

A large, stylized number '52' in a black, gothic-style font. The '5' and '2' are intertwined, with the '5' having a long, sweeping tail that loops around the '2'. The number is set against a white background that forms a triangular shape pointing towards the top left.

Dedication

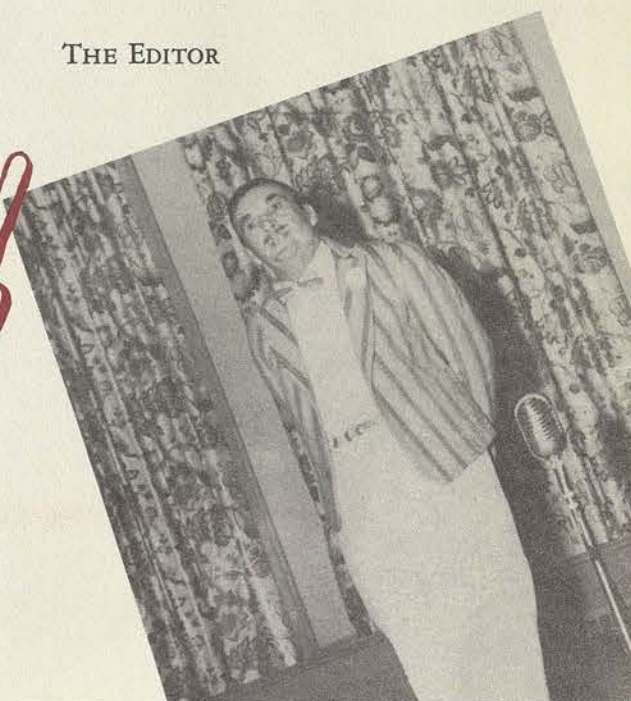

Here's Tess' handy man! He keeps our rooms shining with new paint jobs and sees that college offices are always in perfect shape. He builds sets for Speech Department productions and with a few boards, some canvas and a paint brush can change a flat stage into anything from an enchanted fairyland to a modernistic penthouse. At Stunt time, he becomes chief consultant for a desperate Tess trying to plan staging for a winning Class Stunt. He keeps to himself the revealing secrets of each stunt and works as hard as any class member to see that the set fits the wishes of a director's changing mind and the limitations of a treasurer's budget. When Tessie Players have a show or another group wants a master of ceremonies, he's always ready to keep an audience laughing with his vaudeville repertoire. When the repertoire runs out, Ramsey originals take their place in the script.

With all these things in mind, and for the endless number of little jobs he does of his own free will, the 1952 Daedalian is dedicated to a man who has spent twenty-seven years doing his best for our Tessieland—
U. J. Ramsey.

Foreword

We've got it! A Foreword that touches everything! We've decided to pick on that eminent object called a "B" Board for the theme of the 1952 Daedalian. You see "B" Boards hanging around everyplace giving out the lowdown on what's going to happen, what has happened or what was supposed to happen but didn't. They contain meeting notices, an invitation, a phone call from the boyfriend even down to a withered mum or piece of straw from a hayride. They are, in short, the backbone of communications and the opened-face scrapbooks for Texas State College for Women.

In planning this book we have tried to include everything that you would find on top and underneath the doings and memories of your school. Our purpose is to make the 1952 Daedalian a composite bulletin board of your college memories.

TEXAS STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN • DENTON, TEXAS

18 December 1951

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Class of 1952:

The Golden Anniversary of your alma mater, to be celebrated next year, will doubtless provide many opportunities for backward glances at a half century of sparkling triumphs in education. A wealth of reminiscing among alumnae and faculty groups will inevitably deal with the relative merits of the various classes graduated from the College. If in this festive atmosphere of friendly rivalries official scoring were feasible, I am confident that the Class of 1952 would emerge with a grade of "A" meaning "None Better."

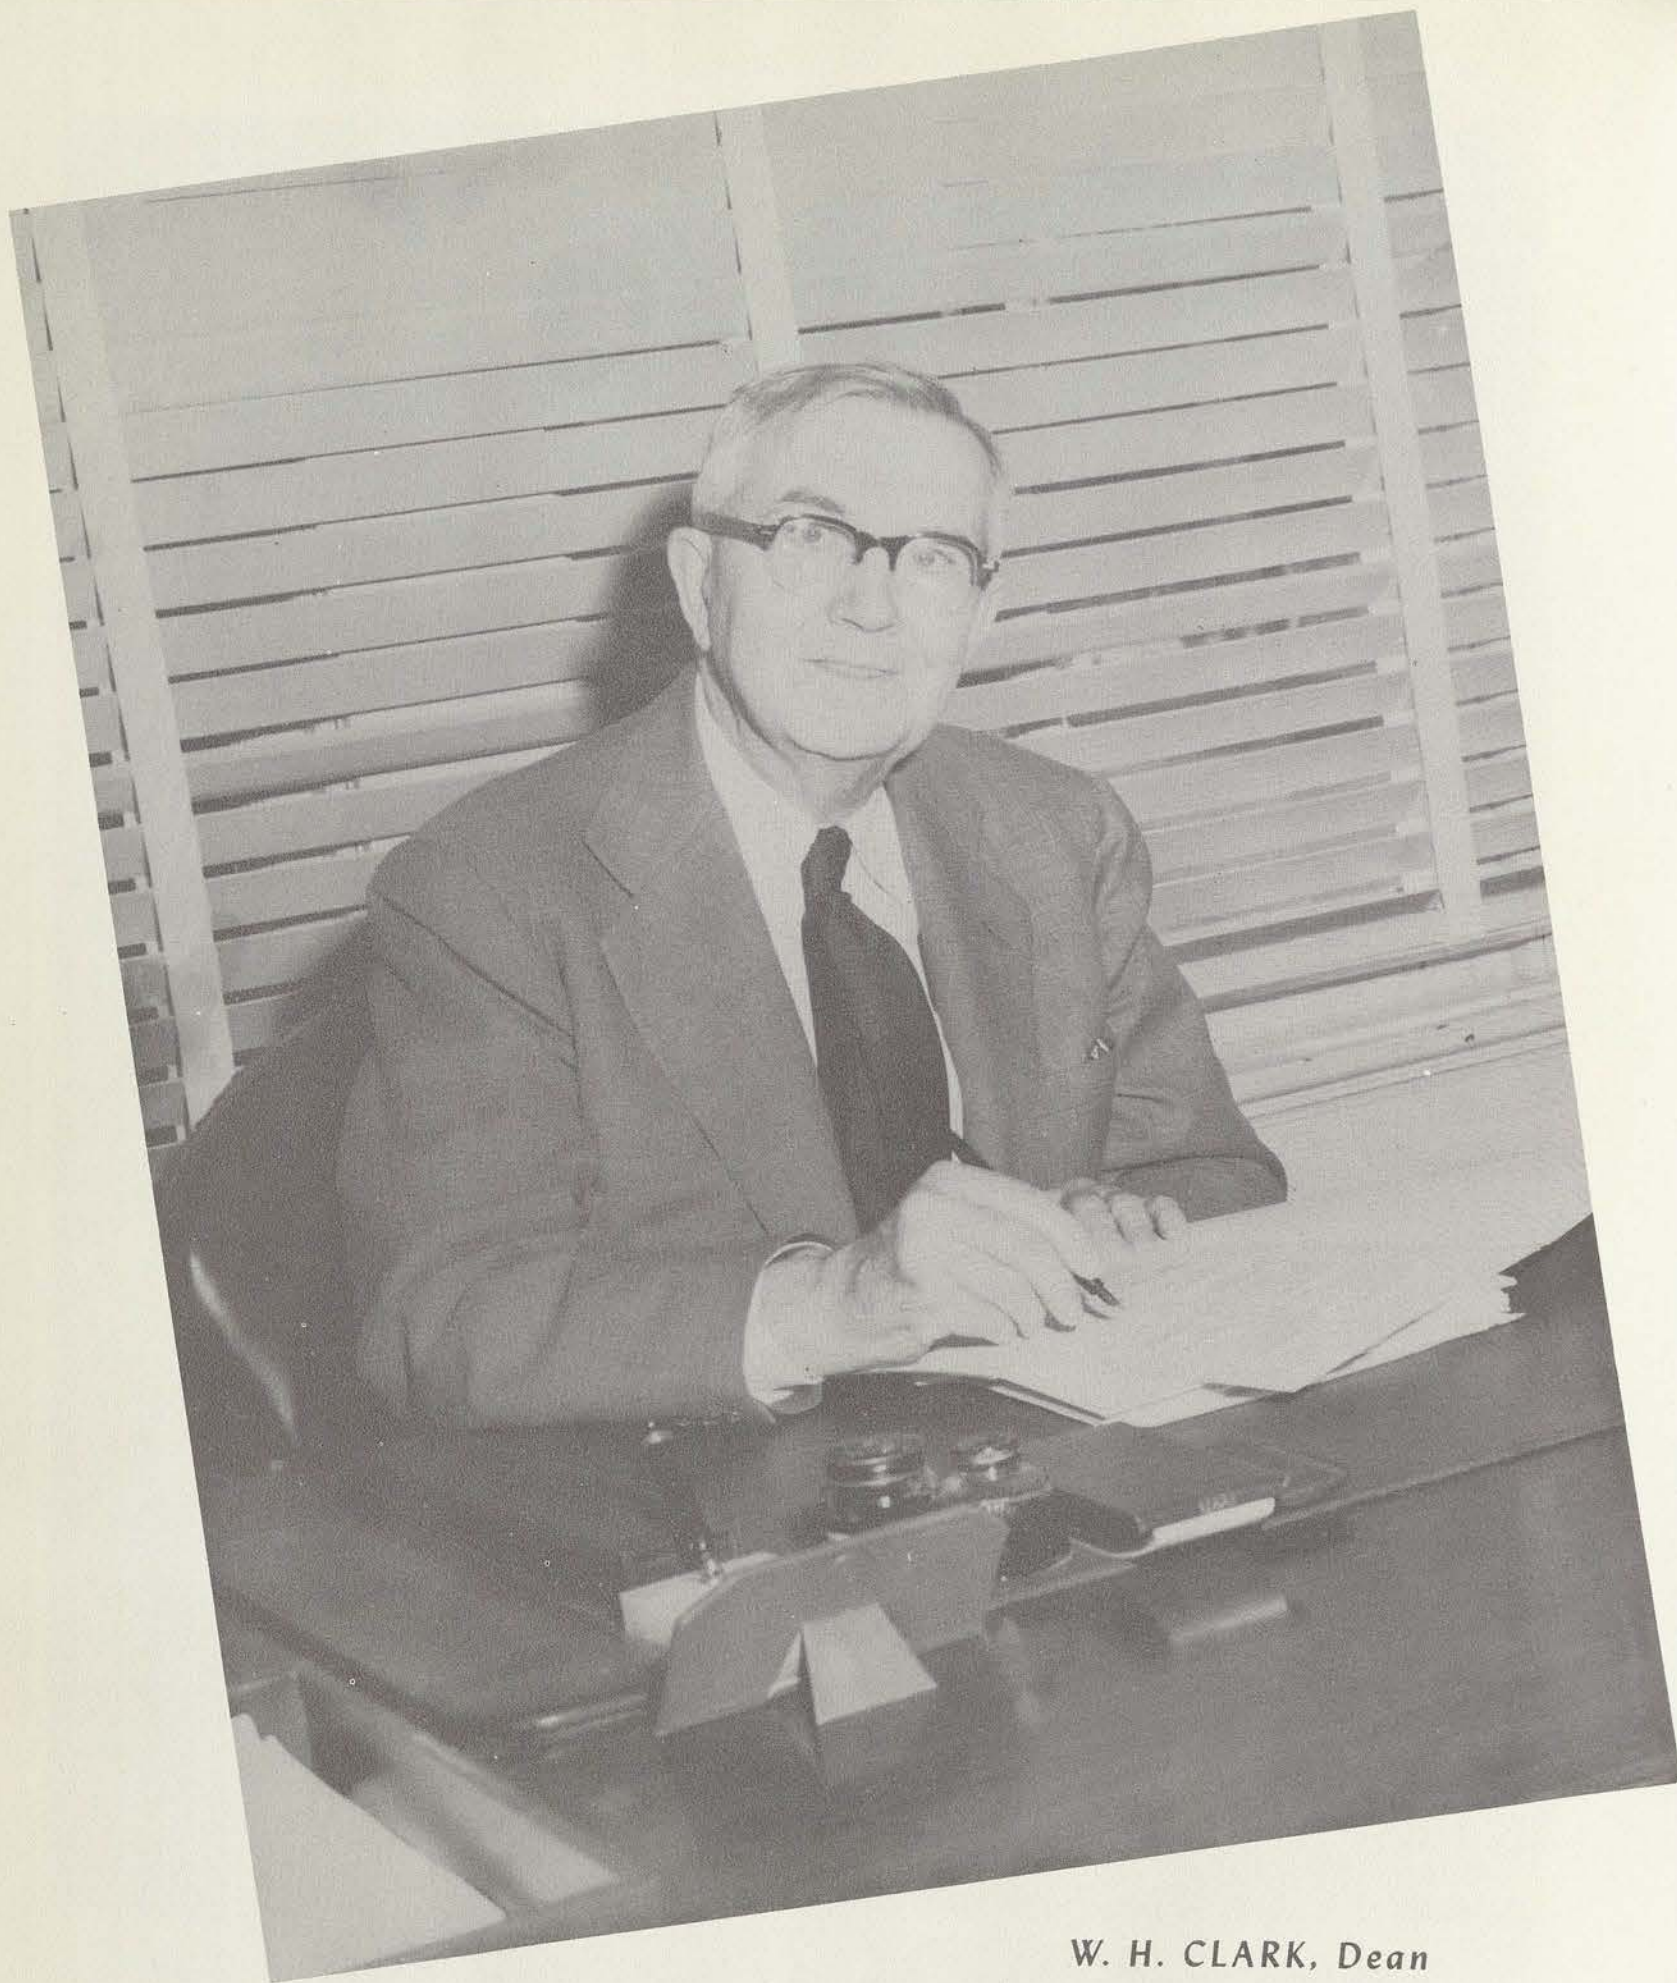

I am grateful for this opportunity to express in an enduring medium my appreciation for the outstanding contribution which the Class of 1952 has made toward the enrichment of life at TSCW and to the advancement of the College's all-round welfare. You have earned the right to enjoy a sense of achievement by virtue of your unselfish, cooperative, and intelligent efforts in support of institutional developments which are adding important new chapters to the glorious history of our great woman's college.

Sincerely and cordially yours,

John A. Guinn

Mrs. Ben Boyd, President-Elect

Marcia Townsley and Corky Morehead, student assistants, check cards of ex-students under the direction of Cora L. Boswell.

Each day the Ex-Students' Association is becoming more and more an integral part of life at Texas State College for Women through the facilities offered at the Ex-Students' Center. Familiarity with the Center will extend to an awareness of the work being done within the organization in maintaining a link between the ex-student and progress on the campus. Each girl should understand the chance being offered through this Association to further the growth and importance of her college among the young women of the Southwest. We all know the Tessie Spirit, the feeling for TSCW which cannot be manufactured wholesale and presented to the students through the text books. It is the "Learn to Do By Doing," the motivating power of our school days, applied to the years which come and go after commencement, translated into a permanency of kinship with our college—of "Having Learned to Be by Being."

Still more files are attended by Jane McMurray and Betsy Whiteside, student assistants.

Wanda Seabrook, secretary, and Mrs. Walden look over the file cards.

Living at the Center

The Ex-Student Center has a homelike atmosphere with its radio-phonograph, kitchen facilities and private bedrooms. The ex-students who now have positions on the campus can live at the Center.

Nelda Bearden and Carolyn Silvernale enjoy the new radio phonograph, most recent addition to the Center and practice the art of hostession in the well-equipped kitchen.

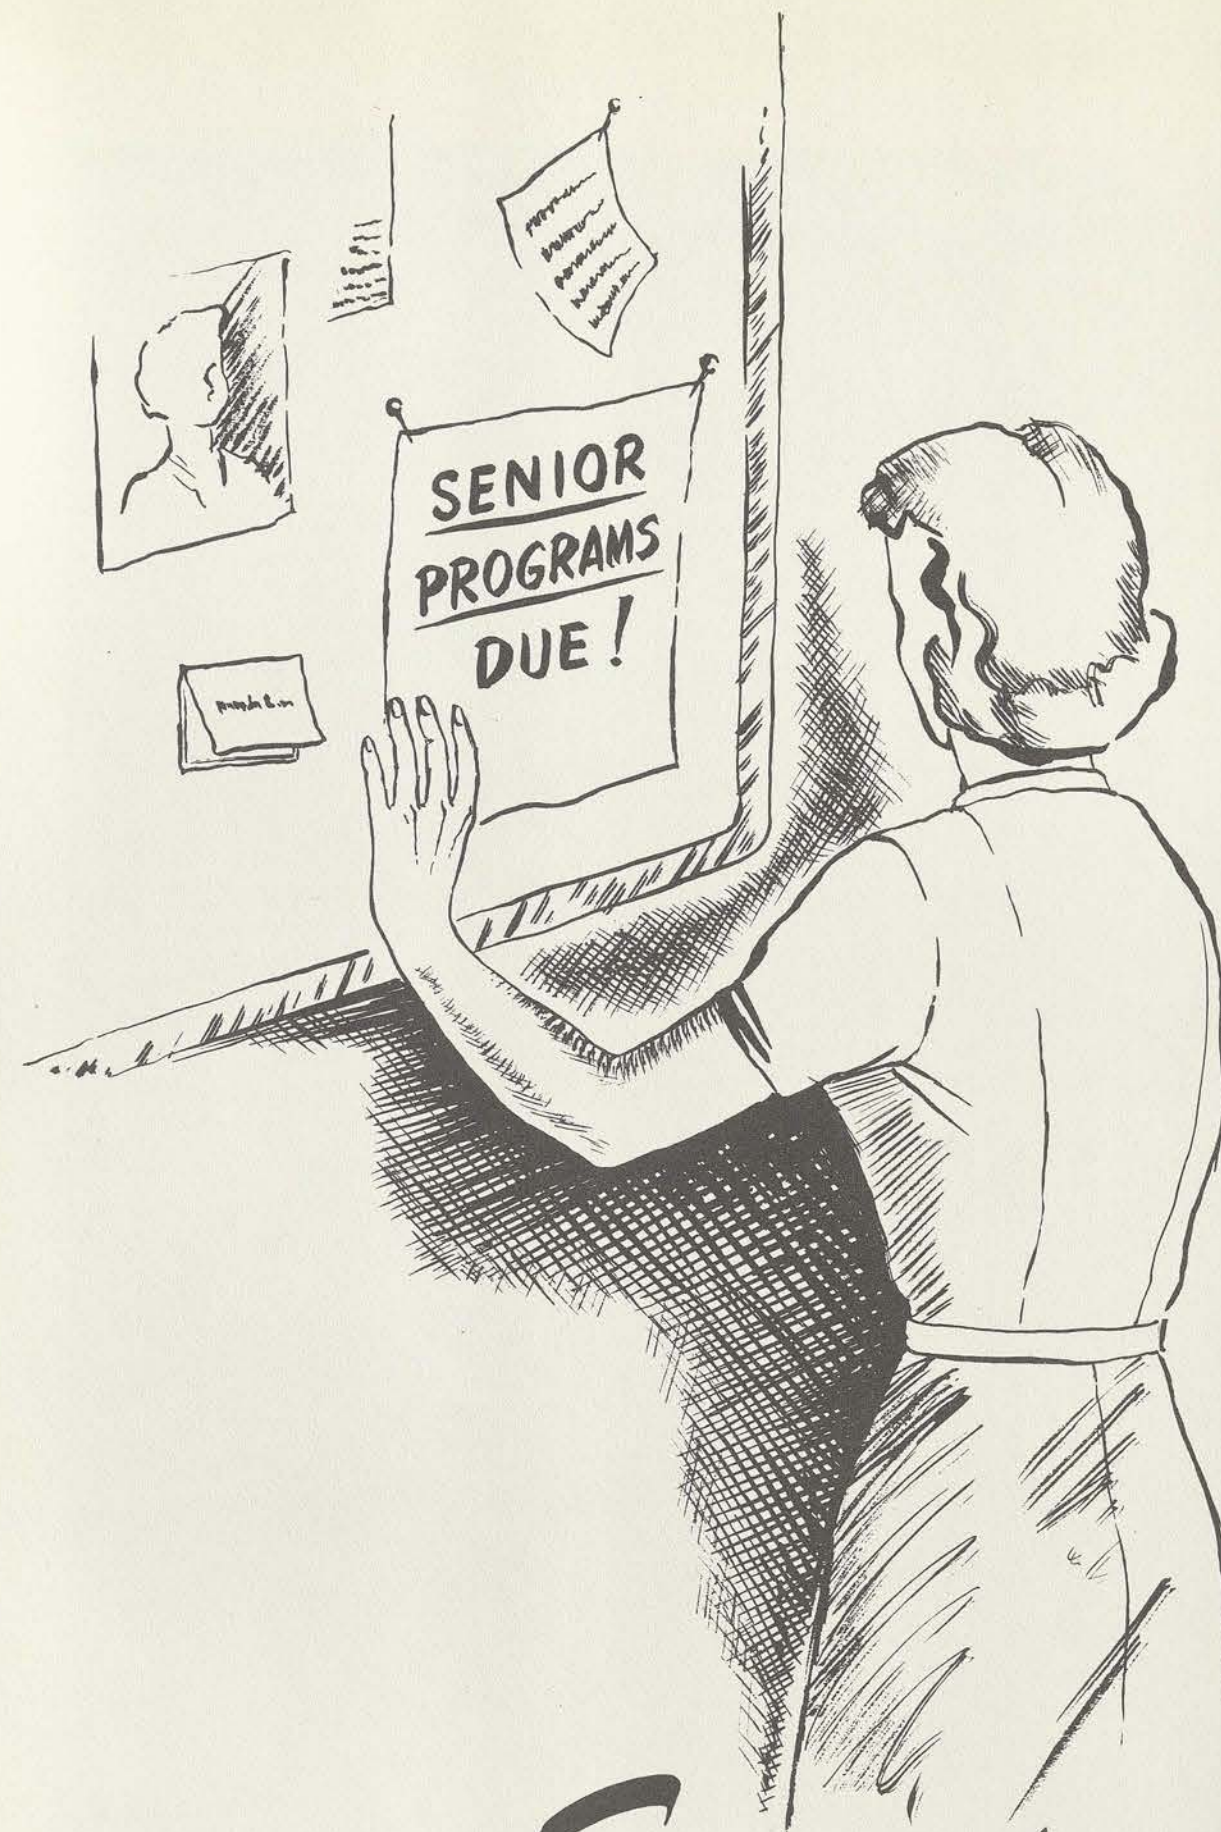

Pat McNelis dresses for an engagement in one of the six upstairs bedrooms. Vacant bedrooms, not in use by resident ex-students, are available to parents who are guests of students on the campus.

