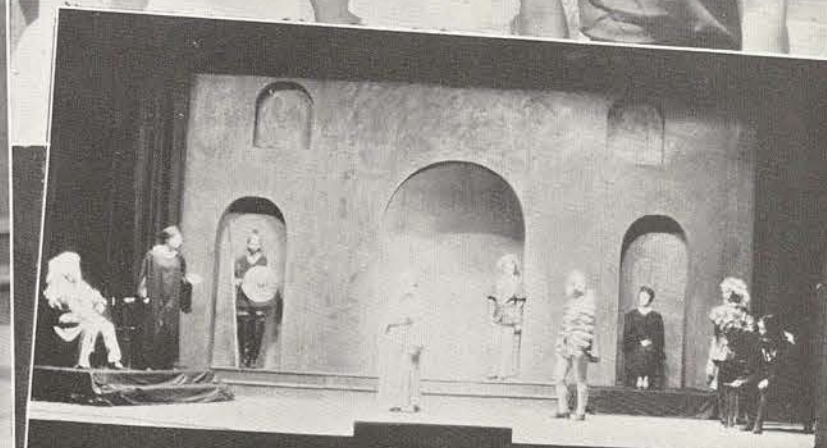

Speaking of Speech majors—Lucy Lewis is quite a mighty dramatist; just look at those eyes.

The summer junior and senior officers look quite angelic.

Note: Margaret Moseley with her mouth closed.

A scene from the "Ivory Door," a Little Theater play.

All Fish rule on Fish Day. Everything looks peaceful as you give them 'the once over' in their perfect formation—but Oh Deah, they are regular pests when they take charge of the throne.

A watering place was bound to look good to these riders.

Such a wistful bunch are Dot, Maxine, Phillis and Speedy. Bet exams are not far away.

Collegiate, Yes, she is Collegiate! is rumored about Maurine Block.

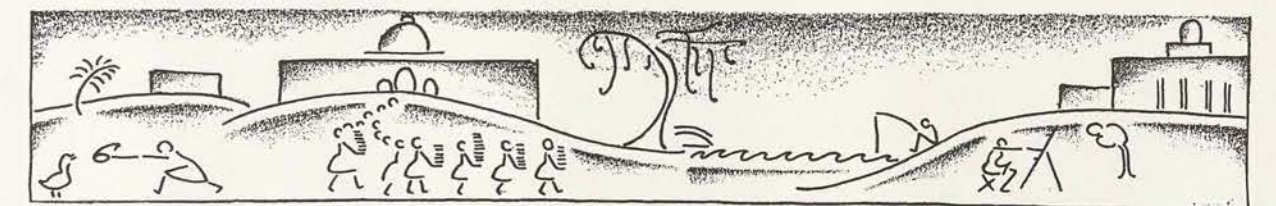

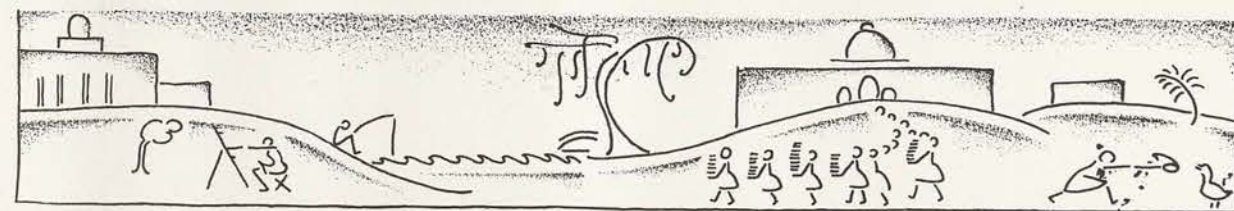

Just some more sisterly affection as exhibited by Pat and Dottie, and Louise Hunter and her partner in crime.

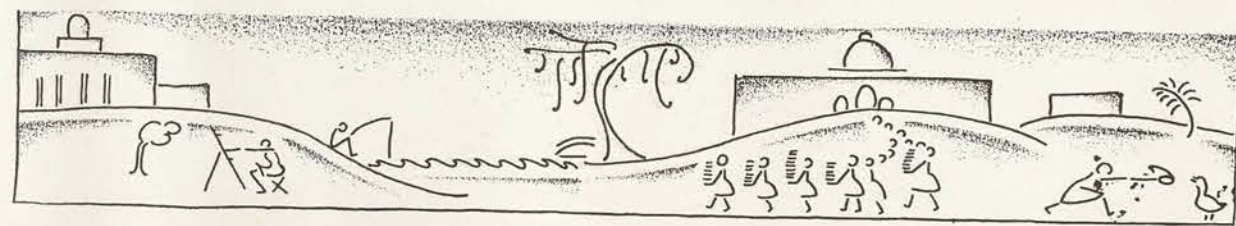

Miss Halbert had a hard time holding these juniors down. Really Freda looks like she could chew nails, doesn't she?

The two D's and Speedy and Kirby have resorted to primitive monkey climbing days.

I wonder just who Joyce Forke is smiling for?

H. P. from Capps says she is embarrassed even though Mary Gurley, Helena and Chubby Durrum think it is funny.

Does the Lodge afford amusement besides dancing every night, well—this group in the swing says yes.

What? Do we have male (not mail) friends here also? Yes, our buddies, Alf Roark and Bill Dickey from T.C.U.

Somebody ask Mary G. Bryan and Eleanor Berry what is so very funny.

I just wonder who told the four juniors from Los to look at the birdie. Maxine said she was ready.

Don't Doris and Lura look lovely on the dock?

