texas woman's university
denton, texas vol. 61

1971

experience...

... the actual living through events. enjoyment. suffering.
impressions. memories. the sum total of campus life.

seniors marsha yaberry and sandy mchenry show frosh journalism majors where to find their home away from home the "j" building.

jane morris and deborah whitlock point out the little chapel to a new fish.

freshmen sit through another orientation session thinking about home, sleep and what courses they'll have to take.

orientation

orientation was a little shorter this year. nervous freshmen were spared a few of the speeches and were given campus tours, a fashion show and a chance to sing instead.

the leaders of the junior class greeted their new little sisters. frosh were encouraged to wear their beanies and be proud to be a part of the class of 1974.

white beanies mean campus leaders, a friendly smile and someone to turn to for help during those first hectic days.

delphi members lead new art majors on a campus tour.

president guinn serves
cga veep kerry lockwood
some fried chicken (they seem to be getting quite a chuckle out of
it. it must be a very funny chicken.)

administrators, faculty and students come to watch the fun on dr.
guinn's lawn.

a bite out of the apple and a minute to relax. cga treasurer deborah prehn watches freshmen enjoy the activities.

picnic and fish frolic

the sub swim became the fish frolic in honor of all the baby fish of '74. the weather was fine for swimming and the girls who didn't want to swim learned fish songs and sang old favorites.

after the frolic everyone headed for dr. guinn's backyard for a picnic.
trampolines and volleyball nets were set up for before and after dinner entertainment

a baby fish gets in the swim at the frosh's fish frolic.

catching up on the news, freshmen mix business with pleasure in a newspaper race before the picnic.

a time to eat, relax, and just rap is a welcome relief for a busy freshmen during orientation activities.

newcomers discover that the campus is bigger than it looks as they try to find their way around. a faculty member is always big help in that department.

this harried freshman waits to sign up for a course she hopes won't conflict with the other two required courses that conflict.

registration . . .

this year registration activities started at a new time (august), and in a new place (the gym). the endless lines were the same though. and seniors who had perfected the art of registering in the as building were in the same boat with the freshmen.

everyone's first reaction to their first glimpses of the crowded, noisy, confusing gym was "oh no! where do i go from here?"

need we say more?

freshmen learn the fine art of line standing as they wait to stand in another line — and another line and . . .

he's a little young to be registering for college courses, but at least he has a free ride.

... and more

this confusing scene greeted freshmen and upper classmen as they frantically searched for the right place to start.

you mean we can't register until 4 tomorrow?
students seriously consider changing their last name for a chance to register early.

registration in the gym means making certain adjustments, like trying to find a comfortable way to fill out endless forms.

hubbard hall was the location of the president's reception. it's colonial architecture represents the traditional while the tower dormitories in the background show the modern.

presidents reception and wra fun nite

the president's reception was the first formal event of the new year. freshmen donned heels, hose and white gloves for a chance to meet dr. and mrs. guinn and to drink the usual glass of punch.

in wra president rusty ryals' diary she wrote two words under fun nite — it rained — — a judo demonstration at the fun nite shows girls how to protect themselves from the drag rats.

dr. guinn greets 1970 grad pam mc allister, before pam starts greeting freshmen.

when it rains it is usually on the wra fun nite and this year was no exception.

cga president annella wright and wra president rusty ryals lead a cga freshman scholarship winner on the lantern parade walk.

it is better to light one little candle — so wra prepares hundreds of them for lantern parade.

yes, they did spell my name right — review cast members look over the program for the evening.

cathy dolan chats with visiting aggies before university review begins

lantern parade highlights review

"reach out the hand of friendship" was the theme of this year's university review presentation. campus leaders wore costumes representing the four major backgrounds of twu girls.

the lantern parade was held after the review so freshmen could enjoy the full effect of the lanterns in the dark. the parade ended in front of hubbard where the frosh joyfully threw off their beanies and became official tesses.

kerry lockwood invites a fish to come see what twu has to offer.

annella wright holds the freshman lamb, cassandra, as she listens to the aggies.

it's gold rush time again.

the theme this year was "go west young man." (maybe it was woman) a parade preceded the first night of the carnival.

hazel ewing was in charge this year. when a big rain storm threatened to ruin the last big night, hazel just closed up and tried again — netting a nice profit.

dr. and mrs. culpepper take a chance at bingo. they look happy; maybe they won.

dorms created unusual floats for the big parade.

want to buy a balloon, dean lee?

sayers wins the prize with their lost cause mine.

nelda burch welcomes businessmen to their very own special breakfast.

finalists take a hayride

aggie sweetheart selection weekend filled with activities

after two hours behind closed doors, the selection committee announced and pinned sue binford as the 1971 aggie sweetheart.