Classes

It's the only natural thing to do, 'cause who ever heard of going to class without first taking a quick look at the college P. O.?

Senior Doings

Chatting with Mr. and Mrs. Kaszynski in Stoddard living room . . .

Early seven o'clock breakfast - goers, between yawns, wait for the doors to open.

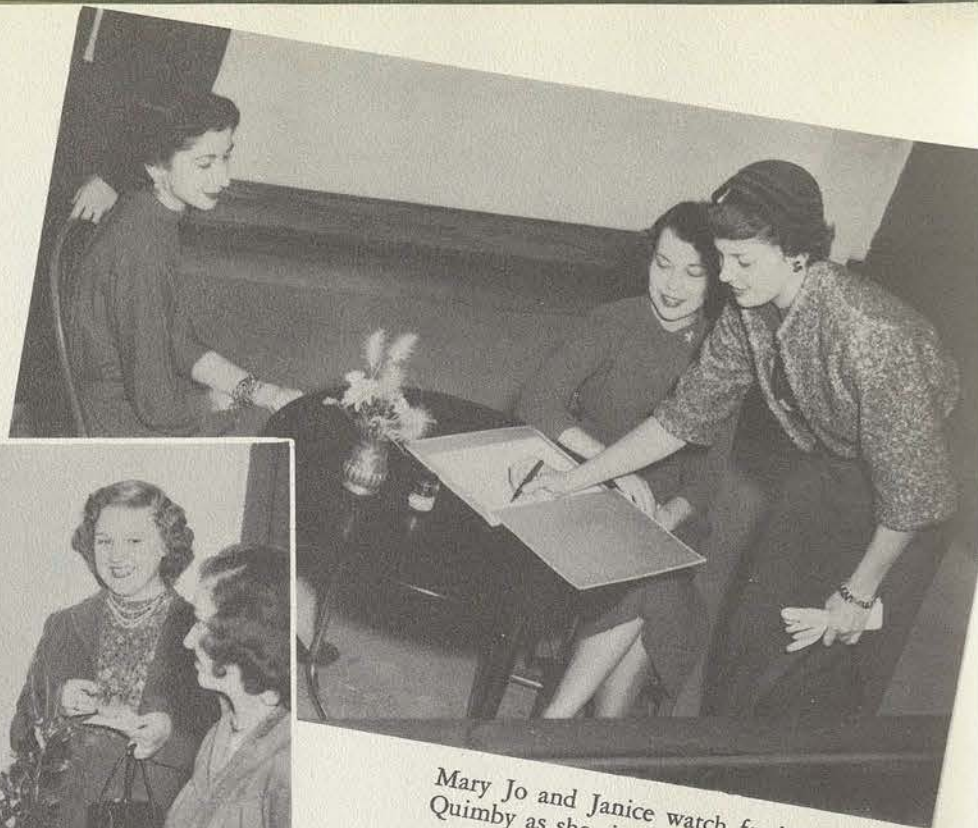

The receiving line at Stoddard's Open-house honoring freshmen, greet their guests.

Inspecting the Dorm

Shorty takes time out to show Mr. Emerson Joan Loerzel's "greenery"—a pepper plant.

Mary Jo and Janice watch freshman Lou Quimby as she signs the guest book.

Doris and Zita serve punch to our freshmen friends.

Dr. Guinn takes a look at Jane's books while visiting the rooms.

"Flapper Days" Make Gay Come Back

Gaiety lives again at the Senior-Faculty Frolic presented by ye class of '52 last November. Snapshots from the program show Dr. Duggan reviving the soft-shoe tap dance . . . costume winners lining up for prizes . . . Jackie and Mr. K. leading a couple of songs to close the jolly acts . . . profs putting on a "meller-dramy" . . . Art faculty members, Sawyer and Higgins turning talents to a musical take-off of "La Traviata."

Judging Highlights

Five judges representing the Dallas Morning News, WFAA and WFAA-TV came to the campus to select one beauty from each of the four classes. Left to right, they are Mrs. Katherine Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glass, Mr. Harry Koenigsberg and Miss Dorothy Bell.

Atmosphere for the judging was a buffet supper in the Redbud Room. Sampling the menu are Ann Morris, Mr. Hugh Sherwood, Erika Heidmann and Mrs. F. L. McDonald.

Beauties Erika, Johnnie and Jane are served by Miss Mary Hufford and Mrs. John A. Guinn.

Beauties Pass in Review

CAROLYN CAWLEY
Mistress of Ceremonies
Then came the senior quarter, Thelma, Janice, Johnnie and Nancy.

After the supper, the nominees were presented on stage during the intermission of the Christmas Dance. Freshman beauties Jackie, Patsy, Ann and Erika pose on stage . . .

More Beautiful by the Dozen

Lucky Aggies that did the choosing mug the camera at an open house before getting down to the table work of voting for one sweetheart out of the twelve.

Aggie judges invaded the campus last October to choose their sweetheart from twelve nominees, four from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes. Seated are Jane Tatum, Jean Putnam and Charlotte Williams. Second row, Joan Jopling, Frosti Hepinstall, Wanda Harris and Jane McBrierty. Standing, Laura Schwartz, Paula Muller, Betty Ann Timmerman, Johnnie Neal and Mary Jane Moncrief.

Ina's Thrill of a Life Time

The Coronation

"Be it known to all those present that on this twenty-ninth day of March in the Year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, Crown Princess Ina of the House of Hubbard was chosen to reign as the Queen of the Redbud Court."

The Presentation

King John of the House of Guinn presents to the audience the new Redbud Queen of Texas State College for Women before leading her to the throne of the Royal Court.

INA OF THE HOUSE OF HUBBARD
Queen of the Redbud Festival

The Higher Court

"His majesty has decreed that from among the princesses five be selected to reign as Crown Princesses. These five are the most representative of the beauty and graciousness which are the ideal of the land."

The Crown Princesses from which Queen Ina was chosen are Carla Weber, Joan Jopling, Johnnie Lois Neal and Betty Ann Timmerman.

"To assist the queen are selected six Ladies-in-Waiting who by their leadership have shown themselves fit to attend the noblest maiden of the realm."

Ladies - in - Waiting to Queen Ina are Mary Beard, Mary K. Thomas, Marilyn Bodden, Carolyn Wyatt, Lou Nowlin and Katherine Clippard.

One Hundred of the Fairest

"This, the Redbud Festival honors the laws of beauty, grace, charm, dignity, and sincerity. To signify the importance of this festival, the people set aside a week devoted to seeking personal fulfillment of these laws . . . For the climax of these festivities the subjects of his royal highness King John, select the loveliest girls from their midst to be honored at Court."

Cotton Ball Queen

The Royal Court . . . Seated in the center are the King and Queen of Cotton Pat Martin and Bill Lewis. Duchesses are, left to right, Janice Bowden, Ann Morris, Joan Jopling, Ann Hemphill, Betty Doan, Phyllis Blackwell, Betty Jo Webster and Jane McBrierty. The Aggie members of the court are Bibb Underwood, Don Tschirhart, John Burke, Don Hegi, Glenn Black, W. E. Floyd, M. E. Schaefer and Kert Goode.

Judges ponder over the big decision while Mrs. Bill Turner, Pageant Director, gives out advice and information.

TSCW nominees Nancy Hunter and Betty Jo Webster chat with King Cotton Bill Lewis.

In March a delegation of Aggies came to the campus to choose one queen and eight duchesses to reign over the 18th annual Cotton Pageant sponsored by the Agronomy Society of A&M.

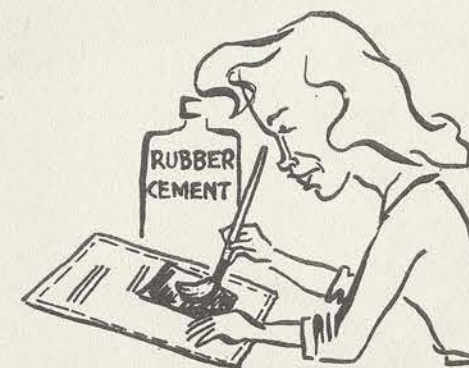

Duchess Ann Morris makes small talk with a member of the delegation.

AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

Excellence and sincerity in scholarship . . . leadership . . . participation in extra-curricular and academic activities . . . citizenship . . . service to the school . . . future promise in business and society . . . all are qualifications for this national and campus honor. Nominated by department directors and selected by a student-faculty committee, the following twenty-one students will appear in the 1952 edition of Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities.

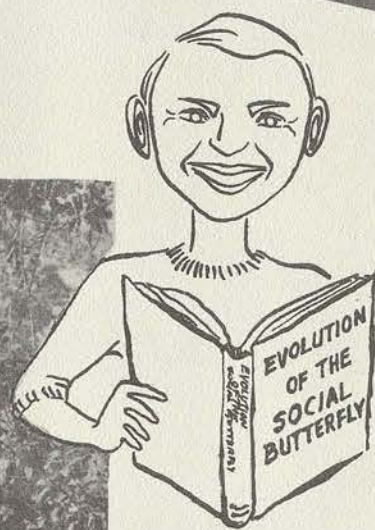

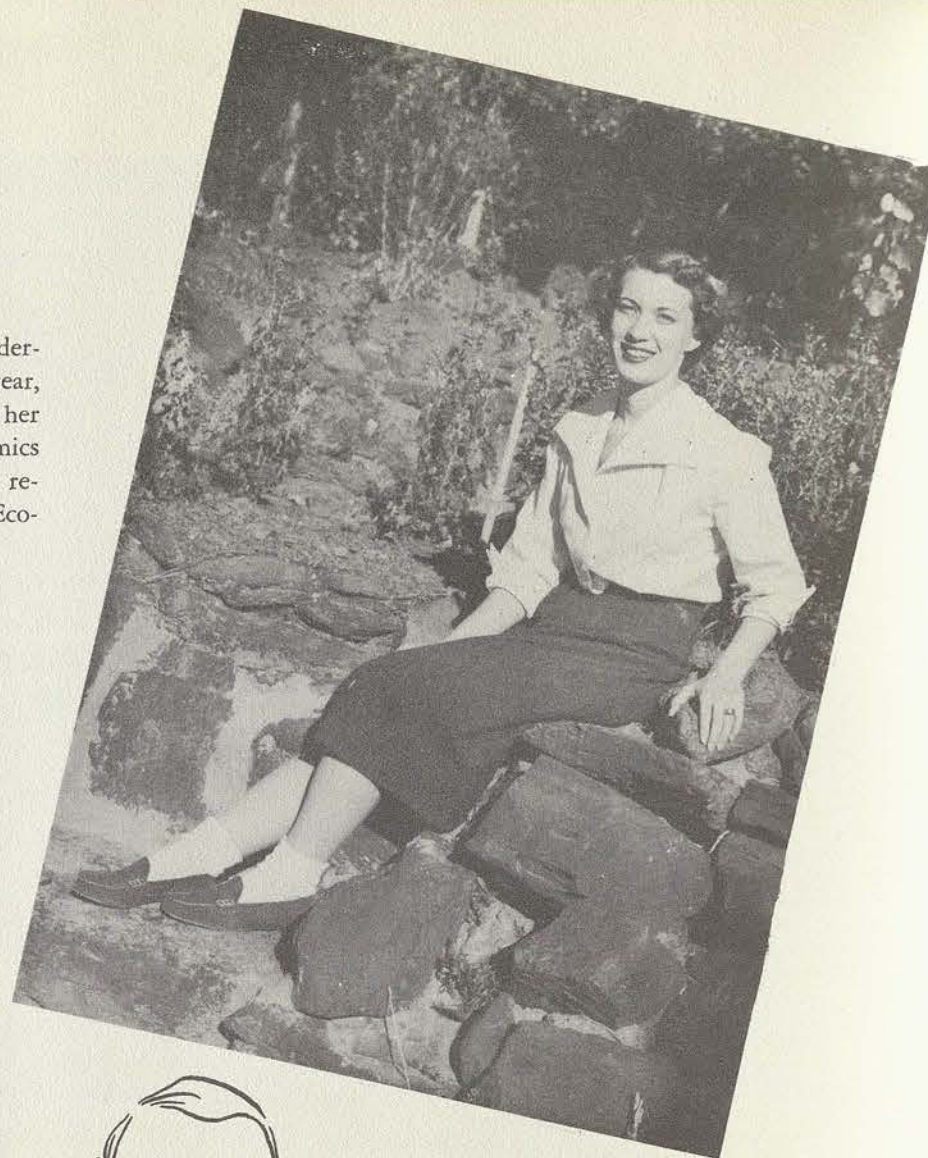

Thelma Balcar

Thelma has had the Daedalian Annual as her problem child this year. A journalism major from Beaumont, she was amusements editor of the Daily Lass-O and treasurer of the junior class last year. Thelma, or "Bum," was a Redbud Princess as a junior, has participated in class stunts and was a senior beauty nominee.

the Magic of Make-Believe

"May I kiss you Aunt Letitia?" says Tommy Thurston as he tries to beg forgiveness of the two aunts.

Two Blind Mice

... by Samuel Spewack

JOSH P. ROACH, Director

As their fall production, the College Theatre presented this entertaining comedy of a satire of bureaucracy and red tape in government. The story tells of the Office of Medicinal Herbs which no one seems to realize has been abolished for four years. It is run by two old ladies who never answer the phone for fear of discovery and manage to exist by renting parts of their office to a pants presser and a dance teacher and by collecting fees from a nearby parking lot.

"You don't want to be a stick-in-the-mud all your life, do you?" Senator Kruger is mistaken for a dancing pupil.

Aunts Letitia and Crystal prepare to leave for the penitentiary to pay their debts to society.

"If you really love her, doctor, you have to take her as she is," Thurston explains about the girl he is going to marry.

Land of the Dragon

The Children's Theatre with its entire freshmen cast chose a Chinese fairy tale for their first semester play this year. Unique in setting and a challenge to the imagination, the play tells the story of Princess Jade Pure and of her love for a Road Wanderer and his dragon, Small One. Annually, the fall production of Children's Theatre is presented to the school children of Fort Worth, and for the first time this year, the spring play will be presented in Sherman.

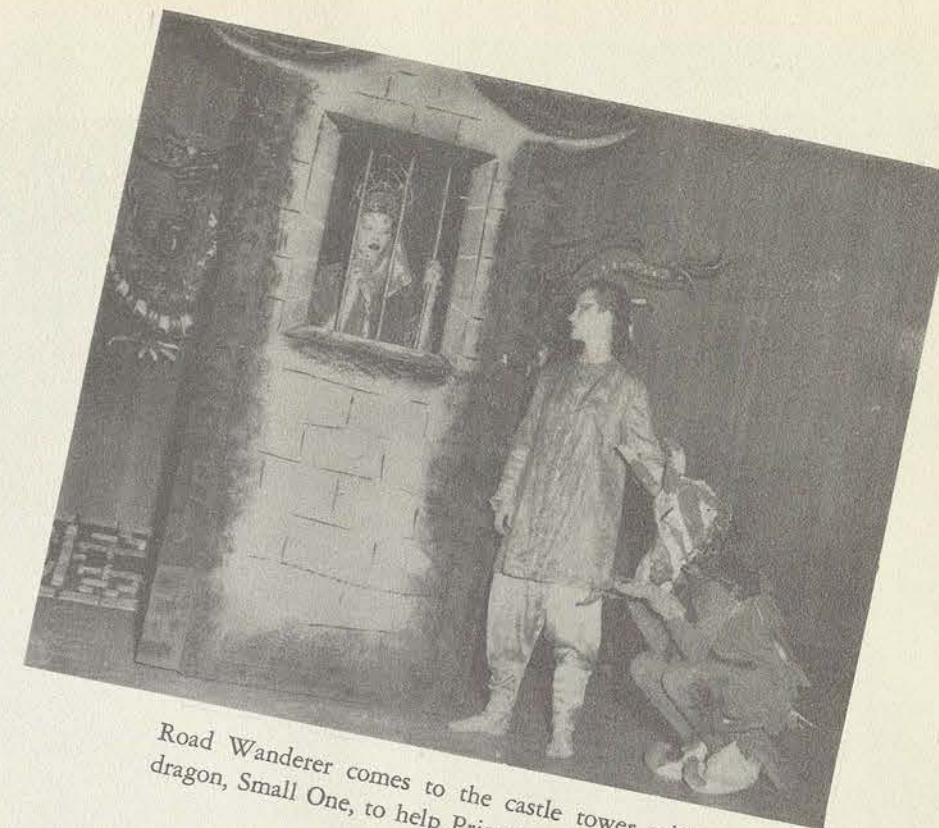

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Jade Pure.....	Ruth Breazeale
Precious Harp.....	Mariola Duvall
21st Cousin.....	Jo Ann Proctor
22nd Cousin.....	Nancy Garner
23rd Cousin.....	June Cosner
Road Wanderer.....	Caroline McAllister
24th Cousin.....	Marilyn Dietrich
Small One.....	Sally White
The Stage Manager.....	Audri Fritz
The Property Man.....	Ione Weisberg
Guard.....	Sally Harding

Princess Jane Pure frets because she is still a prisoner in her castle, even though she let her pet bird go free.

PAUL J. HEINBERG, Director

Road Wanderer comes to the castle tower with his pet dragon, Small One, to help Princess Jade Pure escape.

Cousins of the princess make fun of her face, which everyone has assured her is very ugly. Not allowed to look at a mirror, Princess Jade Pure believes her scheming cousins and, even though she is beautiful, wears a heavy veil so that no one may see her.

The Nativity Pageant

Depicting the most dramatic and important moment in the history of our race, the Nativity Pageant is presented each year through the combined efforts of the Departments of Speech and Music and the Student Council of Religious Activities. The story, written in 1936 by President Emeritus L. H. Hubbard, follows closely the narrative as it is found in the Bible, and nearly all of the language is Holy Script. This year the forty-sixth and forty-seventh performances were presented.