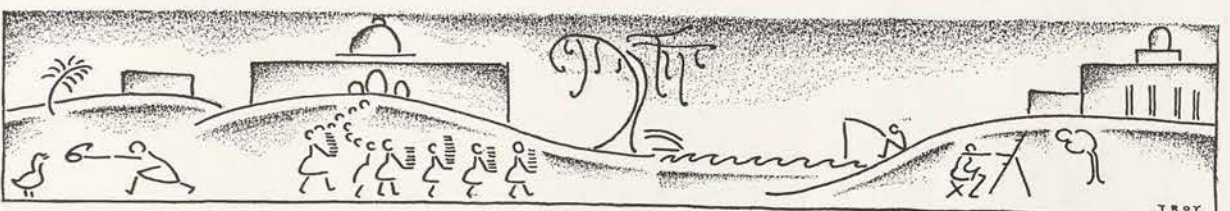

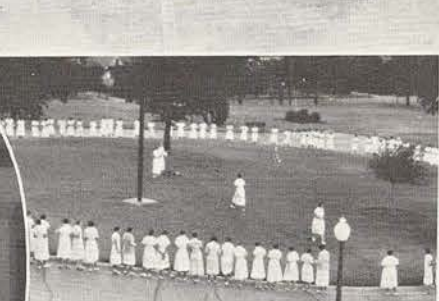

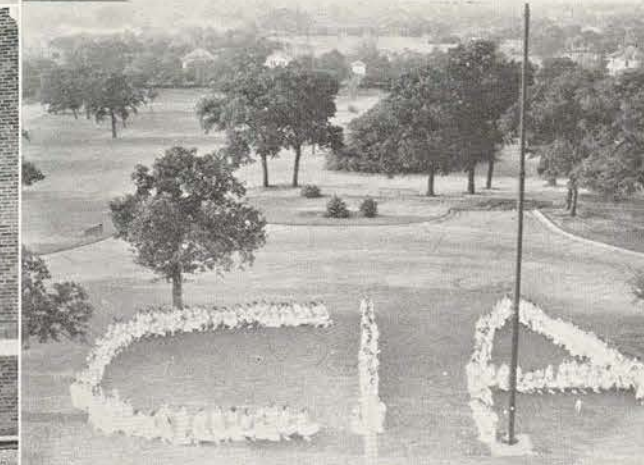

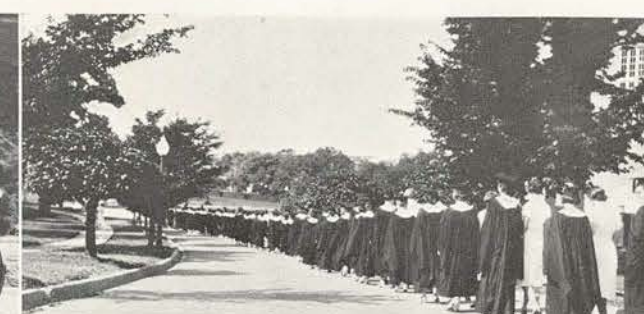

Just another group of the high and mighty from Los.

Seniors do have their days and Commencement is one of them. Here we see the processional winding its way to the auditorium.

Fitzgerald, the new senior dorm, already holds countless memories for some.

Senior Roll Call is held at the first of school at sunrise in front of the Administration Building. This is followed by the forming of the letters C.I.A.

Another senior activity is the White Christmas breakfast held on the Sunday morning preceding the holidays.

Fanny Simpson is quite good at consoling others—maybe that's why she will be "Mrs." in June.

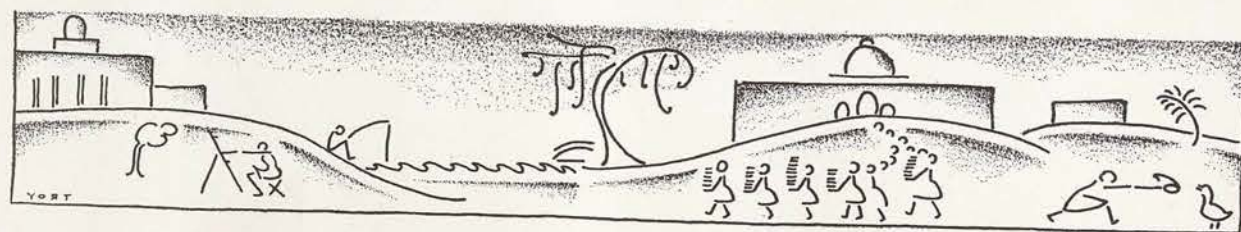

Mr. Garner was always popular.

Mable King keeps this path hot doing something intelligent.

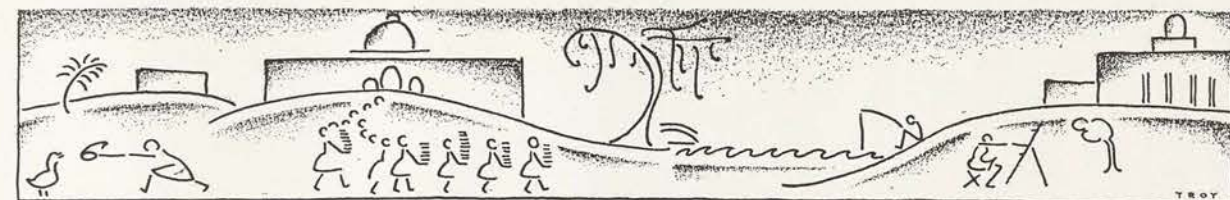

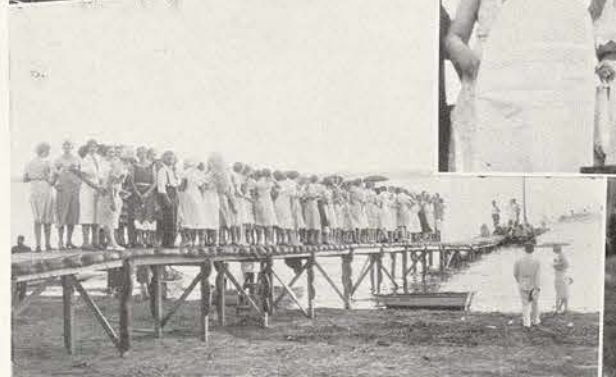

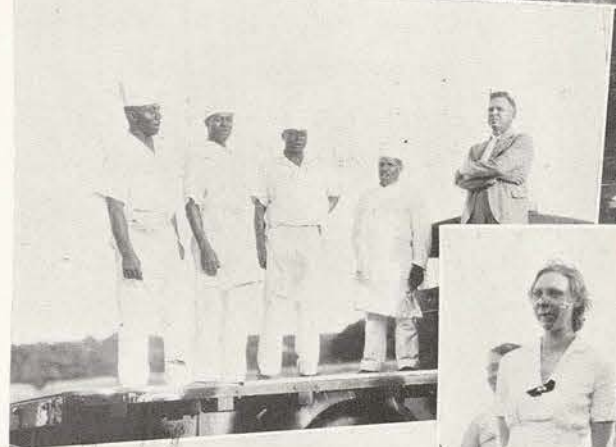

Fitz has a lovely and inviting interior, especially down around the radio.

Ole Pat seems to be waiting on someone—Wonder who?