"aggies, we love you".

austin hall . . . dorm row . . . freshmen

mrs. nell marie musgrove served as dorm director for the hall named after stephen f. austin.

students serving as dorm officers were laura brazil, president; sandy wilson, vice president and anita hughes, secretary.

austin's living room is a gathering place for girls and their dates. time to watch t.v. or just relax.

fitzgerald . . . dorm row . . . upperclassmen

kathryn j. howard served fitz as director this year.

at the east end of the row, fitz was named after hugh nugent fitzgerald, a former chairman of the board of regents.

serving the dorm as officers this year were josephine leura, president; kay foster, vice president; emma brown, secretary, and rita stein, treasurer.

a small dorm means knowing everyone and a free relaxed dorm life.

walk in any dorm and you're bound to find t.v. watchers. especially during the afternoon soap operas.

guinn hall

guinn hall, the 24-story dormitory designed to house 707 offers its residents unexcelled accommodations.

the dorm includes 20 apartments, each designed to accommodate two single or unattached graduate students; and telephone jacks in all rooms enable students to have private telephones installed if desired.

the higher up you go, the more panoramic the view of dynamic denton.

miss enid gossett assisted by officers (upperclassmen) beverly cherney, president; lillian ng, secretary; vice-president donna smith, and (freshmen) elizabeth lester, president; melinda marshall, vice-president; and secretary minnie holman.

houston hall . . . dorm row . . . freshman

houston is named for texan general sam houston. mrs. lucille l. hanna serves as director. houston encourages participation in university activities.

must be a pretty boring show, girls. houston's living room has a warm homey quality, perfect for just sitting.

officers in houston were stephanie bethard, sandy watkins, ernestine page and diane gremminger.

r.a.'s . . . it can be the best of jobs, it can be the worst. either way they keep dorm life on an even keel.

mary hufford hall

mary hufford hall, an attractive, 2-story brick building located on the western border of the university golf course, still retains its "co-op"erativeness despite the fact it no longer is one. it is still the only dorm on campus housing 4-bunk compact compartments.

serving hufford are dorm director, mrs. arlene martin, and officers nita saenz, president, norma silva, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer michelle heath.

jones hall

a modern, beautiful, centrally air-conditioned 3-story building, jones hall was completed for upper-classmen in 1961. jones hall is well-known for its traditionally active concern for campus events.

serving jones hall with mrs. zenda wimberly are officers connie finley, president; debbie smith, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer jenney lisle.

serving with dorm director
mrs. helen swank are dorm officers brenda mcwilliams, vice-pres. and sec. juanita silva. not pictured are president cora white and treas. kathy goodlett.

reagan houston hall

reagan houston, the senior "utopian" dorm with no restricted hours, was first occupied in september, 1965.
it is an extremely attractive building in which the newest concepts of dormitory construction have been incorporated.

one of the '71 "ladies" symbolizes "old-maid prep school" concept.

sayers hall

sayers hall is located on "dormitory row" or on the "drag" as it is popularly known. the freshman dorm provides pleasant rooms with a homey atmosphere. this year sayers residents walked off with 1st-place honors in display for gold rush.

mrs. ruth davis, dorm director, along with dorm officers pam wallace, president; gilda baeza, vice-president, and secretary janet mckinney, serve sayers.

smith-carroll

smith-carroll, the dickensian red-brick dormitory was completed in 1952. the 3-story edifice provides gracious and attractive surroundings for its occupants.

it is mrs. lylia griffin's first year as dorm director and she is assisted by officers elgie cole, president; lee williams, vice-president, and secretary judy dobbins.

stark hall

stark hall houses many campus leaders and personalities. the 21-story dormitory, designed to accommodate 640 resident undergraduate students, represents twu's first venture into the tower-dormitory field.

aside from considerations of maximum comfort (with the exception of fire drills), security, and convenience, the building offers unusual satisfaction in terms of setting and design.

assisting dormitory director ola lummus and asst. director, mrs. oma pouge, are upperclassman officers cathy zenner, president; vice president; barbara burrow, chris sidebottom, secretary.

officers of the freshmen: cathy mesenaia, president; gilda vasquez, vice-president; gwen mitchell, secretary.

stoddard hall

stoddard hall adds a taste of a boston-brown brick yesterday separating the astro-age sub and cfo buildings.

adding to stoddard's nostalgic effect is its large and gracious antebellum living room. its central location gives its residents a headstart for eight o'clock classes and the hunger feasts at hubbard hall.