Simeon, played by Cortez Morehead, explains to his grandchildren the prophecies of Micah and of Isaiah foretelling the coming of the Christ.

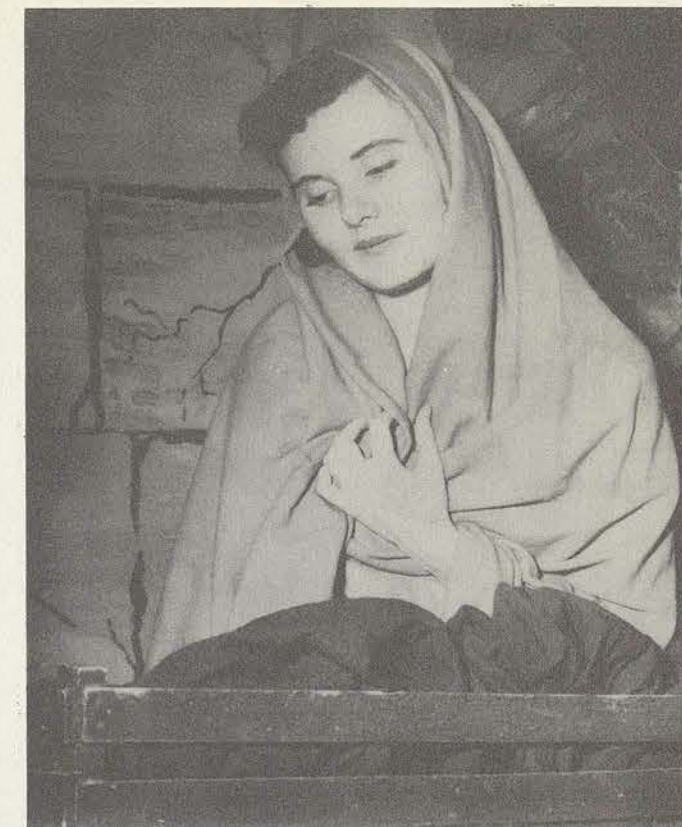

"Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be always acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, our strength and our Redeemer."

"Look, the star seems more nearly above us . . . surely the end of our quest is near . . . we are soon to be rewarded with the sight of our blessed savior . . ."

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulders."

"... suffer the little children to come unto Him, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

And the angel said . . .
"Fear not, Mary for thou art blessed among women, and hast found favor with God . . . behold the lily . . . its beauty reflects the beauty of thy spirit . . . its whiteness speaks of thy purity; its broken stem tells thee how fragile life may be."

Above, Mary and Joseph, played by Connie King and Jo Ann Rutledge, sit by the manger where the Holy Child is sleeping. Mary, right, sits in the house of Zacharias telling Elizabeth of the vision of the angel and the great news of her impending motherhood.

Showboat Is A'Comin

Hero Flip Higgins and Villain Alan Sawyer fight it out for the honor of Little Nell.

S. S. Tessie Players

The Tessie Players docked their version of a showboat in the Little Theatre. With U. J. "Captain Joe" Ramsey as emcee, the program included a musical variety show and the old-fashioned melodrama, "He Ain't Done Right by Nell." Both faculty and students took part in the hilarious production of the organization which is opened to anyone with an interest in theatre work.

Little Nell's true identity is revealed by unknown grandfather Albert Ford, enabling her to accept the affections—and flowers—offered by the Hero.

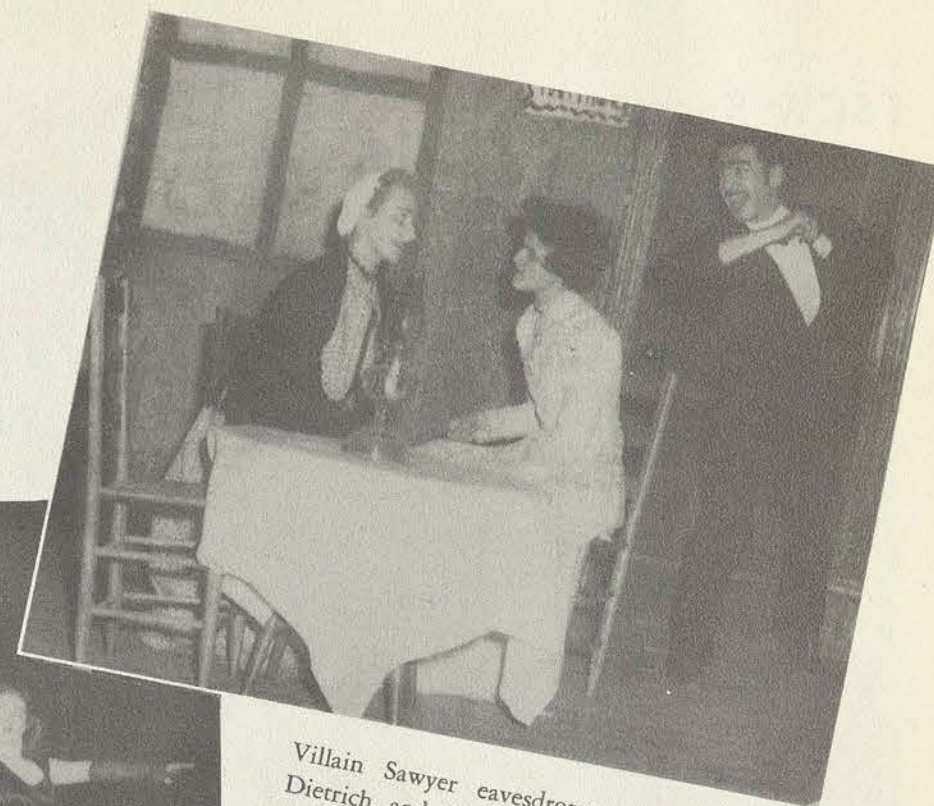

Between scene antics found the Hero and town gossip playing around with "red hot stove."

Spicy Variety

Variety of numbers for the musical part of the show included "St. Louis Woman" done by Katy Boultinghouse, Sherry Bullard and Vivian Gosney.

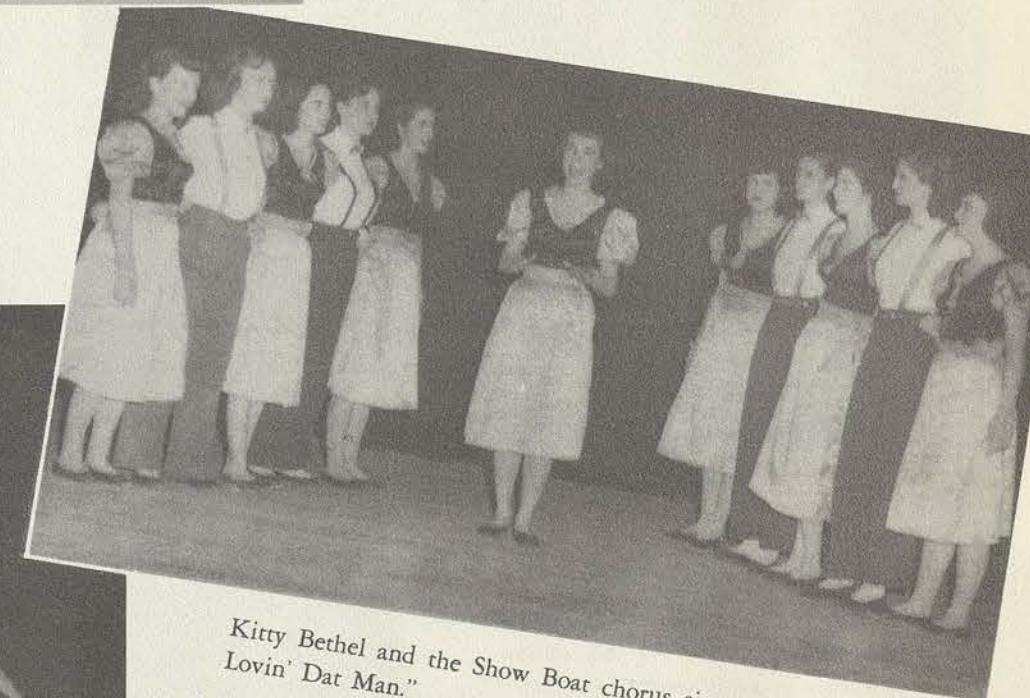

Villain Sawyer eavesdrops as Marilyn Dietrich and Betsy Barron discuss the secret of Little Nell and her fortune.

"Temptation" is sung by Connie King with Jane Delhomme and Katy Boultinghouse adding special dance effects.

Kitty Bethel and the Show Boat chorus sing "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man."

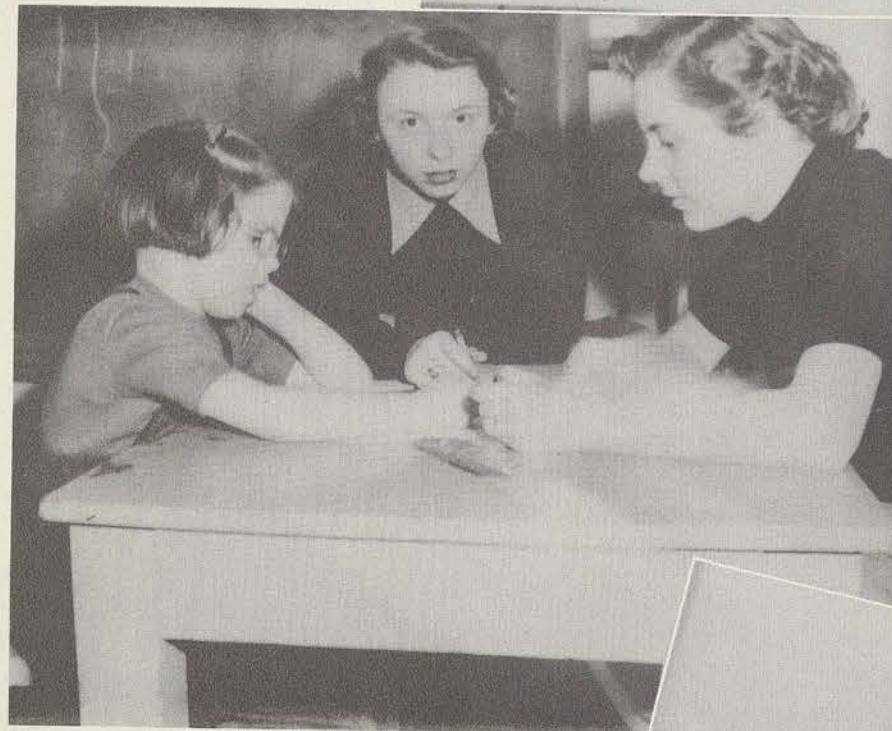

TSCW Speech Clinic

Students studying speech therapy obtain practical experience in the TSCW Speech Clinic. After observing for one full semester, they begin treating children in the Denton area who have speech defects and practice therapy in public schools.

In one of the five therapy rooms, student therapists Minerva Windham and Ethel Nell Treadaway use the mirror to show Janet Lowry, a first grade student, the placement of sound.

Play therapy is also used by Minerva and Ethel Nell as a means of obtaining motivation of the speech muscles.

Nancy Thomas uses pictures to show her student the association between pictures and real people.

Our Words in Print

A Busy Day Every Day

The Daily Lass-O

The only women's college daily in the nation, The Daily Lass-O has been twice rated as All-American by the National Scholastic Press Association. As a weekly paper until 1946, it received the All-American rating for twelve consecutive years. Students in journalism laboratories handle all campus news coverage, solicit advertising and handle photographic assignments. National and international news is obtained from leased wire service.

Would that it were as simple as this! Milfred Budd, Editor-in-Chief, not only keeps her daily edit pages sparkling but coordinates the week's coverage for the daily student publication as well.

Marie Jackson, Business Manager, handles the financial end of the paper.

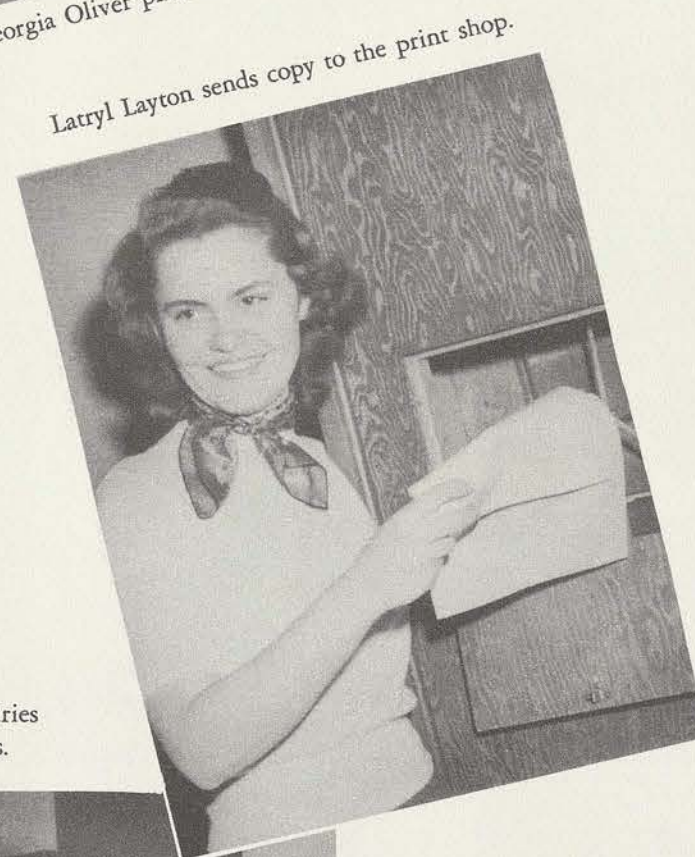

Every Editor Has Her Day

Georgia Oliver plans her page dummy.

Anne Singleton checks a story.

Latryl Layton sends copy to the print shop.

Nelda Bearden dries the day's pictures.

Patricia Powless pulls the wire copy.

Beat the Deadline

Daedalian

The Daedalian is created to symbolize the happy spirit of student days and as recognition of the arts and crafts for which the college stands. It was named after the Greek god, Daedalus, whose legend embodies the practical and the inspirational aspects of life.

It's all in a page . . . but which one? Thelma Balcar, Editor-in-Chief, works with her staff to put on her 1952 "Bulletin Board" Daedalian the traditions that give this year its place in the history of the college. Picture appointments, planning pages and trips to the publisher keep her life exciting.

Photographer Pat Powless and her "Speedy" Graphic camera travel any place at any time to snatch pictures for a last minute deadline.

Dr. Mac, faculty sponsor, photographer, creator and exterminator of panic times over deadline complications, checks with the editor over the "inter-com" system.

Mary Davenport, Business Manager, is always ready for a last minute sale, whether for an advertisement or an annual.

Peggy Medlock, Art Editor, has a madcap's talent as her guide in creating special effects with sketches and photography.

CAROLYN MCCAULAIN

The Daedalian Quarterly

The Daedalian Quarterly is published three times a year under the direction of the Department of English. This literary magazine includes a collection of short stories, essays and poems written by TSCW students and compiled by its editor.

News gathering for Home Towns

The TSCW News Bureau handles all college publicity, keeping home town newspapers up to date on the activities of their collegiates on the campus. The department—with its ten o'clock "coffee time"—is the main channel for state-wide and national publicity.

THSPA Time

In December the Texas High School Press Association held its convention, sponsored annually by the TSCW Journalism Department. High School publications from all over the state were here to compete for top recognition at the three-day meet.

Pre-convention blues found journalism students stuffing information envelopes and completing last minute arrangements before the delegates arrived.

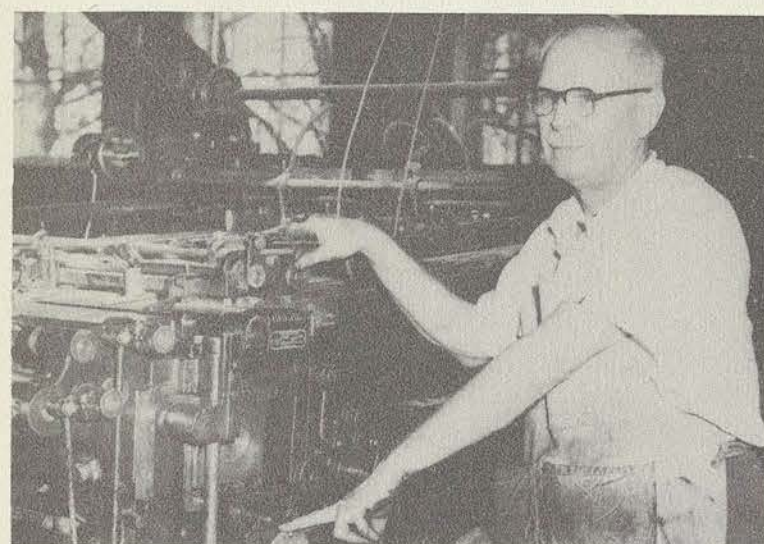

Registration lines seemed endless and organized confusion reigned.

Exhibits, workshops and speakers were on the program for the convention. Here, THSPA'ers look over the photography samples sent in by high school journalism staffs.

The Way We Play

To Play's the Thing

Once upon a time it was September, 1951, at TSCW and two freshmen named Diane De-Graff and Mary Guinn were itching to become part of the whirl of sports activities they'd heard about here. They were sitting in their room one night wondering just how to enter some of those activities.