Don't we wish we were husky like some Phys. Ed. majors so we could paddle someone's canoe?

The All-College picnics at Lake Dallas are great sport for 'studes' and 'profs.' Here we see several pie-eaters who are having their faces washed by two faculty members. The cabin and the speed-boats recall happy hours as well as the food line where starving numbers are appeased. Even R. J. Garner turns socialist and directs the cooks in a vocal number. The picture in the right-hand corner, tells its own story . . . that Mr. Bourdon has another hobby.

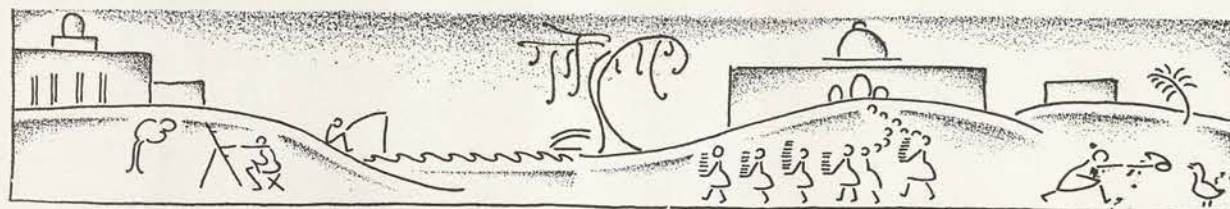

Skeeter says the pond does have "little bitxy gold" fish.

Dorothy isn't your roommate large enough to pull up her own hose, or do you have to wait on her leg and arm?

Some one please tell us where Earline Sivley is standing, and what she has been doing.

Zelda Mae says, "Sho' I can ride a bike."

Looks like Ruth Washburn is trying to hide from something—no maybe they are just teasing the "poor poop."

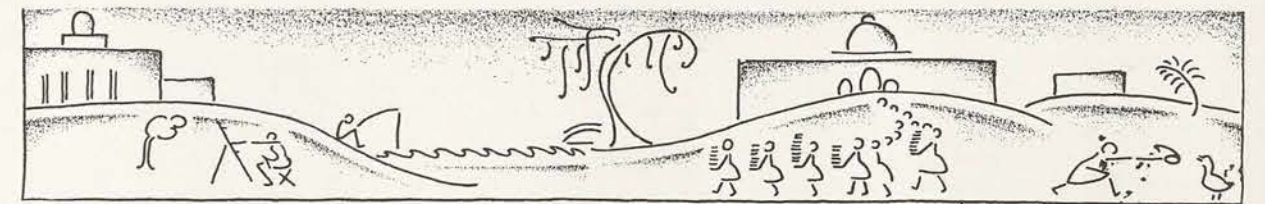

Let's go for a hay ride or a little jaunt to the lake for a cabin party! Rachel Ann seems to be holding on quite successfully.

How about working a bit in the linotype room? Unusual things are so interesting.

Some of the Journalism majors say, "Yes, it is hard work," just ask Cherry or Pat about it.

Girls, Girls! Seventeen or eighteen years ago didn't you just adore to swing and go splashing about in the ponds? Oh, for the life of the nursery school . . . says you??

Here we see Jiggs Nooe and George Hubbard doing a swan dive.

A few of the healthy seniors lined up on the H. A. steps before making for the bread line.

Reggie and Pat in Colorado . . . Happy did you say?