aiding dorm director frederika bell in dorm activities are officers: betty morere, president; dorothy martinez, vice-president; jacqueline grey, secretary, and karen landry, treasurer.

nurses on the job

life at the centers — a unique experience

student nurses take great pride in their buildings and their status as future nurses.

they also enjoy their life style — so different from life on the main campus.

it's two whether it is in denton, houston, or dallas.

sharing many special experiences give nursing majors a special kind of friendship. although their days are full, they still make time to get together to laugh, gossip, or just complain.

a moment alone.

as freshmen, the center seems a million miles away ... as sophomores, you know you'll never get to be a senior ... juniors are beginning to think they might just make it if only they don't flunk that one course ... but seniors, their dream is so close they can almost touch it. just a few more steps to go ... just a few more days.

1971 stunt dedication

stunts has many connotations to many people. those who have participated in the past and those involved this year, feel the three weeks of exacting preparations prior to this evening have been hard, yet healthy. a tired torso and paint-splattered pants are only super-visual signs compared to the many satisfactions, friendships, and spirited hearts that are provoked by a tradition such as stunts. these individuals united by their spirit and enthusiasm for their university and class. the significance of class stunts is questions, but we participants submits that the sensation of a stunt is not the show for that is only surface.

for many years the classes of texas woman's university have been assisted and guided through the three weeks of stunt preparation by mr. ted. his concern, dedication, and interest were gratefully accepted and admired. mr. ted worked to make an enjoyable show for the audience exemplified the spirit of stunts — to help and understand others and to be a friend. he was a "stunt people" and "there's no people like stunt people."

we, the classes of 1971, '72, '73, '74 dedicate stunts of 1971 to mr. ted in gratitude for his love of stunts and all of us.

"stranglers in the night"

the freshmen donned their stunt career with "stranglers in the night".

the eerie setting included mummies, werewolves, hunchbacks residing comfortably in an old house.

superghoul did his best to save the lost newlywed couple, but the screams at the end told that he failed.

flashing lights and the roar of a storm introduced the freshmen's first stunt.

"wouldn't you like to stay for supper?"

"i'm no coward, i'm s-s-s-scared."

"she's got the frizzies."

"welcome to our family."

"something terrible is going to happen tonight."

"sincerely yours"

the sophomore class presented their stunt on a pathy.

"sincerely yours" was about a town of uninvolved people.

the action centered around trying to find out who murdered a townsman.

townsmen included the press, the old, the young, the aristocrats and the hippie all trying to find out "who did it?"

"we know something all about you now."

"every man is guilty until proven innocent."

he's paid his debt to society.

peace!

"the rise of the rolling empire"

the fish snagged the cup for the first time in eleven years with "the rise of the rolling empire" racing around the main aud. apollo cumference, chariot maker for orange julius, and ben sure, scourge of the nile, vied for the hand of aroma, caesar's daughter.

orange julius was the emperor's choice to race, but he was "inebriated".

a goddess gave apollo the idea for round wheels, which won him the race. ben sure had the standard square wheels.

the winning chariot led the way to the winning stunt for the fish of '72.

"i, caesar, made the salad."

the four hum's.

"i'll try to have something worthy of you by morning, o.j."

apollo cumference thinks round.

ben sure of the nile.

"but where's o.j.?"

chariot wheels got to go round.

"move along, we are
'appy, leave us be!"

"six bells, all's well."

"it's a swine's life."

"a clean sweep"

seniors made a clean sweep of everything but the cup. the english citizens of rumsford change the dirty little town into a shining happy place in one of the most professional presentations on the stage.

"a clean sweep" was the seniors' last production. it was a good one.

"those good old days, those good old days ..."

"surely you can see that we believe our way of life is as good as any other."

aggies on campus

tessies went all out to welcome the aggies to campus for pre-corps trips activities. first there was the howdy picnic the picnic is fun if you have a date. if not it becomes another all-girl event.

but, believe it or not, the aggies actually came. the maggies had us worried this year.

saw varsity's horns off!

after the howdy picnic came the big dance, and after the dance was the midnight yell practice in front of hubbard. there the aggies and their dates built up spirit for the big game in the cotton bowl.

next came a trip to dallas, a parade, lunch and the game. that means standing up through the whole thing, girls. it also means a kiss after every touchdown.