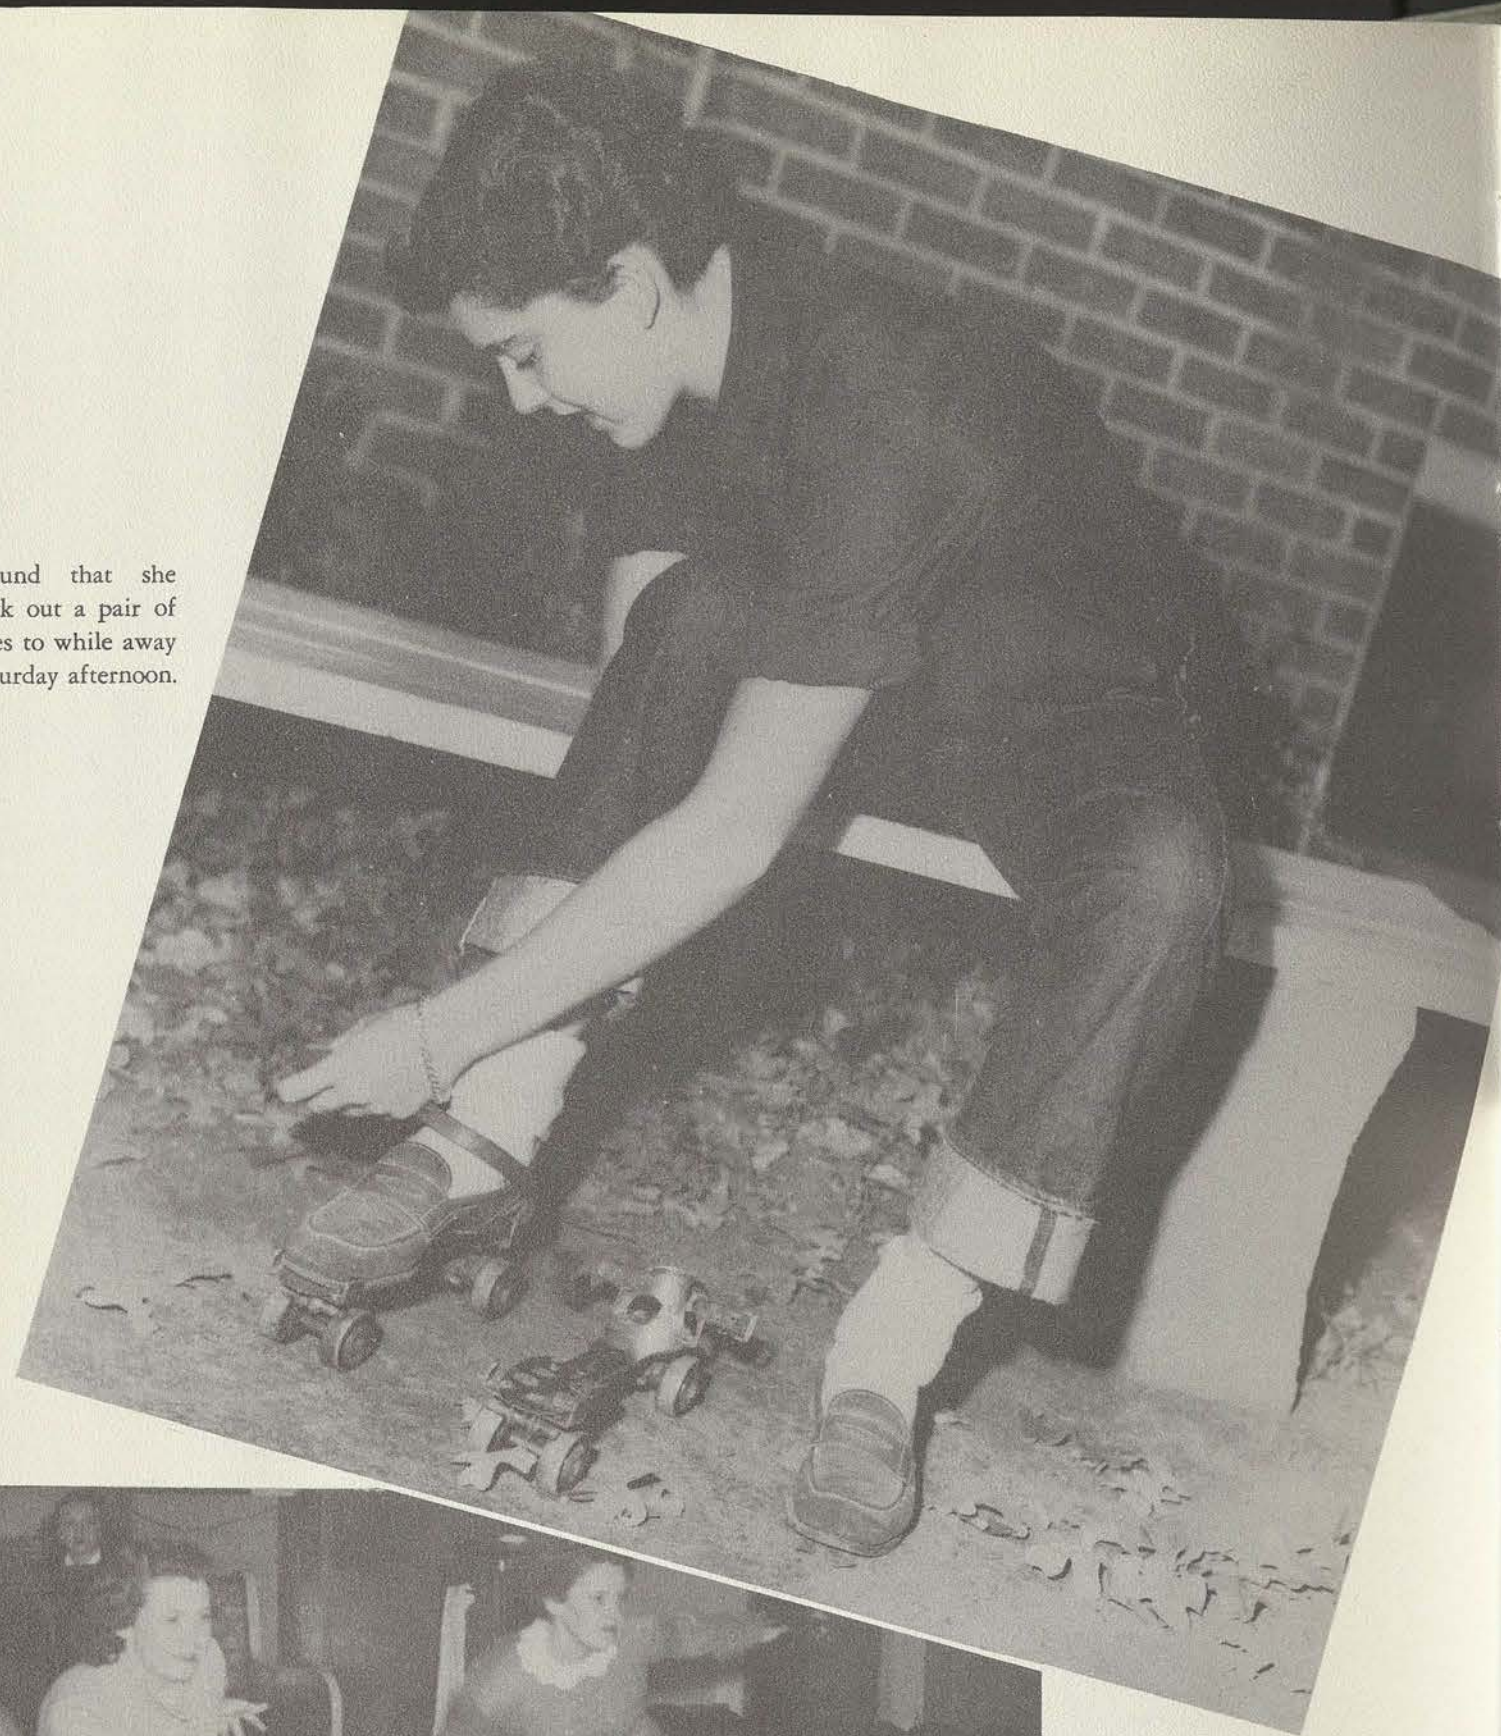

Then Diane met presidents Mary K. Thomas of Women's Recreation Association and Lou Nowlin of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Professional Club. They told her that TSCW's recreational facilities were available to anyone—for the asking.

Where Do We Start ?

Diane found that she could check out a pair of roller skates to while away an idle Saturday afternoon.

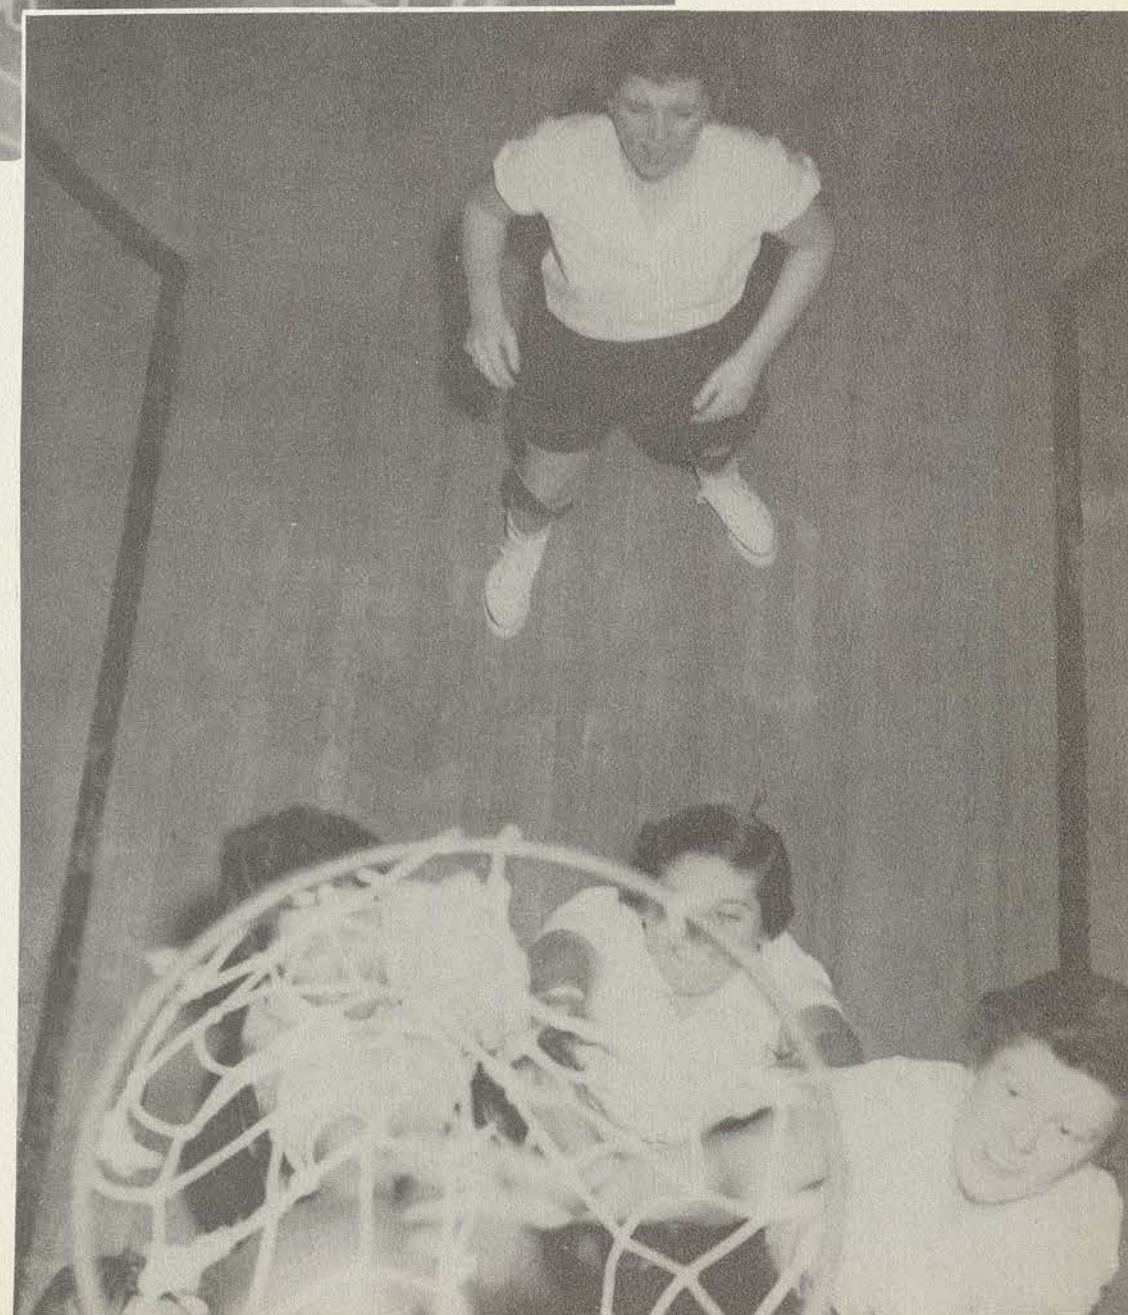

The girls visited Varsity Bowling Alleys where TSCW held weekly classes, and later they became a part of the action-packed inter - dormitory bowling league.

Mary and Diane gathered up some friends for an active afternoon of basketball. Left, they get ready to leap for a rebound.

Action on the Court!

Right, Mary shouts in dismay as she miffs a close basket.

Then the Whistle Blew

This is how it's done: A group of hockey players show Diane a new pointer.

A study in interest: Players on the sideline watch an exciting game.

Counterpart of a football eleven at TSCW is the hockey team, and as far as big games go, the pre-Thanksgiving battle between mock teams representing rivals Texas and Texas A&M is it.

On the Saturday before Thanksgiving, the opposing elevens take the field amidst cheering bystanders pulling for their favorite side. Tradition has it that the final score of this game will predict the outcome of the Turkey Day classic between the real Aggie-Teasipper teams. And the prediction scores have been right more times than they have been wrong.

After the thrill-packed game is over, hockey players meet in the Little-Cabin-in-the-Woods for a farewell steak fry. Seniors are honored with miniature trophies and letters from exes of years gone by are read.

Hockey is the team sport TSCW loves best.

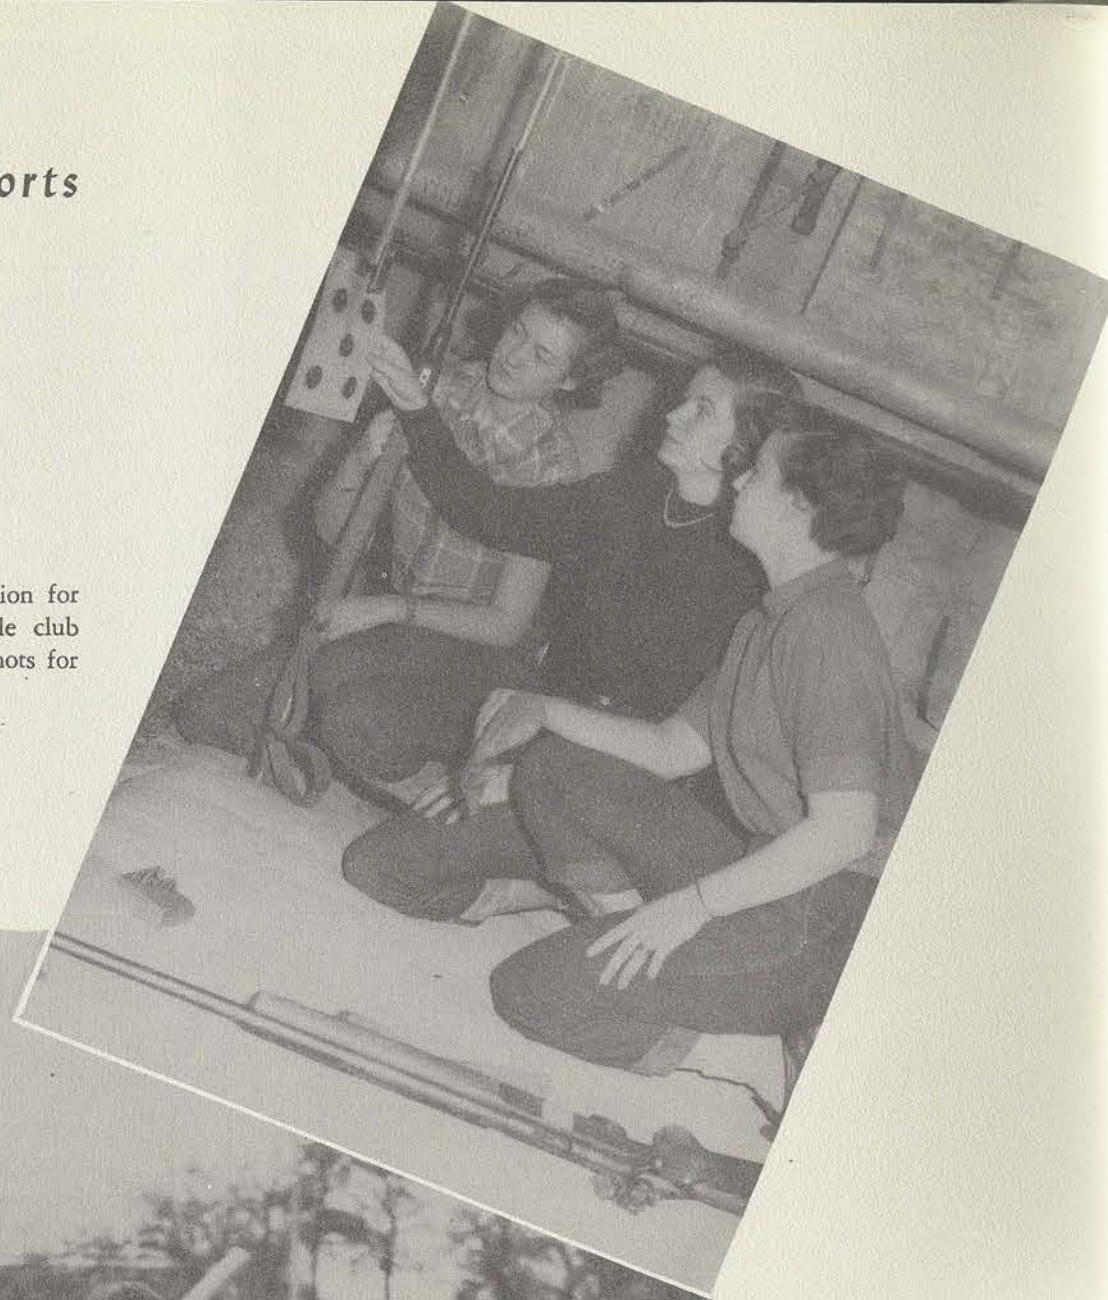

Hockey games are choked full of close action. Here opposing players try to start the puck downfield for a winning score.

Sticksters await a zooming-pass.

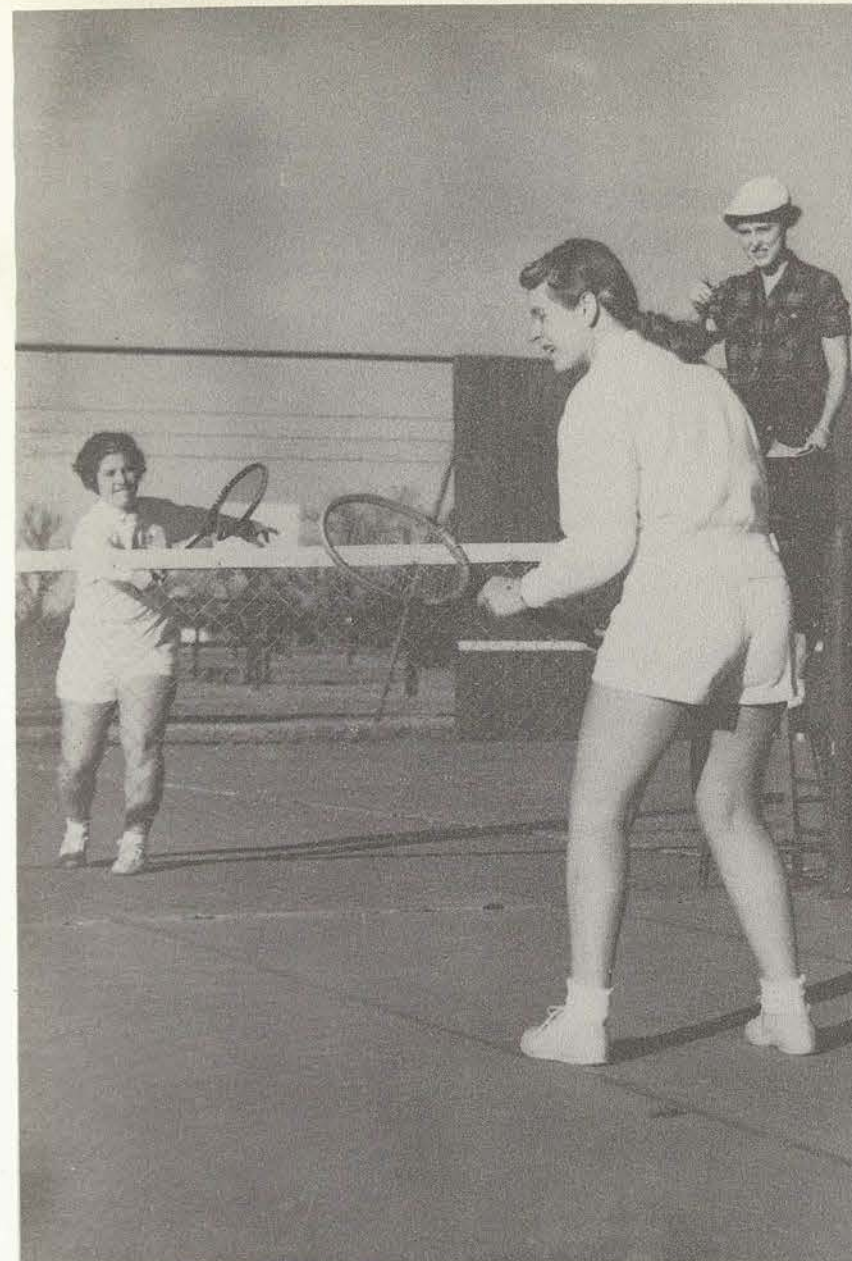

For Fun with Sports

Rifle shooting offers keen competition for any girl. Members of TSCW's rifle club practice regularly to sharpen their shots for various collegiate matches.