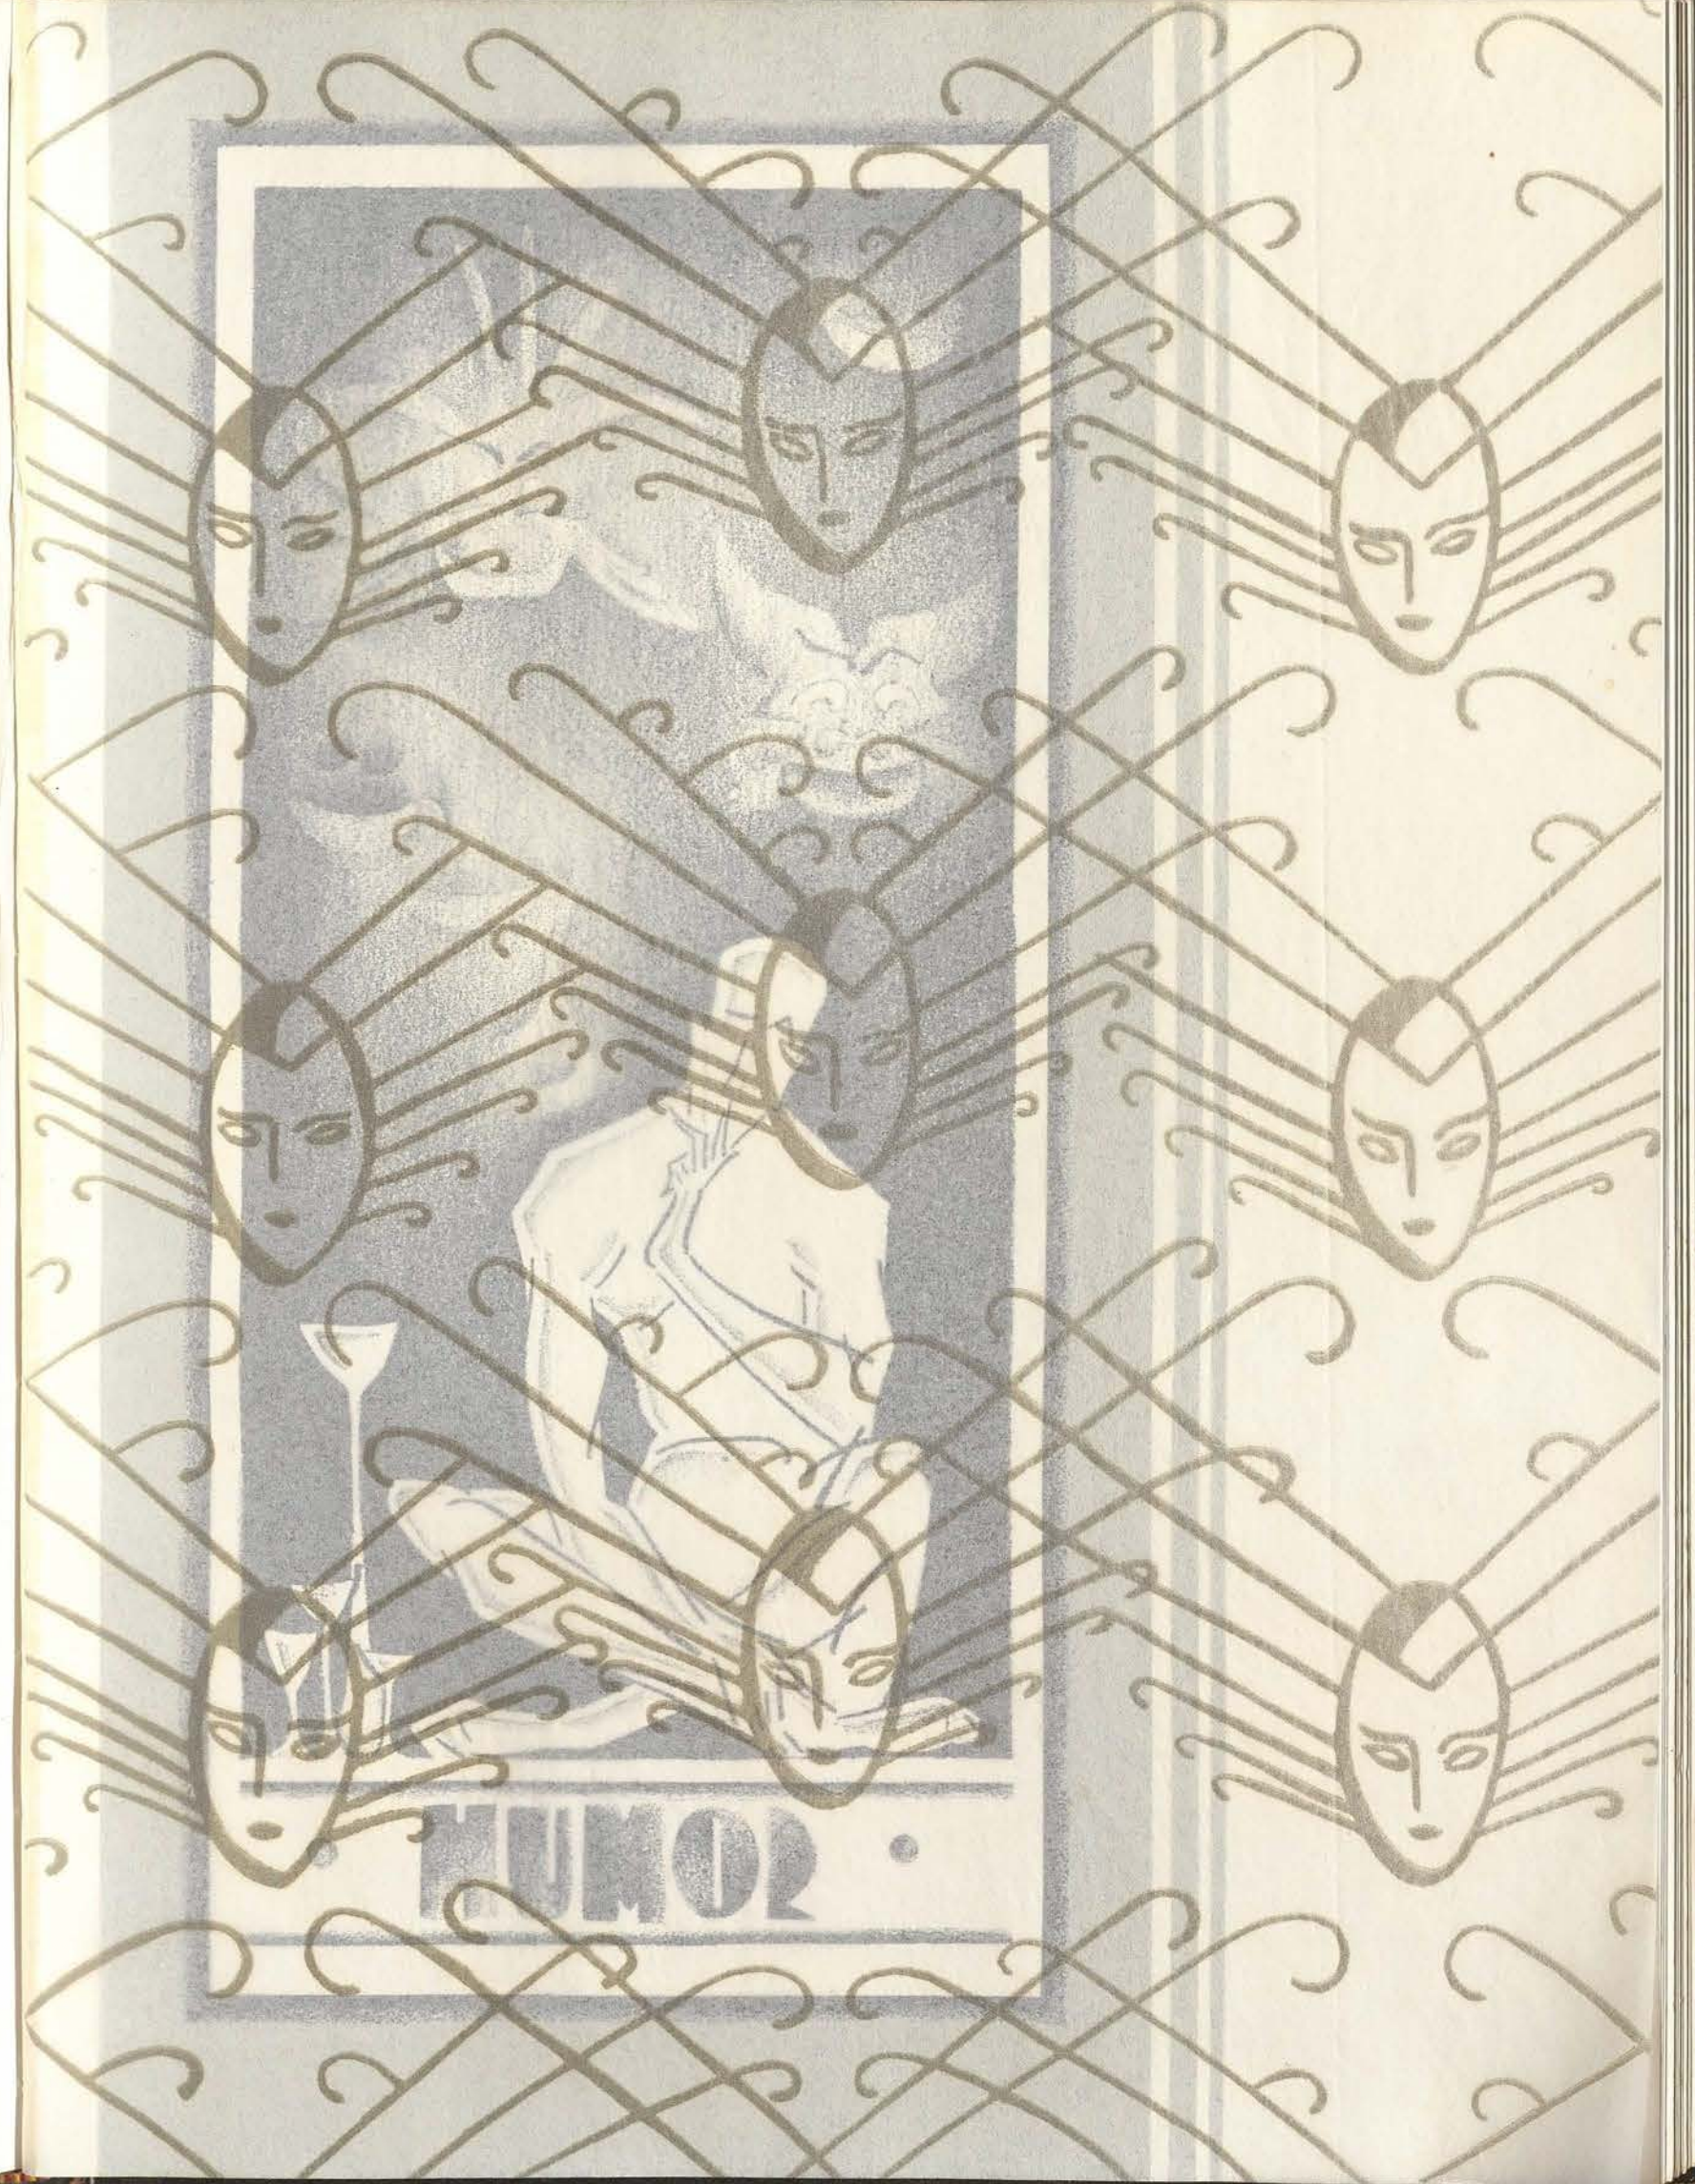

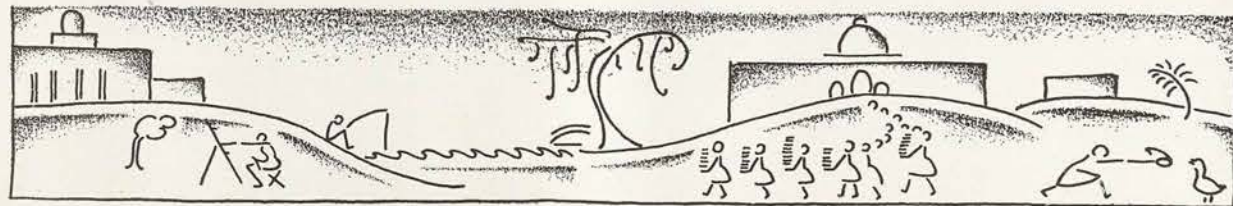

Frances Lauderdale in a new outfit. Troy and Margaret plus Lucy and Jane make a nice foursome.