'let there be peace . . . let it begin with me'

seniors sponsored a new production of land of the free. it featured members of all four classes on campus.

super-director ruth martin supervised rehearsals.

a standing ovation and a taping session at kdfw-tv in dallas were the rewards for all the long hours of work.

baby otto cats welcomed to campus

the juniors welcomed their little sisters to campus with the annual traditions assembly.

all the traditions were explained and frosh learned all about the songs, sailor hats, work shirts, and the rainbow. yea, fish!

are all those crazy looking girls pledges?

after weeks of pre-pledging activities, bids came out.

girls and clubs were either happy or disappointed.

finally it was pledge week. poor girls ran around with signs, flags, raw eggs and cow bells.

there were ping pong balls, pillows, and eggs to be signed. no time to sleep or study. wipe it, pledge!

come, girls, smile, we know you're having a real good time.

jump? yes, ma'am ... how high?

fun, fun, fun.

sing, pledges. i don't care if you haven't had any sleep in four days.

guinn hall, december 1970 ...

students gathered peacefully to discuss events that culminated in the arrest of two students.

most of the girls were tired ... grim ... frightened ... angry.

leaders talked ... the crowd, including members of the faculty and administration, listened.

it was exams time ... it was christmas time ... time to go home ... but they all promised not to forget ...

precedents...

of the class beauties is usually to occupy space in the Daedalian. An election, the expense of a banquet and 12 valuable pages is not that necessary. As Miss Rallis judiciously pointed out, those expensive pages could be used for more important things.

status...

... the fleeting state of fame. notoriety. charisma.

so you think you want to pledge.

well, first there's round robin.

there girls get to watch clubs like chaparrals in their official uniforms sing songs and present skits about their clubs.

with the senior nursing majors on campus, girls got to learn about an I-s club just for nursing majors ... alpha psi omega.

round robin had one big surprise. adelphians, of the giant green pillow, ran off with the chap bird. now the big blue and white bird beep-beeps for another club.

next comes pre-rush tea.

after round robin come the big tea. this time club members get all dressed up.

this time the members look over the crop of prospective pledges a little more carefully.

scsa president linda mcginnis doesn't seem to be enjoying her job as punch server.

delians form the traditional receiving line. keep smiling, girls.

aggies choose binford as sweetheart

oh, my gosh! not me!

he's really pinning me.

sue binford, a junior special education major from tucson, ariz. became aggie sweetheart for 1970-71 on oct. 4 in college station.

a weekend of dances, a hayride, a steakfry, banquet, and nail-biting preceded the big moment.

senior hymn

in the morning of our life we shall look to the sunrise. at a moment in our life
when the world is
new. and the blessing
we shall ask is that god will grant us

to be brave and strong
and true, and to fill
the world with love
our whole life through.
in the evening of our life we shall look to the sunset, as a moment in our life when the night is due. and the question we shall ask only we can answer. were we brave and strong

and true. did we fill the world with love our whole life
through.

juniors work hard, play hard, and wait for 1972

a desire to expand the activities of the class was a special goal this year. one project was a special christmas party for needy children.

mary reardon helps santa with his duties.

sherry latson and her friend share the joy of christmas.

juniors had the fun of being big sisters for the first time. they also learned it isn't easy to teach a group of freshmen all of the traditions.

this year juniors celebrated the victories of two fish in the two pageant and the aggie sweetheart contest.

in preparation for their senior year, all juniors hurried back to their rooms after class and studied hard every night. after all, they were almost ladies now and they have out grown all those silly things they did when they were sophomores.

christmas is a happy time. but somehow no matter how hard you try to fix up the dorm it is just not like home. but don't despair. christmas comes before you know it. and this year there are no exams to worry about. now you can worry about the awful grades you made on the exams.

freshman class officers are president barbara sheffield; vice-president mahalía petty; secretary karen thomas; treasurer denise fallwell.

'74's sister class song
 fish years, laughter and tears, pleasures and fears, and hopes and dreams
 oh what a time to be young so many stars to be strung.

sister spirit sublime, this is the time to savor it.
 fish smiles, smiles that shine togetherness to flavor it fish years for you and me, and sisters we'll always be.

keep the shine . . . keep the glow
 never let your fish go.

'74's class song
 1 clap, clap, clap, clap
 9 clap, clap, clap, clap
 7 clap, clap, clap, clap
 4 clap, clap, clap, clap

1 clap
 9 clap
 7 clap
 4 clap

cheer, cheer for ol' '74!
 yell out the carpet, open the door
 show the copters where to run 'cause they'll be afraid of us when we're done. bring out the stunt cup, hand it to us. we're bound to win, we don't make a fuss. we're the class that's really great all around the pioneer woman, the fishes chased
 the copters. the copters stopped to wind their props . . . Yrrund — went the copters. we're the class of
 '74. we've got more.