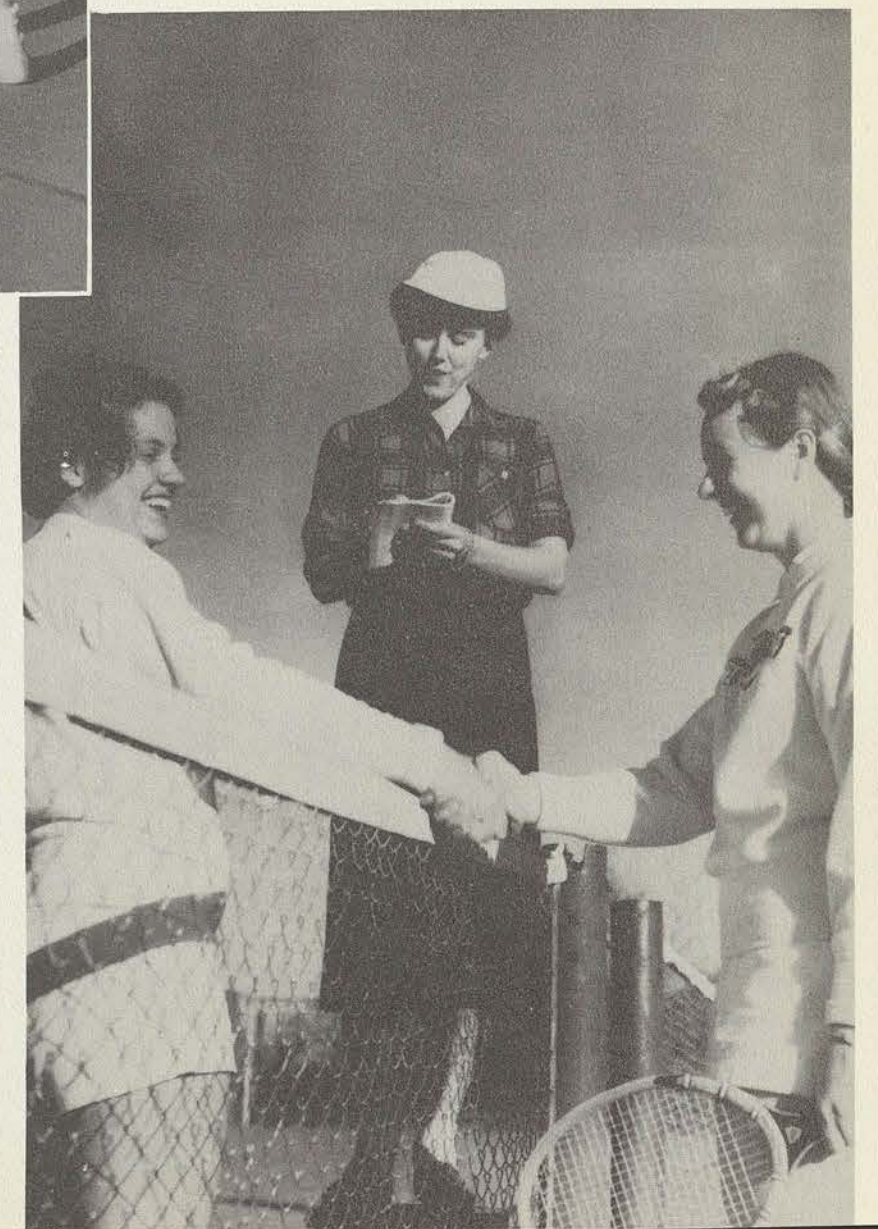

It didn't take long for Diane and Mary to rank softball among their favorite sports pastimes. Left, Mary tries a sneak slide to home plate.

From Start to Finish

A point for you! Diane calls a close shot in a tennis bout.

And she chalks up a win for one girl as the opponents demonstrate the sportsmanship that is part of all games at TSCW.

Diane and Mary were among the droves of girls who flocked to the December WRA-sponsored 'Possum Hunt. Left, President Guinn and three 'possum-catchers display the night's loot.

A-Hunting We Will Go

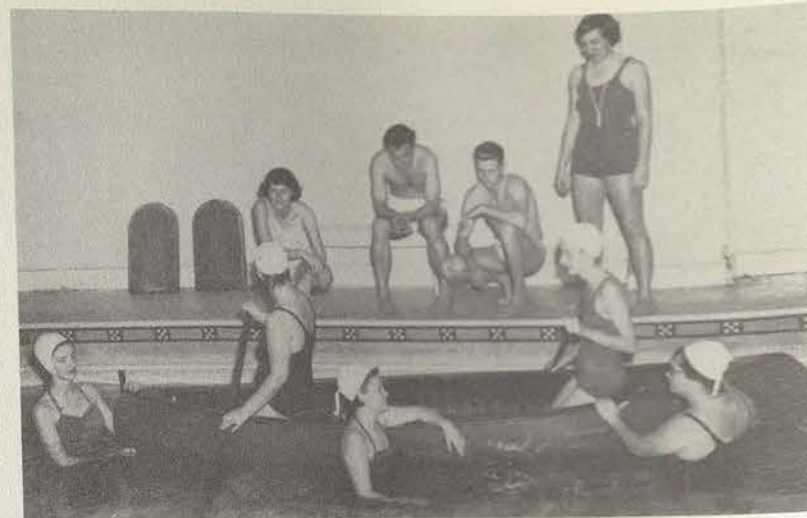

'Possum up an oak tree! Mary skins a tree to shake down Bre'r 'Possum in record time.

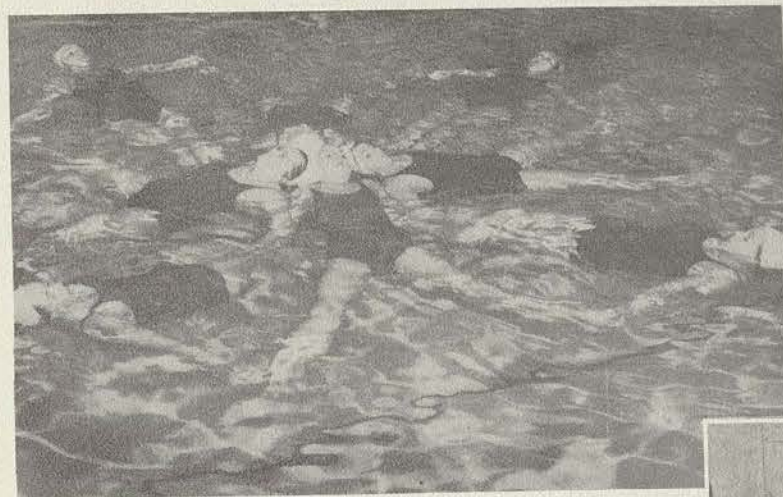

Into the Swim

Water, Water Everywhere

TSCW trains many of its own life guards to watch the indoor and outdoor swimming pools. Here, a group of Life Saving Club members demonstrate the correct way to handle a light canoe.

Swimmers in the Aquatics Club are perfecting a difficult water formation for their spring show.

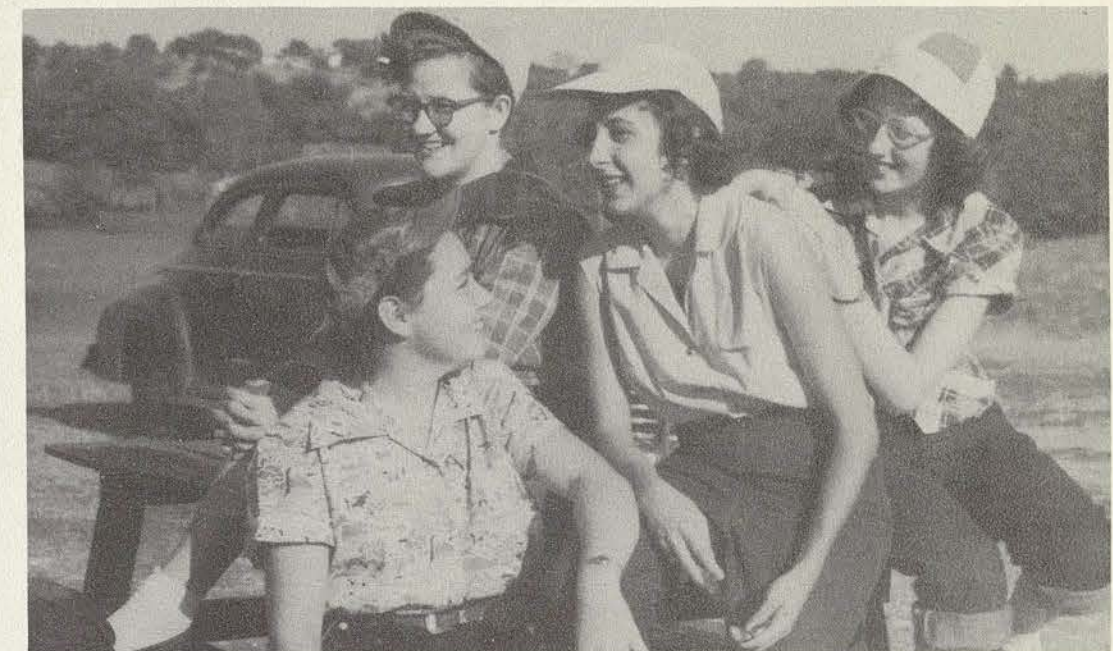

Aquatics Club attracts members who swim just for the pleasure of swimming. Each spring the club presents a review that features fancy water formations, high diving and even competitive swimming. Above, a diver makes ready for a splash entrance.

Two club coaches show members proper swimming kicks.

Time for an Outing

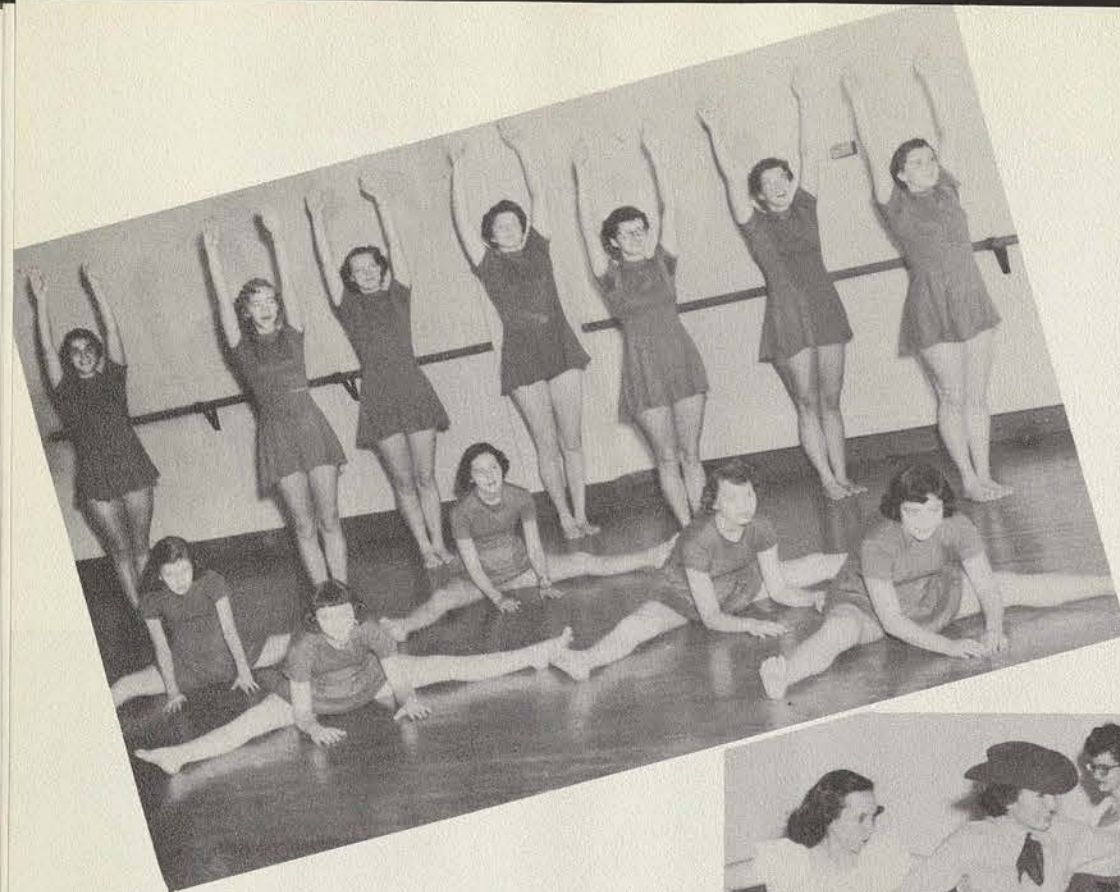

And the place is Lake Dallas, where TSCW owns two picturesque cabins that nestle on the cliff overlooking the large lake. All year long activities at Lake Dallas beckon to TSCW girls—picnics, weekend outings, regattas and swim parties. There is plenty of equipment ready to take students on a spin around the lake, including canoes, rowboats, sailboats and Cris-Crafts.

Dance We Must

Let There Be Dance

Left, Mary and other girls in modern dance class take strenuous exercises to prepare for later difficult dance patterns. Below, Folk Dance Clubbers swing out on the popular "Texas Star."

The Caperettes, pictured below, are a line-dancing tap group. Their unique routines have made them in demand for functions in and around Denton as well as in programs at TSCW.

Sun, Sage and Sam Bass

This is the story of Sam Bass, renowned and rugged Texas desperado, as woven by the Modern Dance Club of TSCW.

Old Sam Bass was as tough as the cactus spires that sometimes brushed against his boots. Around where the Texas sagebrush grows tallest, he was the terror of the plains—robbing trains, stealing or getting into card game fisticuffs. But his faithful partners loved him, and together they lived each day hard and happy for as long as the bright Texas sun rode the skies. His partners never forgot old Sam after he died, and most of them claimed that even then he kept right on traveling the plains on his fire-eating bronco, his hat thrown back with the wind.

Every person on the TSCW campus is a member of Women's Recreation Association, an organization offering innumerable sports activities that make for friendly competition. Dormitory representatives who help spur their home halls to victory are, left to right, Kitty Lanford, Fitzgerald; Jo Ann Kennedy, Austin; Jan Thompson, Smith-Carroll; Sue Lawdermilk, Lowry; Jody Irwin, Houston; Doris Duke, Stoddard; and Diane De Graff, Capps.

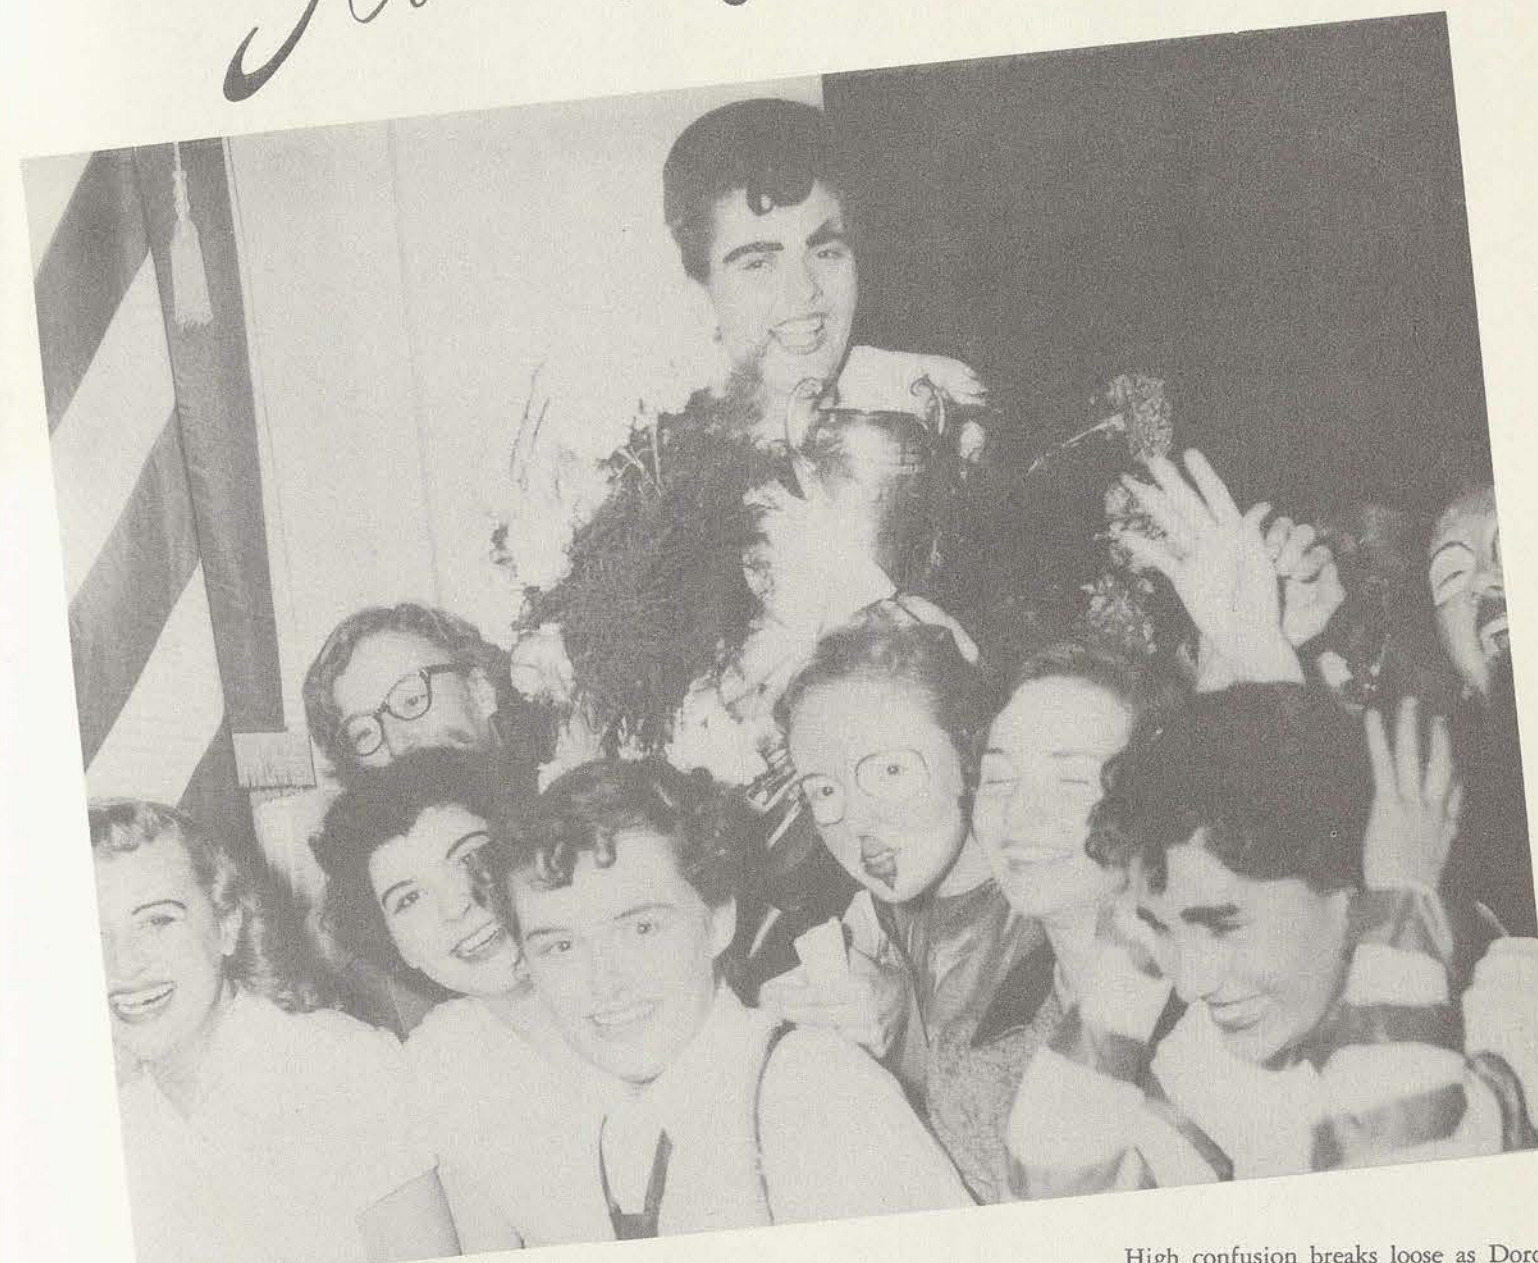

What We Play For

The prizes we play for number two—a healthy spirit and a share in winning points that may earn the WRA Dormitory Cup. Diane and Mary are well on their way to a rounded program of recreation now. Participation such as theirs inserts the real meaning into WRA and the trophy it awards each year.

Stunts!