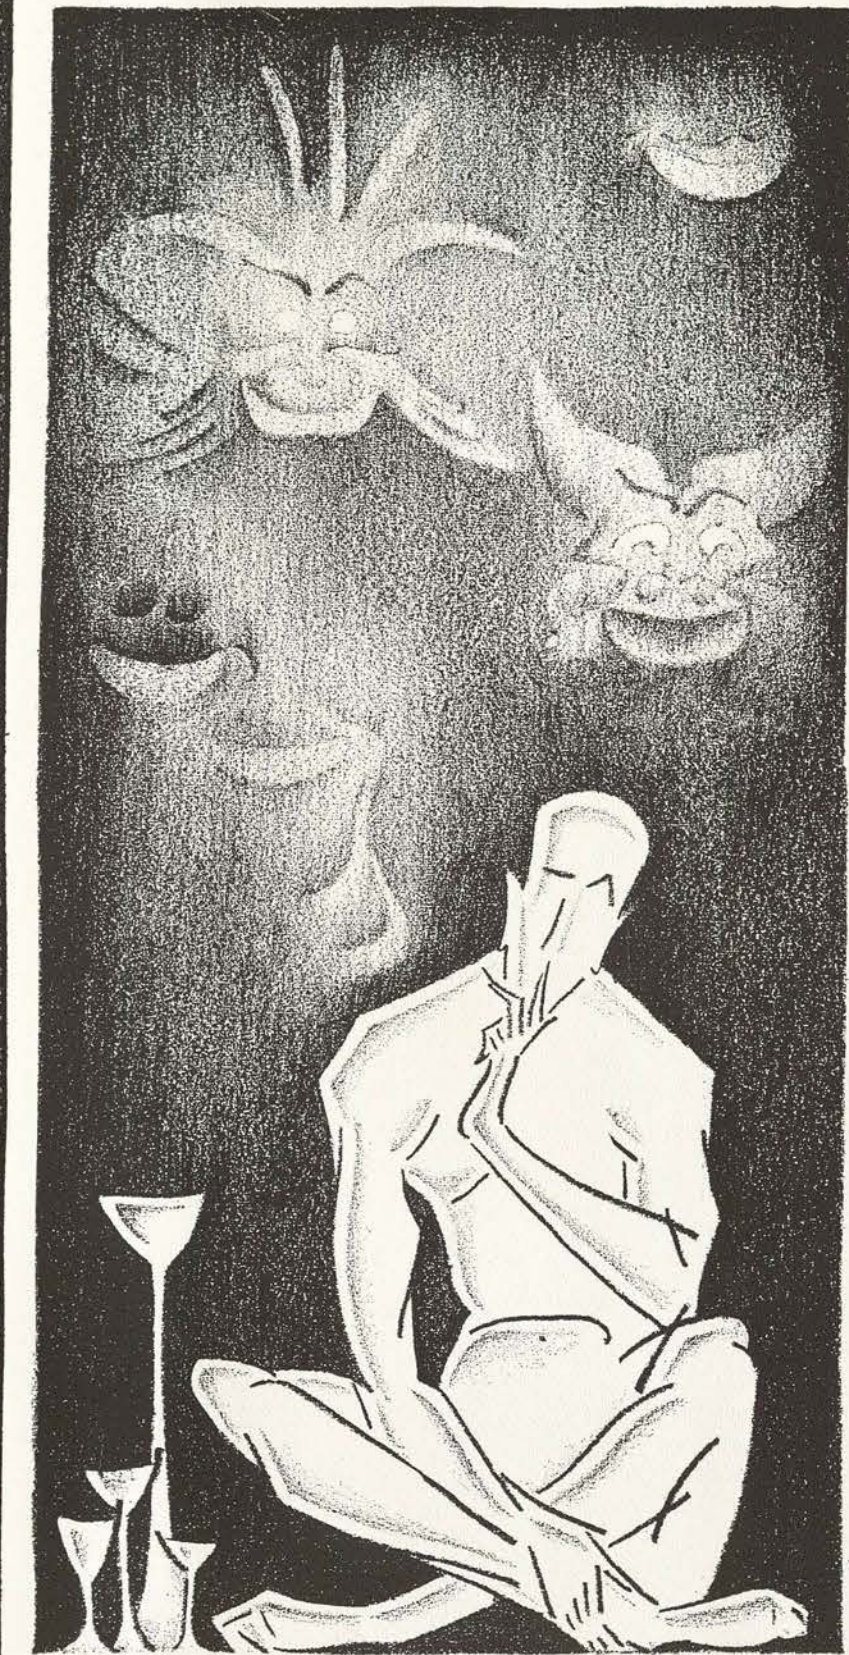

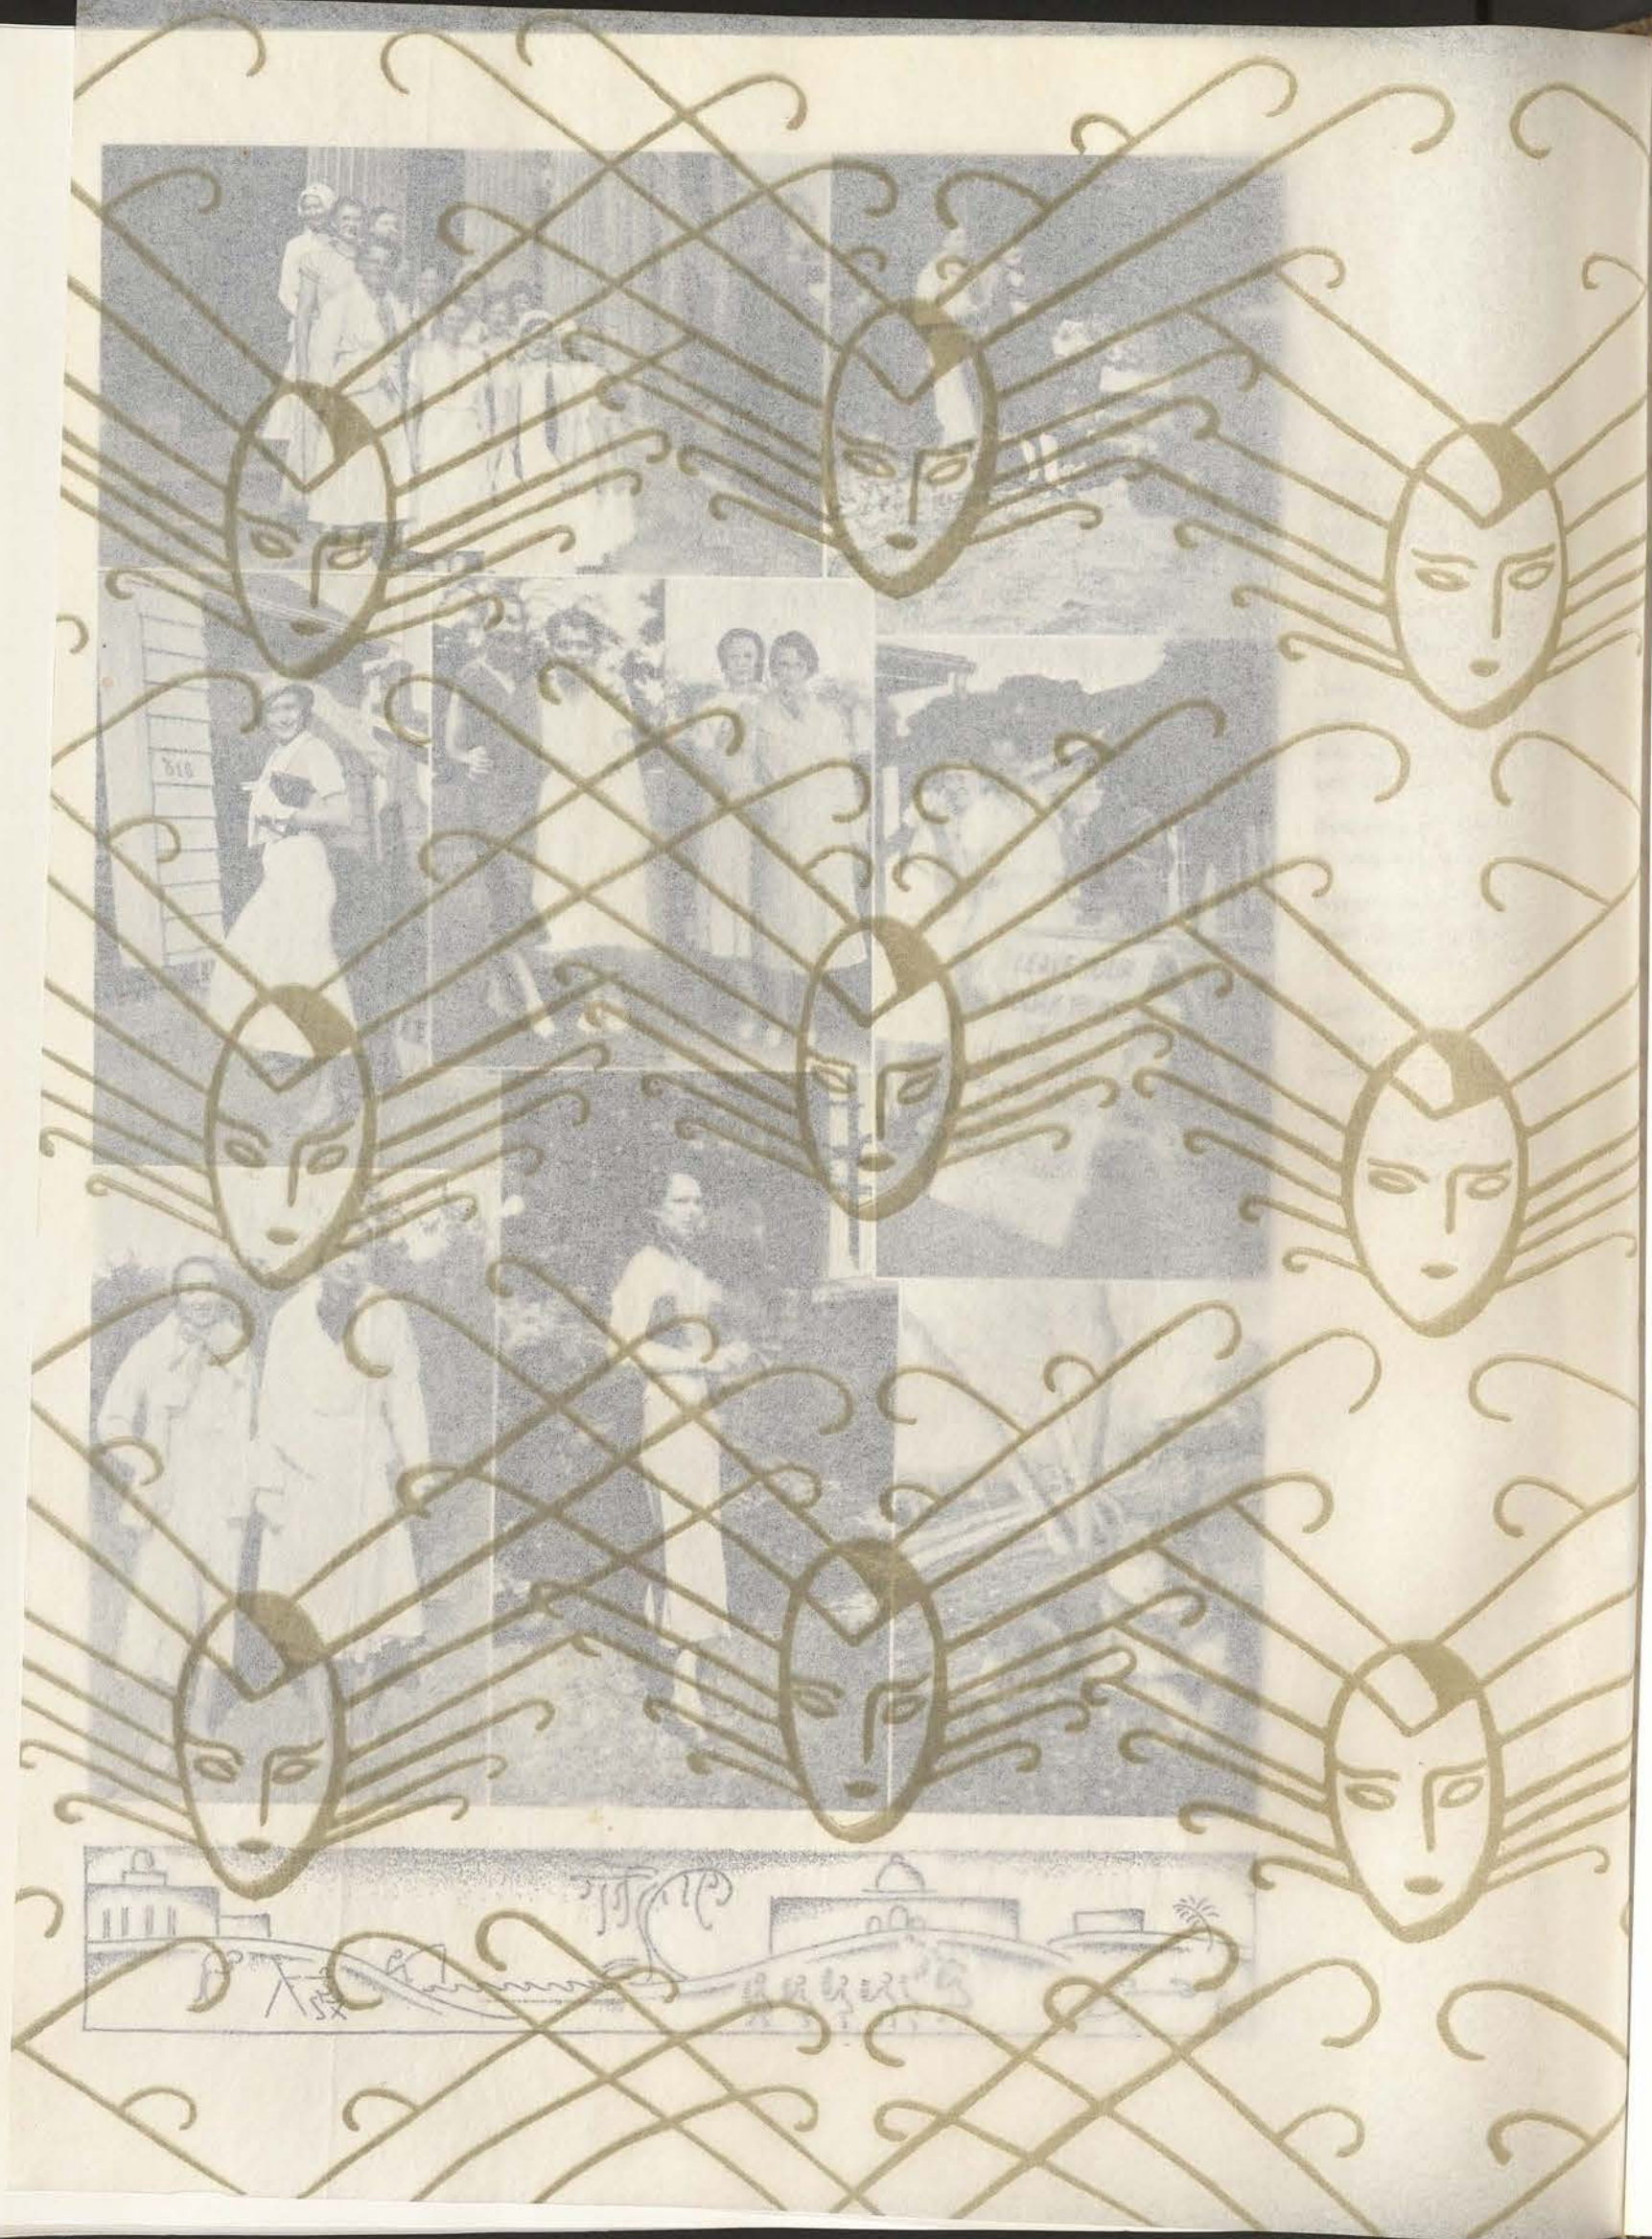

Even the elites of the campus go nuts at times.