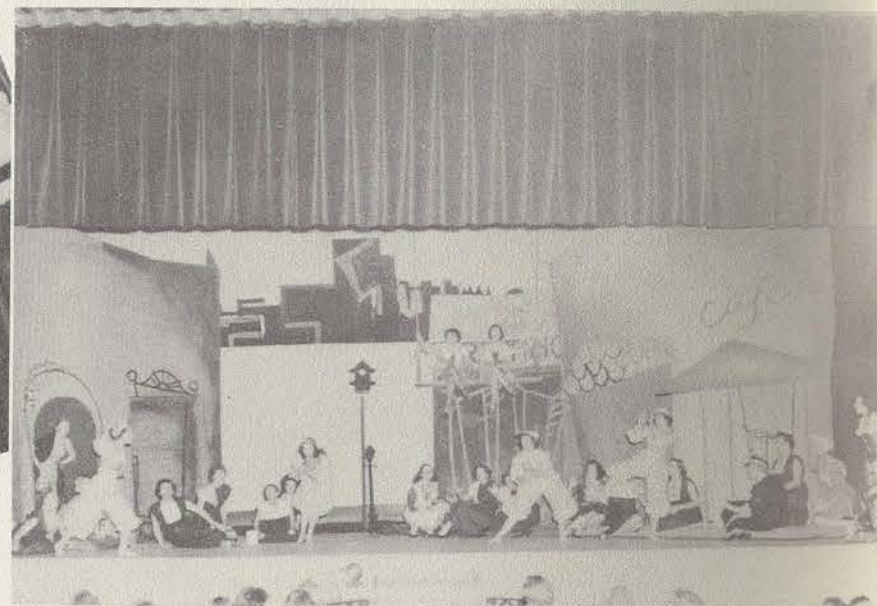

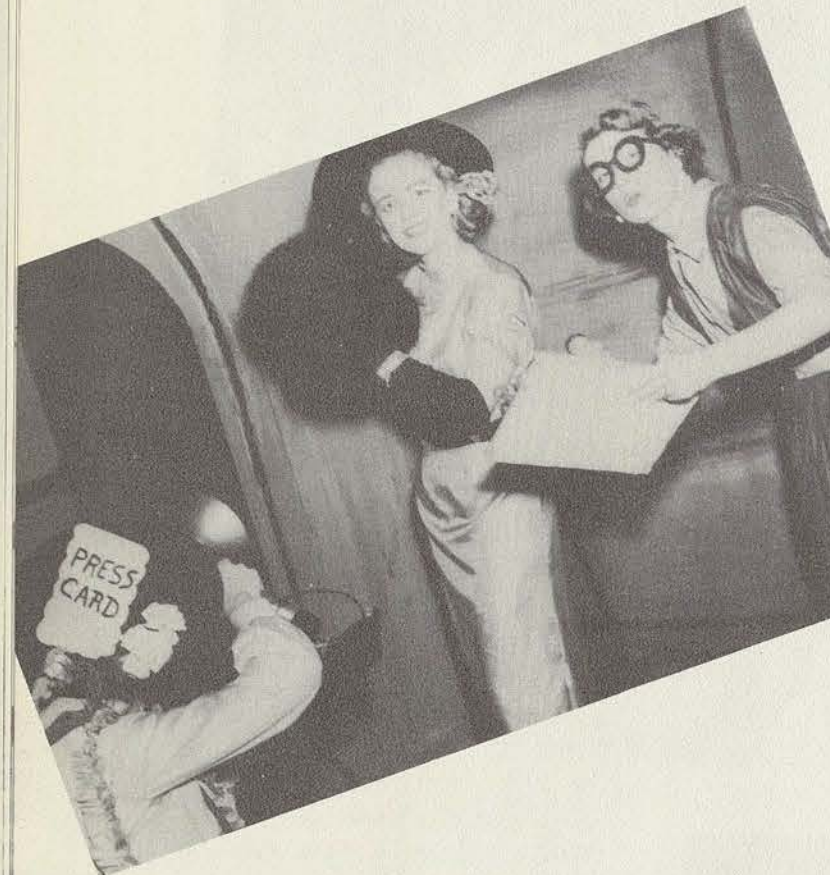

High confusion breaks loose as Dorothy Garner, Sophomore Class President, is called to the stage to receive the silver cup for her class' winning stunt.

Spirited Tessies let their hair down and talent out with the arrival of Stunt Time on the campus. With originality as a keynote, each of the four classes creates from start to finish its twenty-minute skit. Changing scripts, re-doing sets, making costumes, planning make-up, keeping themes a secret and the long rehearsals all add to the excitement and friendly competition climaxed when Mr. Emerson presents the Stunt Cup Saturday night.

"Feminine Fancie" Seniors

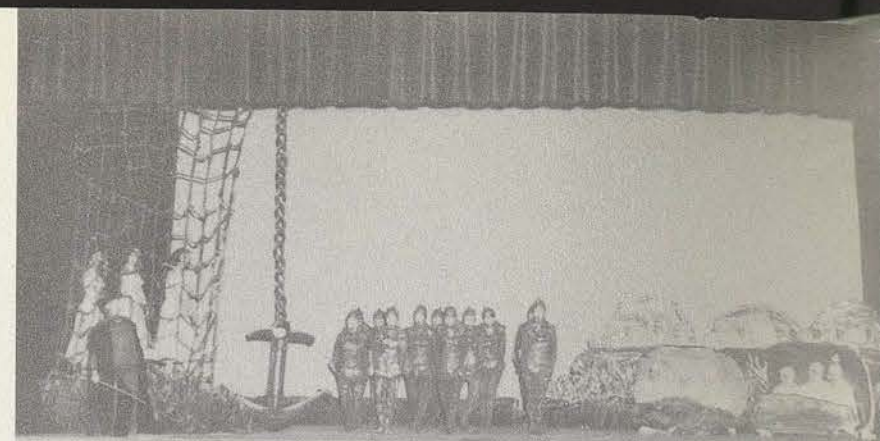

The Senior Class Stunt created a small revolution of women taking over occupations formerly belonging to the men. All jobs were done by women . . . the sign painters with ruffles . . . the lady executive who had no time of her own . . . the sporters from the "Pink Hose" baseball team . . . and the candidate for president. Finally, one man brings evidence to say "It Ain't Necessarily So" and the feminine chorus agrees that there's nothing like a he-man, muscular, masterful, masculine MAN!

Juniors Portray "Hell's Belles"

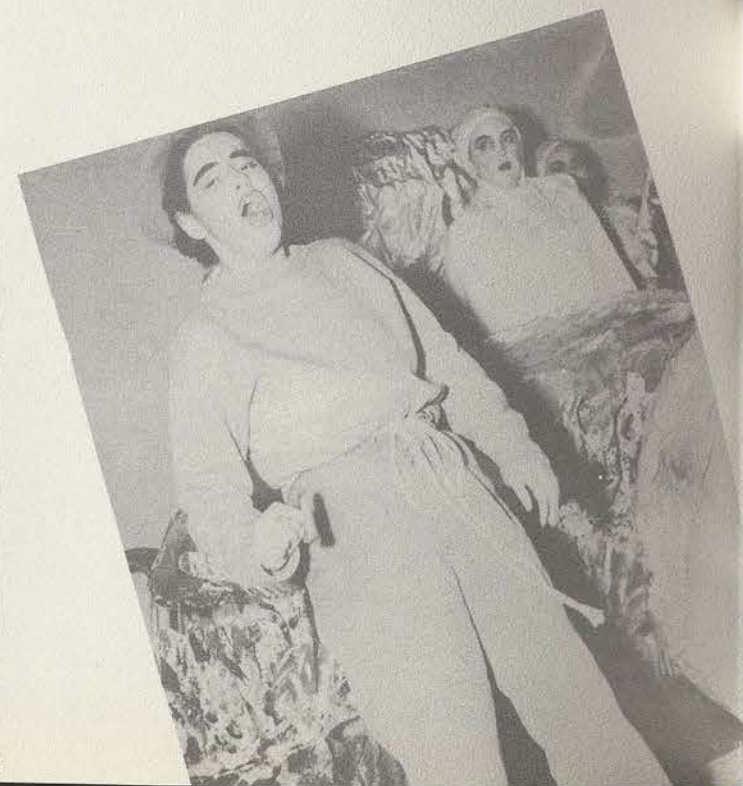

Since creation began, the provocation of men by women was the theme of the Junior Class Stunt. They brought up six trifling ladies from Hades to prove their point . . . Delilah, who betrayed her love everywhere . . . Jezebell, who at two-timing was able . . . and Lucretia Borgia, who committed wholesale homicide with cocktails made of cyanide. Choorling and dancing couples listened in awe to the Belles from below!

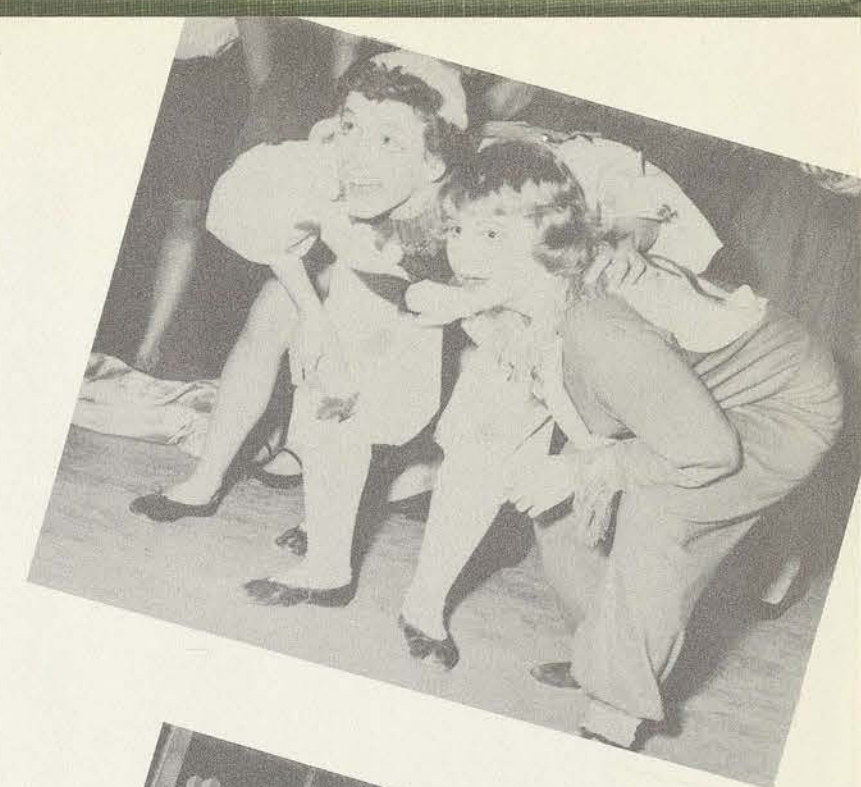

Somethin' Fishy with the Sophs

The Sophomores say a school of fish may seem innocent enough, but it's a "whale" of a story when the Homo-Sapienology class begins deep under the sea. Musical oysters and attentive dancing fishes listen well to Professor Fish as he catches in his net examples of the world above . . . the college set . . . the cafe society gal . . . the sportsmen . . . and the Happy Bum. After the lesson is over, fishes say "Now we know, we're glad we're fishes."

Freshmen "Have a Heart"

The Freshman Class Stunt verified the key to happy hearts could be gained by courage and strengthened by love. Precision soldiers and high members of the court of the King and Queen of Hearts joined forces to free Duchess Bridget from wicked spade villains. Dancing cards with entertainment and court jesters with their lightness and tricks added merriment to the Land of Happy Hearts.

Backstage on Stunt Night

Problem: How to make a student look like a fish? Make-up director Patsy Nash begins work on a new victim for Davy Jones' locker.

Nerves get a chance to go to work on junior class crew members while waiting for the call to go on stage.

Betty Leake, sophomore sponsor Josh P. Roach and Jerry Horning put all good-luck actions into practice before curtain time.

Up with the scenery! Comes the cry from senior class crew members. With sets having to be changed for every stunt, each minute is important.

Calendar Capers

First Day Turmoil

First day activities of the new year were numerous and found desperate Tessies trying to pack a house-full of souvenirs and clothes into one small room and still leave bewildered roommates enough space to brush their teeth.

First on the agenda is signing in at the dormitory office and scrambling for a mis-placed room assignment card. Below, new freshmen receive the familiar red hand-book, the calendar of events, and new college material of how to live for the coming nine months.

Sisters Pat and Peggy Von Clauswitz move belongings stored on the campus during the summer months.

Even fathers were put to work carrying clothes as in the case of Jo Ann Ford.

Joan Fudge manages to rope her mother in on the room straightening job.

More First Week Doings

REGISTRATION

Signing up for courses occupied hours of time. Cards to fill out were numerous, lines were endless, students were confused and profs were exhausted before the final schedules were approved.

NEWCOMERS NIGHT

The Villagers of Denton helped break the newness with an open house in Hubbard Hall the first Wednesday of school. Right, Nancy Russell gets acquainted with her classmates-to-be over a punch bowl.

Returning students greet freshmen with easy chatter of plans and campus customs in store for the coming year.

All-College Night

Sponsored and written by the CGA officers, this special night gives the new students a preview of what they will see and do for the coming nine months.

During a tour of the campus, Mary Beard, CGA president, introduces Pat Brown, posing as a new student, to all college officers Carla Weber and Josephine Burkhart.

Another stop was the PO, where Pat saw students gathering four times a day to check mail boxes for letters from off-campus friends.

Pat and Mary have a chat with Liz Stroop, who portrays the roommate that can't quite get the hang of college life.

Even the Aggies came through with a couple of yells to give a preview of Corps Trip time when brother school A&M honors TSCW at a football game in Fort Worth.

Lanterns of Friendship

One of the best-loved traditions of TSCW, the Lantern Parade is originated to promote good friendship between the new and old students. Left, the single line of new students joins that of the old and, with lanterns between, follow together the traditional paths around the campus.

Step right up and get your lantern! Crowds of Dentonites gather along the path to see the moving string of light as students walk around the darkened campus. Familiar songs as "Moonlight and Roses," "Shine on Harvest Moon," "In the Evening by the Moonlight" and "For Me and My Gal" ring out in the air. After the parade the students gather in front of the Music-Speech Building for another sing-song before seeing a free movie in the Main Auditorium.

WRA on the Go

More getting acquainted is done at the WRA Carnival on the cement slab. Booths are set up for special carnival refreshments, cake - walks supply students with sweets and fortune tellers search the deep secrets of a Tess' future.

Rummage for Sale

Carolyn Wyatt, president of the Student Finance Council, shows off some prize rummage to buyers Marilyn Fawcett and Rosemary Massey. The sale is one of the many programs sponsored by the council to raise money for scholarships, aid to Norwich College in England and other worthwhile projects.

Heap Big entertainers on the program were Kitty Bethel and Lou Cranor who put their "howdys" to music . . .

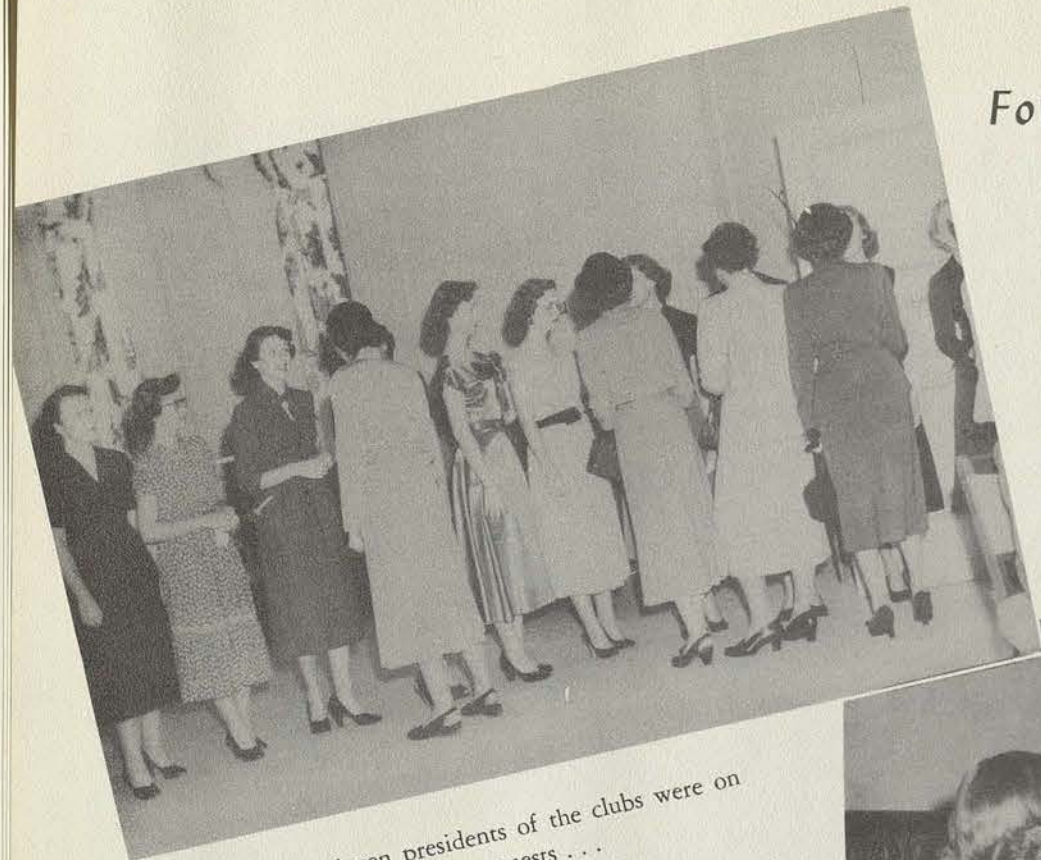

Heap Fun at Howdy Dinner

Another program of the Student Finance Council is the annual Howdy Dinner where students renew friendships after a three month summer vacation.

. . . while this quintet of Mary Alice Butterworth, Lynette Poole, Barbara Charlton, Mary Ann Keith and Carolyn Colvin combined talent of dancing feet and vocal cords.

Aggie Sweetheart nominees and the visiting delegation from A&M attended this dinner as a part of their scheduled activities the weekend they chose the Aggie Sweetheart.

The eleven presidents of the clubs were on hand to receive the guests . . .

For the Social Minded Tess

Sponsored by the Student Council of Social Activities, the Pre-Rush Tea was initiated this year as an added feature of the pre-rush season. Prospective pledges of the eleven Literary-Social Clubs on the campus were invited to meet club officers and members.

Registration and name tags were passed out . . .

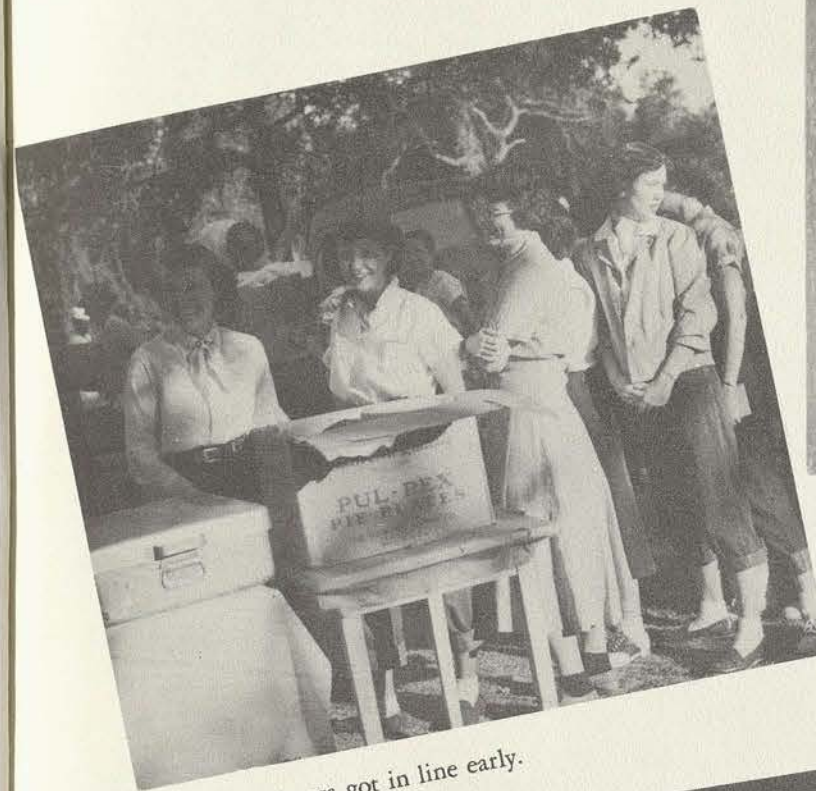

Kathy Sunkel provided musical entertainment . . .

Punch was served by Marilyn Bodden.

Picnic in the Woods

Blue jeans, sour pickles and barbeque go together to make All-College Picnics full of fun and foolishness.

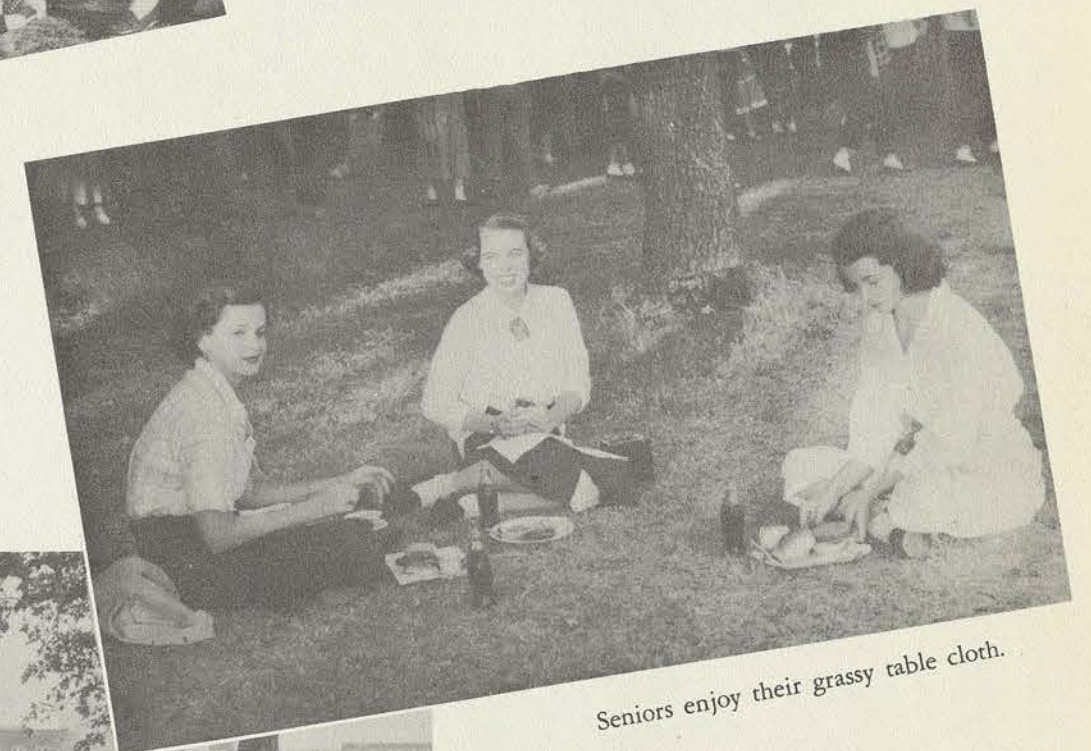

Old-timers got in line early.

Early birds eat while lines are still long.

To some the lines seemed endless.

Seniors enjoy their grassy table cloth.

What a Full Day This Was

Horace Heidt's Youth Opportunity Show and the OU Band hit the campus in full swing. Pre-show auditions found three TSCW students winning spots on Denton show given in the Main Auditorium.

Mr. Heidt and students Trudy Aston and Kitty Bethel chat before curtain time.

Backstage assistants Ethel Nell Treadaway and Gail O'Brien look over the program with Singer Ralph Sigwald.

Funny man Bud Messenie and three other Heidt troupers talk things over backstage.

OU Band members pause for a Tessie photographer.

Adele finds a friend.

Continuing an old tradition, the Oklahoma University Sooner Band members were again guests of the Senior Class the evening before the OU-TU game in Dallas.

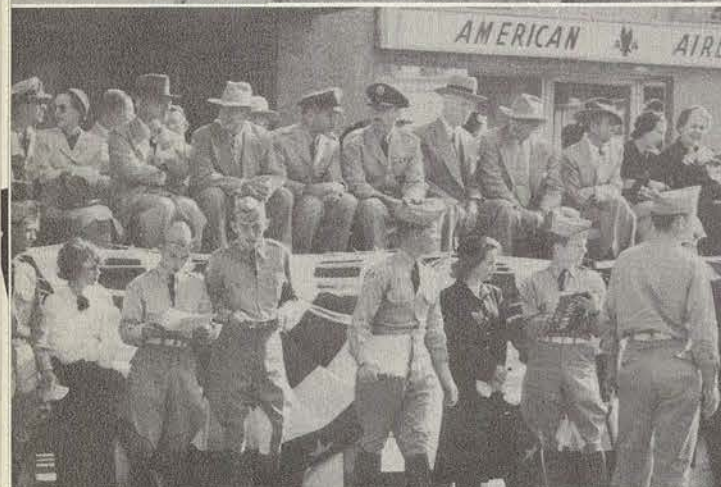

The traditional OU Band concert was cancelled this year so that Sooners, Tessies and Aggies could enjoy the Horace Heidt Show.

Corps Trip Time

Tessies and Aggies met again this year to re-new brother and sister relations at the Corps Trip in Fort Worth. Both campuses are vacated with a Saturday holiday for the big highlight of the football season.

Saturday morning meant parade time in Fort Worth with its reviewing stand filled with college officials, crowds of fun-loving students and finally the Aggies on parade.

It all began Friday night when hundreds of Aggies invaded the TSCW campus. Registration tables for the all-college dance in the Union Building became unofficial date bureaus as last-minute plans were made for the big weekend.

Saturday afternoon's heat did nothing to dampen the twelfth-man spirit. Varsity's horns were sawed off several times and "wild cats" broke out spontaneously after every Aggie play.

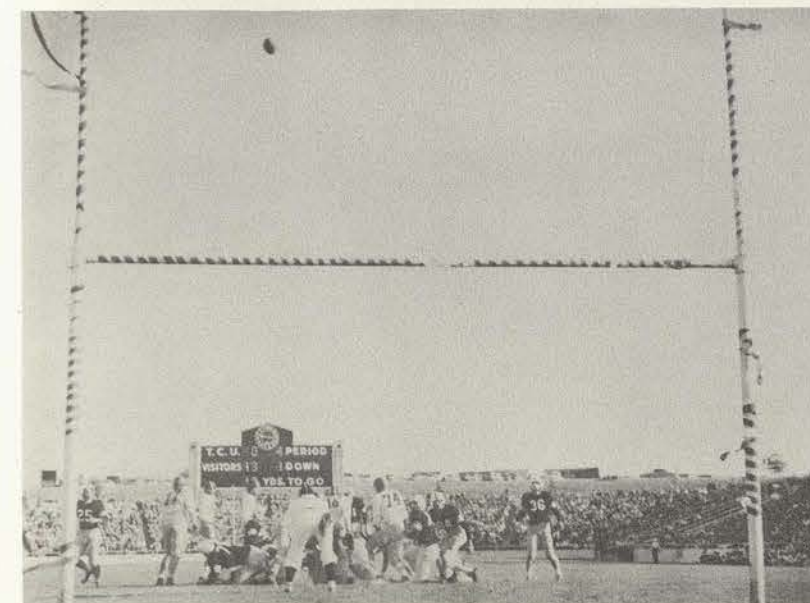

Wanda Wows the Aggies

Half-time activities were sparkled by the Aggies honoring TSCW with the presentation of their Aggie Sweetheart Wanda Harris from our sophomore class. Cadet Colonel Eric Carlson did the honors for the corps with the traditional kiss and a dozen roses while the Aggie Band played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

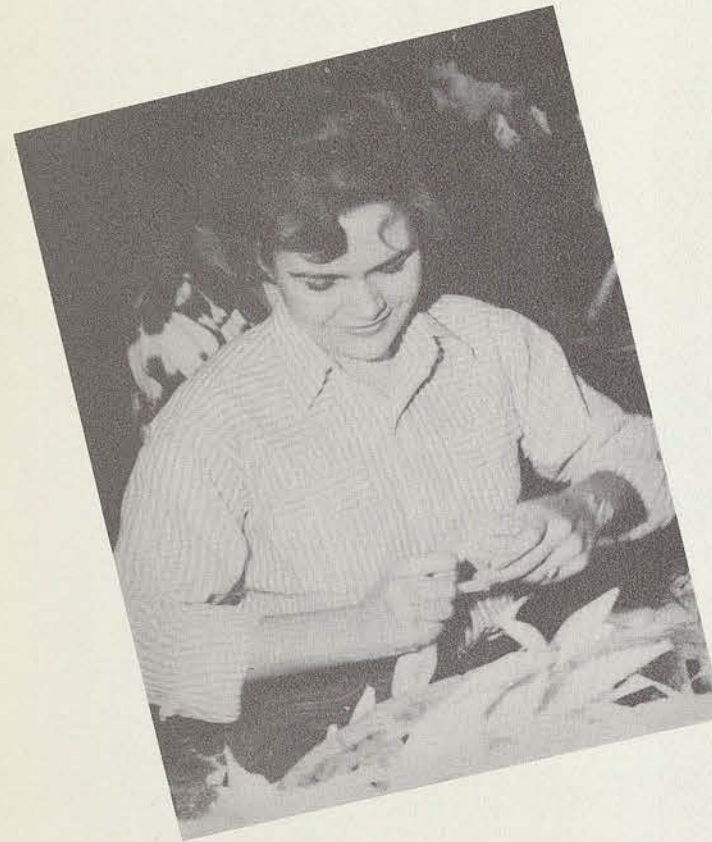

Aggies try for that extra point.

Loyal fans filled the stadium.

Corn Huskin' Bee

Roommates don blue jeans, add freckles and mustache to join in the fun of the WRA Corn Huskin' Bee. Hog callin', Husband callin', Chicken callin', Corn Huskin' and Dormitory Song Contests highlighted by square dancing and crazy costumes turn the concrete slab into a typical western frolic.

Emphasizing College Government

Mr. Daniel chats with campus prexys Mary Beard and Dr. John A. Guinn.

"With Every Privilege a Responsibility" was the theme of College Government Week this year. Attorney General Price Daniel spoke to students in one assembly. Student Council members also planned a program "Life Span of a Motion" that traced the steps in building an imaginary ski-lift on the campus.

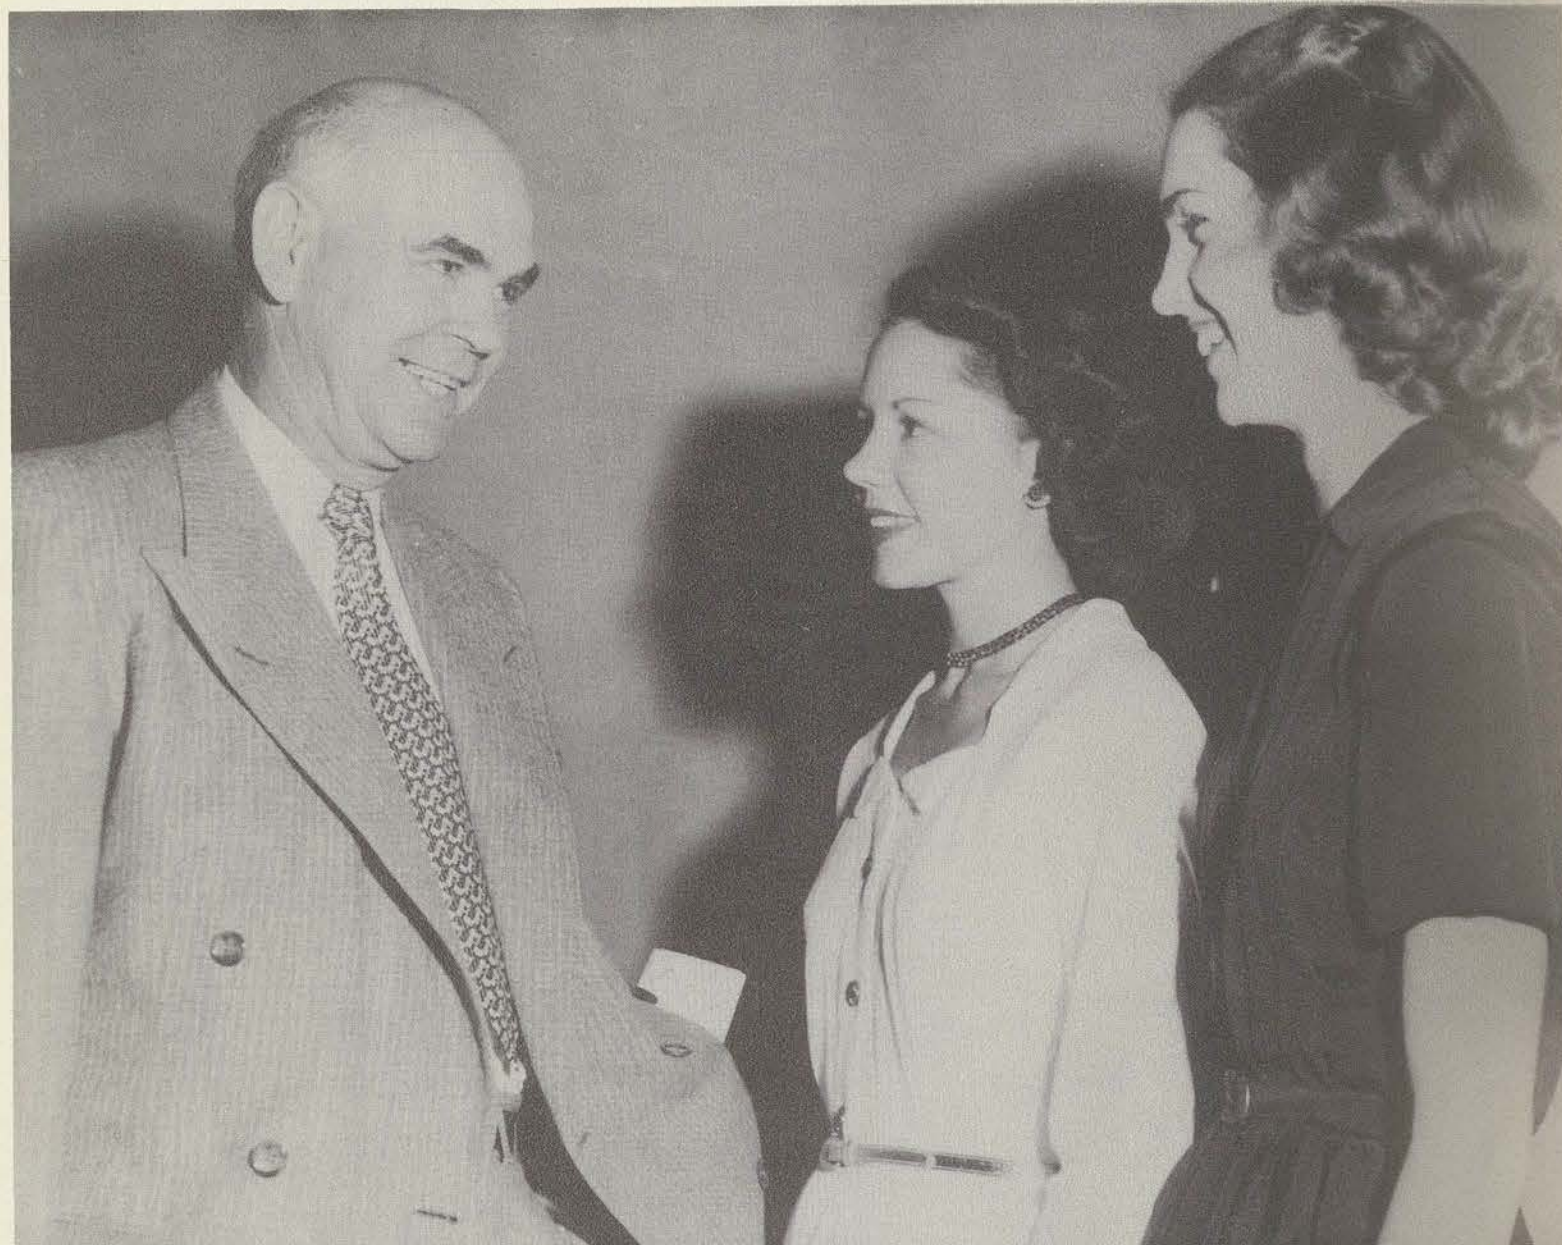

PRICE DANIEL, Attorney General

Following an informal meeting of Student Council, the College Government Association sponsored an open house. Judging a "Most Handsome Boy" contest for a Texas high school added gaiety to the meeting.

Religious Emphasis Week

REV. JAMES S. CHUBB, Guest Speaker
 BETTY CLIPPARD, Vice-President of SCRA
 JOSEPHINE BURKHART, President of SCRA

Stressing the part religion plays in campus life, TSCW's Religious Emphasis Week adopted "Certainties in an Uncertain World" as its theme. Rev. James S. Chubb, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Grand Island, Neb., visited the campus to speak in two assemblies and lead informal discussions. The inspiring services were planned by the Student Council of Religious Activities.

Pre-Christmas Fun

Students gather each year to sing Christmas Carols in the Rotunda of the Ad Building between classes.

Dormitories Hold Open House

Students, faculty members and children enjoy seeing each other out of the classrooms at the traditional informal Christmas parties given by each dormitory.

The Christmas Dance . . . couples admire the holiday decorations in the Ballroom.

The White Breakfast . . . Carolers provide a Christmas atmosphere while students and their families eat in the Dining Hall.

Having a Merry Christmas

Ready for the learning! With glasses, notebook, typewriter and paper, Peggy Andrews prepares for a night with the books.

Exam time is here! Joan Loerzel ponders over a question while Vivian Dunlop writes madly on for this is one answer she knows.

January Means Dead Week

The campus closes shop on all activities during Special Study Week so students won't be distracted in studying for finals.

Time for a break! A hungry tummy is always a good excuse to get away from the books. Anne Scruggs and Mary Regan try roasted sandwiches for a midnight snack.

February Graduation

Senior Class President Jackie Sanders and CGA President Mary Beard lead the processional of faculty members, administrative officers and prospective graduates.

Stoddard Open House

February graduates were honored at open house as part of the mid-term celebrations. Left, Jean Jester, Lenora Cole, Nelda Bearden and Ina Hubbard look over an AAUW Bulletin.

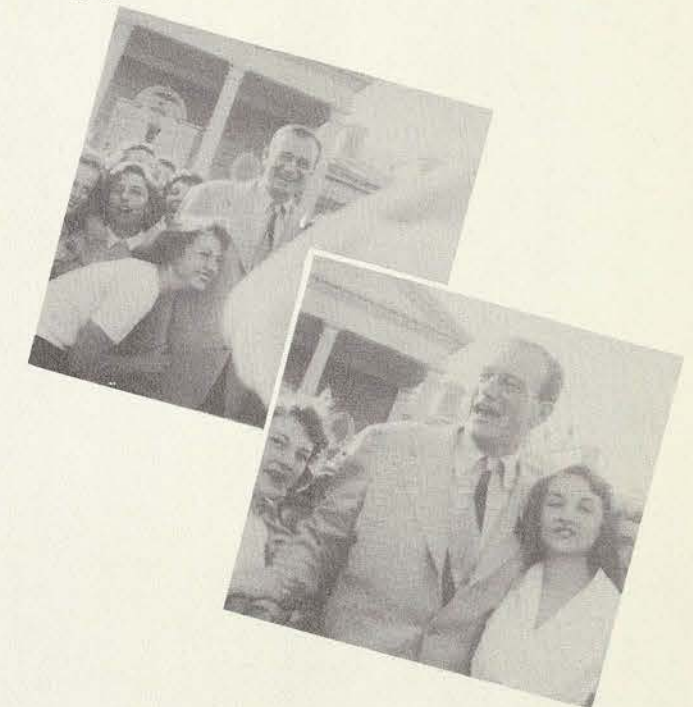

Miss Gertrude Gibson, Beverly Sharp, Frances Allen, Anna Mae Buehrig and Leta Beth Dawson visit the refreshment table.