Frances and Bunny go for their Sunday morning stroll . . . nature loving souls.

Rachel Ann is sophisticated at times . . . seeing is believing.

Pal, the College Store mascot has ancestors and they don't bite either.

A Smokeless Chimney Meant "Nobody at Home"

WHEN these horseback riders were in their cradles, we were riding horseback along the Old Chisholm Trail, and across creeks and thickets, laying out your pioneer gas line. A smokeless chimney in those days was a sign nobody was at home. Now these riders can singlefoot for miles, even on a winter day, and not see a hatful of smoke. That little gas line has grown to a tunnel network that supplies 255 Texas towns with spotless, low cost heat. It runs the cottage refrigerator as smoothly as it operates a factory.

IF SO, WHY SO, AND EXPLAIN

It was raining cats and dogs, and there were poodles in the road.

Chivalry is the attitude of a man toward a strange woman.

A man is an animal split half way up and walks on the split end.

Gravitation is that if there were none, we should fly away.

To be or not to be; that is the question: Nobody knows what this means, because many words Shakespeare wrote now mean something else.

Naturalization is the country, the forests, rivers, and mountains and other sights.

—“More Boners” by Viking.

Or any other number at our tea room. When you have sipped tea here once, you are more than eager to come back again. You remember that luscious strawberry shortcake, those Dutch sandwiches, and those private birthday dinners. Or perhaps you prefer to learn the campus news over a cup of coffee in the cafeteria. Both are Whitson's was serving petite young misses in stiff shirtwaists and long serge skirts. That was back in 1912.

Today Whitson's is still serving C.I.A. girls.

NOTED PEOPLE

WE WONDER:

If Mary Ann Millican sings, or if she has a lung left.

Where the other hundred and ninety-four Sophomores are.

Why Betty Lighten rushes to lunch to sit at Miss Overton's table.

Why Marjorie Mason refuses to play golf with Maxine Krochell.

Where Florence Christie spends her lunch hour.

Where Sally lives in Lowry.

How Pug Peavy made the Art Club.

Where Mabel King got her linen shoes.

Why Madge Nettles wants a voice like Mr. Horger's.

Why there are no keyholes in Sayers.

If Miss Hefley's slogan is, "Reach for a life-saver instead of a Lucky."

If Kitty Winter thinks she is a wood nymph.

Why Miss Goldman is so talkative when she checks.

Why more Sophomores didn't take leadership courses—they need some new leaders.

If "Pee-wow-wow" is supposed to be cute or to attract attention.

If June will ever come.

If the black grease left some ego on Helen Sherwood.

If the Sophomores in Lowry enjoyed their lunch Fish Day.

"Do you?"

"No."

"Then you'll have to get out."

So the good little girl got out and walked because the conductor would not let her ride without car fare.—Pitt Panther.

It's a Fact More Than 12 Hours a Day Your Heart Isn't Beating.

Between each contraction of your heart there is a tiny pause—so the muscle can rest. Actually, your heart is beating only a little less than half the time.

And rest is as necessary to you as to your heart. Rest, relaxation, recreation, all take their place in the time of every wise person.

That's why there have always been theatres. We need them. In the modern motion picture show house the finest talent of the world is brought in tales of Romance—Laughter—Adventure—Beauty. There indeed recreation, entertainment, enjoyment, are waiting for you.

PURE WATER

Full certification of Denton water by the United States Health Department means that the water is approved from a mineral as well as a bacteriological standpoint. Few cities in Texas have full certification of water, and Denton is extremely proud of its water supply.

Municipal ownership of the water and light plant enables Denton to have more street lights than other cities not owning these utilities. Oakland Avenue, along the west side of C.I.A. is one of the best lighted streets in Texas. Extremely low rates are charged for these services.

Nonie Rausch wants to know if occupants of Fitz. 319 and 218 will give her lessons in how to be the "Cha-h-ming" hostess.

A caucus is a dead animal.

A census taker is a man who goes from house to house increasing the population.

An octopus is a person who hopes for the best.

A sinister is an old maid.

A bamboo is an Italian baby.

A sincere friend is one who says nasty things to your face, instead of saying them behind your back.

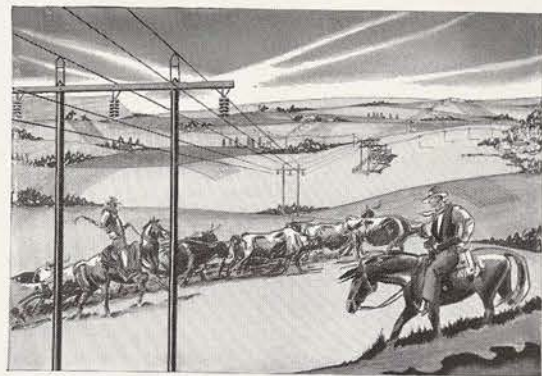

A magnate is something that gets inside apples.

Electric Power for a New Empire

Side by side with the builders of the New Empire—West Texas—works electricity. Electric power serves industries, home and business institutions throughout this fast-growing region economically, efficiently and tirelessly.

The West Texas of a few years ago resembles only slightly the New Empire of today. Following in the wake of sturdily built transmission lines have come new citizens, new industries, new cities and towns, new business institutions and new capital. The new citizens built the new cities and towns, started the new industries with the new capital and the new commercial enterprises arose from the need for their services in step with the many other changes.

And so the wheels of progress continue to turn, given tremendous impetus by the power lines that run the length and breadth of the New Empire. The wonders of the work of electricity are approached only by its notably low cost. Every home and business in this great territory has found electric power to be a not-to-be-ignored essential to their very existence at a price unbelievably low. New developments in the electrical industry, available to power consumers as soon as they are proven practical, promise still greater economy and efficiency in home and business operation. Electricity is cheap—use more of it.