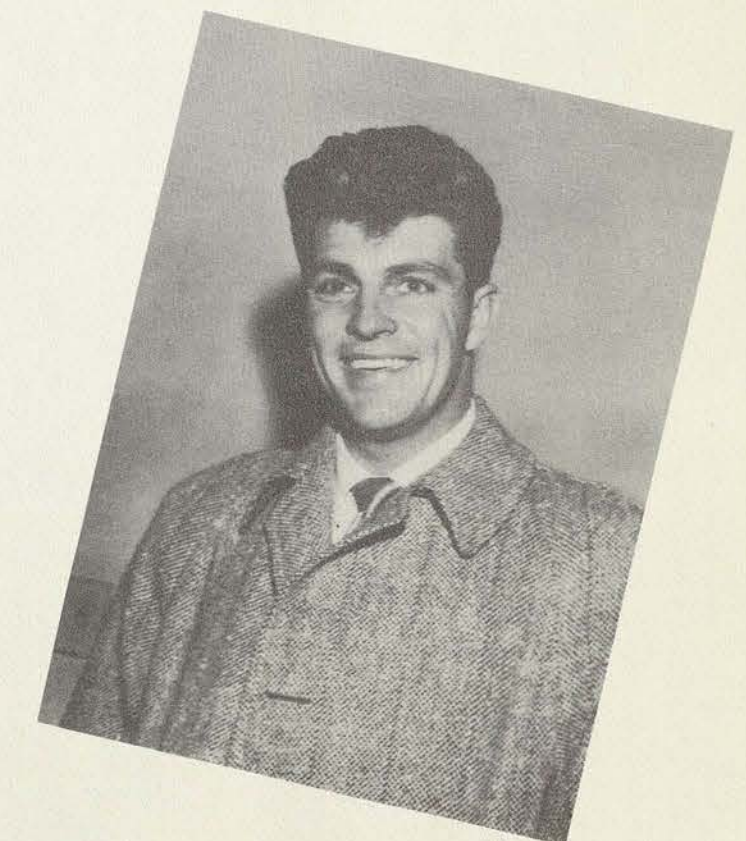

Greeting the Stars

A Hollywood Caravan of Screen Stars including John Wayne, Keenan Wynn and Jeff Chandler made a quick stop on the campus in October. The stars—with Keenan Wynn on a motorcycle—ate lunch in Hubbard Hall and pleased many Tessies with autographs before continuing a Texas-wide tour.

Dale Robinson in Person

Another star, Dale Robinson, came to TSCW in February when his new picture "The Return of the Texan" was previewed in Denton. Dale took time out for an interview with Daily Lass-O reporter Anne Singleton before making a short speech in the Main Auditorium.

Self Development

Self Development Week had a special importance this year with the dedication of two new buildings and the inauguration of a new college. Four days of symposia about the new College of Household Arts and Sciences were climaxed by a special dedicatory assembly.

Dr. Guinn talks with Francis M. Law of Houston, principal speaker for the inauguration ceremonies, and Carl Runge, chairman of the Board of Regents, who made the presentation speech.

Well equipped laboratories of the College of Household Arts and Sciences offer training in all of the phases of home economics.

Air - conditioned student lounges and living rooms provide a comfortable atmosphere for students living in the new Smith-Carroll Dormitory.

Week Activities

Traditional activities of Self - Development Week place emphasis on the good grooming, charm, and personal attractiveness of each TSCW student. Special exhibits and clinics were sponsored by the various departments to show how the college contributes to the development of the student.

Wanda Roach, Mabel Faltin and Dorothy George note the cultural aspects of TSCW as stressed in a display of the College of Household Arts and Sciences.

Wanda and Dorothy pause at an index display locating other exhibits in the new building.

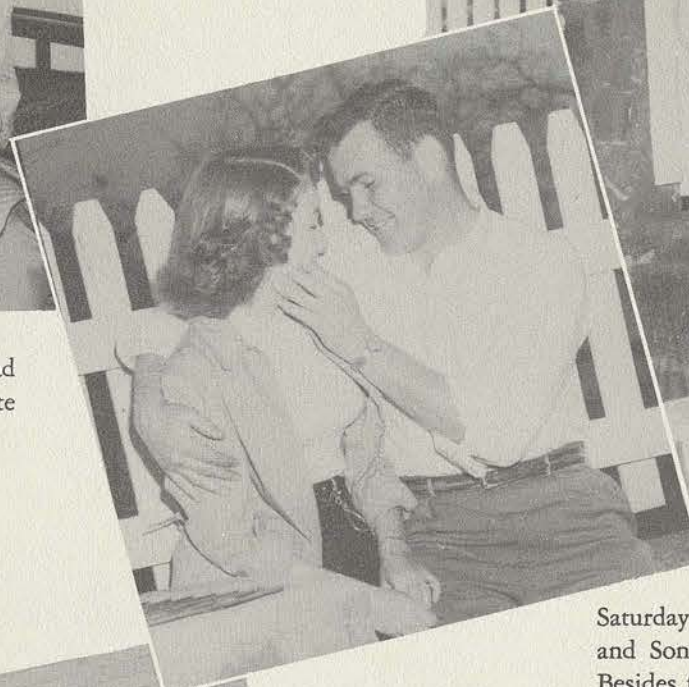

Mary Jo Mogas and Coralie Timmermann check their posture with the pipe cleaner display in the Department of Business and Economics.

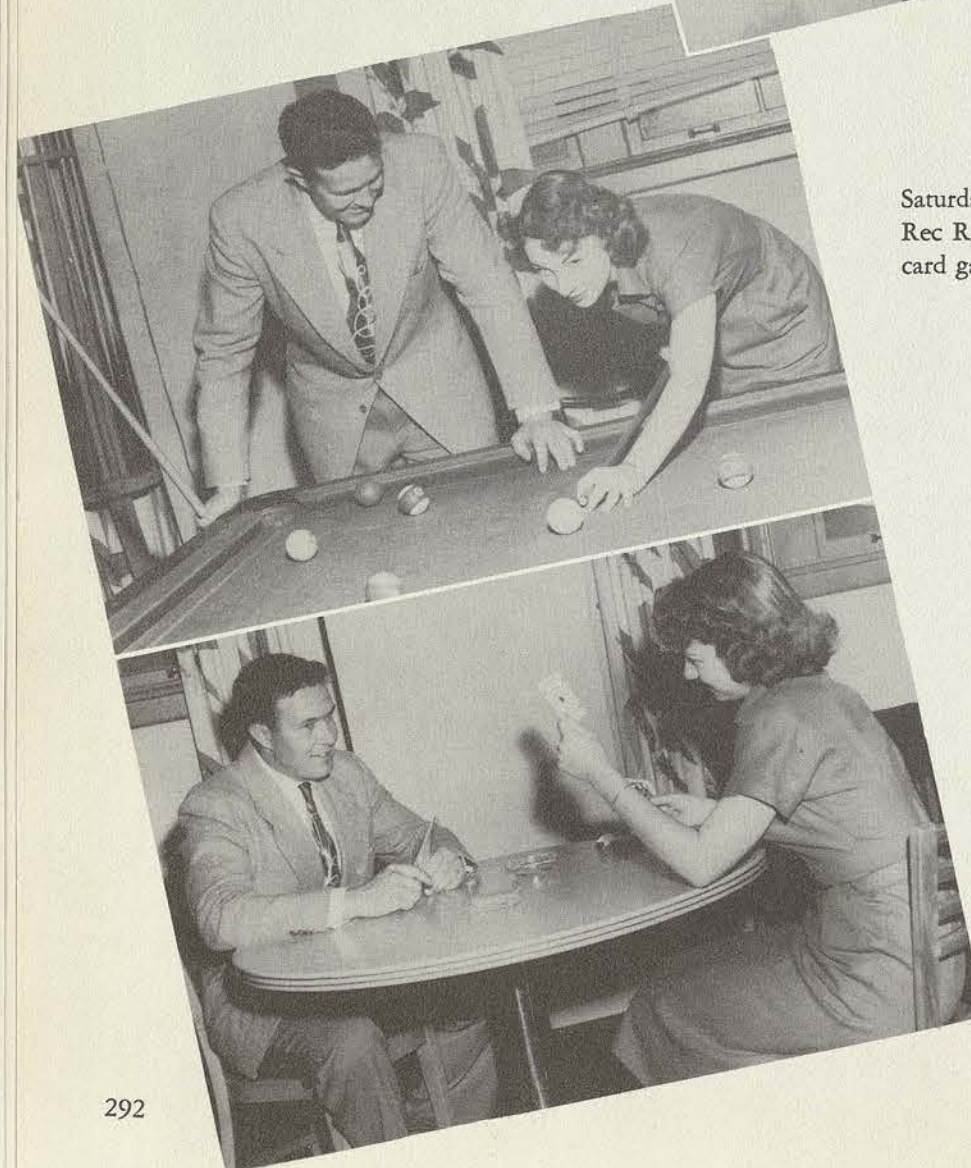

It's a Date for the Week-End

It all began when Corky Morehead used letters to plan her week-end date in advance with Sonny Pollard.

Saturday afternoon meant picnic time for Corky and Sonny in the backyard of a Denton friend. Besides food, they talked of the future and caught up on small talk missed during the week.

Saturday night found the couple at the Rec Room with lessons in pool, a fast card game and plenty of dancing.

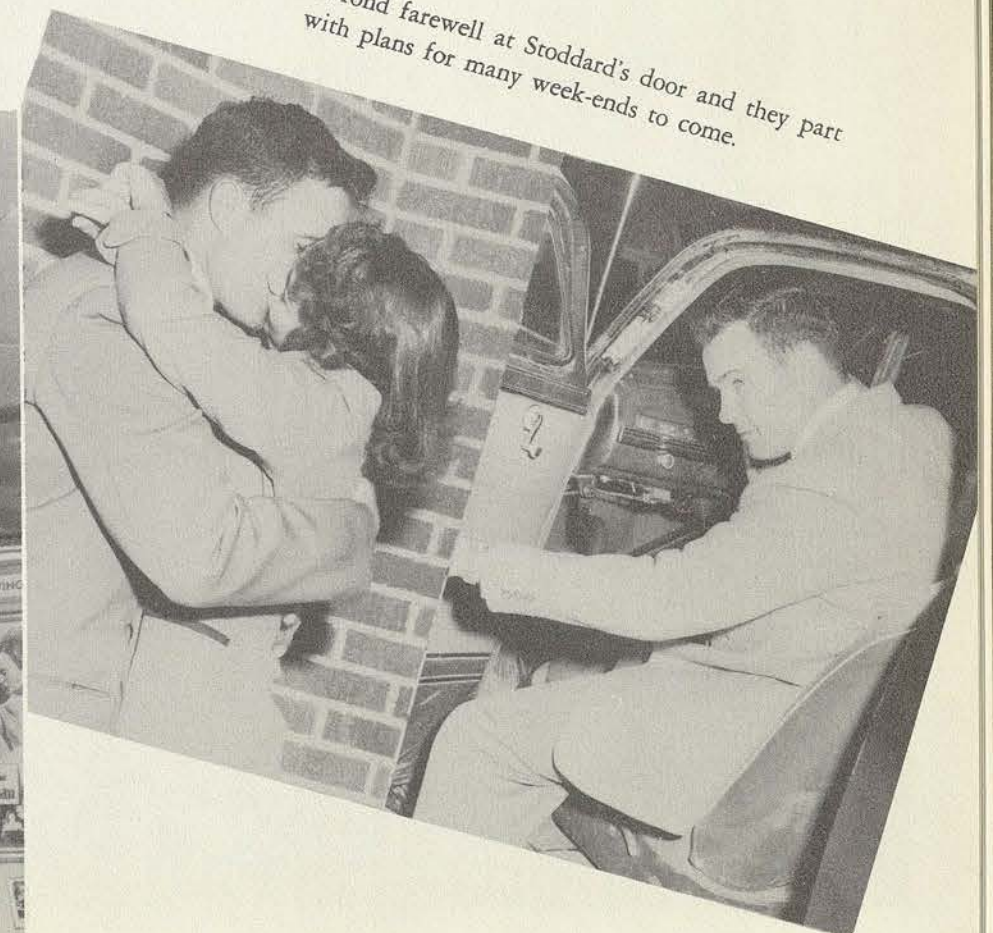

First on Sunday's calendar were the Little Chapel services, and after a walk through the gardens a stop at the Wishing Pond.

"Pandora and the Flying Dutchman" was the feature in town for Sonny and Corky that afternoon.

A fond farewell at Stoddard's door and they part with plans for many week-ends to come.

Johnnie Marie Jackson makes sure she will hear the alarm clock . . . bridge players Baby Jack, Cathy Edmundson, Maxine Vancourt and Margot Purdy continue the game to wee hours of the morning.

There Is Nothing Like a Dorm

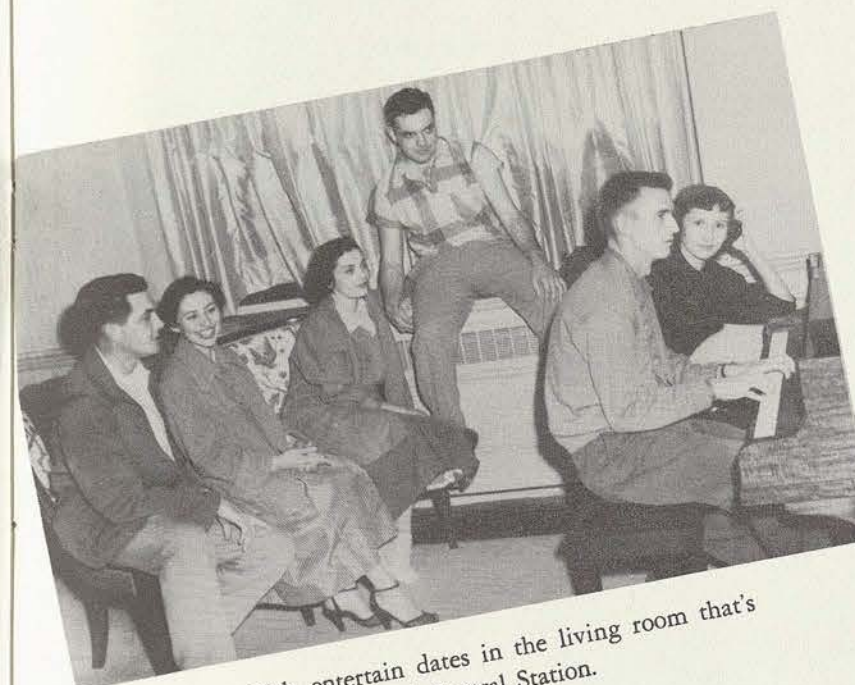

Ina Hubbard finally gets a call through on the dormitory's busy phone.

Typical of a Tess

Natalou Trott does her ironing . . . Dallie Green is caught in the shower . . . and Judy Whitson gets the urge to mop the floor.

.. Nothing in the World

Girls entertain dates in the living room that's always a Grand Central Station.

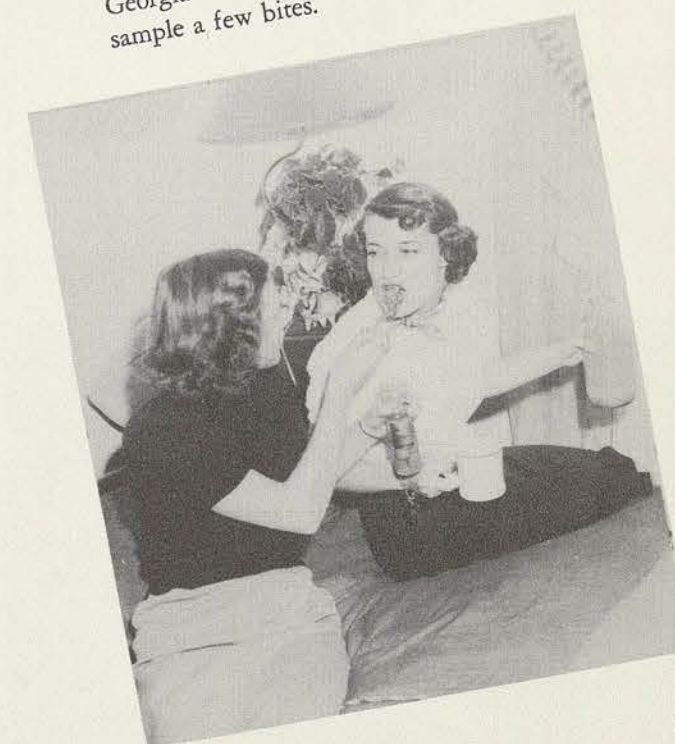

It's Snack Time for some! Johnnie Lois Neal and Lou Ann Chandler whip up a real dandy meal for a Sunday afternoon.

Signing out in the office as does Quincy Caraway is a current duty . . . while Jan Thompson does her writing in a letter to her special beau.

Georgia Oliver has Mary Beard sample a few bites.

It Got to be a Habit

... to hear the Seniors start "To TSCW" in assemblies ...

... to spend time at the new "Pub" by getting small snacks between meals ... to play a couple of hands of bridge ... to buy supplies from the book room ...

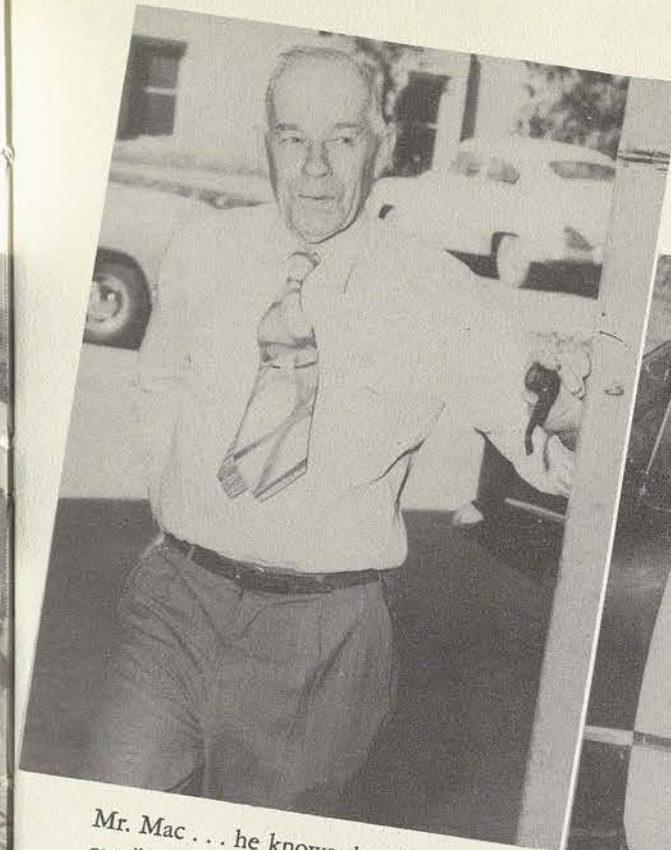

... to check the mail box several times a day and even wait while Mr. Weaver finished filling the boxes ...

... to make a quick dash to the Hub for a cup of coffee between classes and after ...

Familiar Faces to Us All

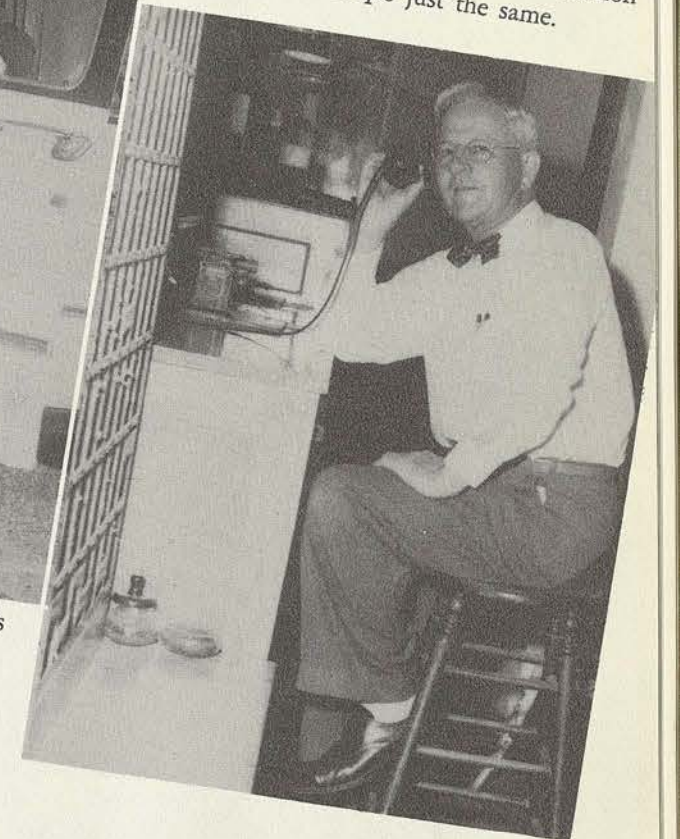

Mr. Mac ... he knows the "ins and outs" of the Main Auditorium.

"Pop" ... his car makes its daily rounds and often keeps us dry on rainy days.

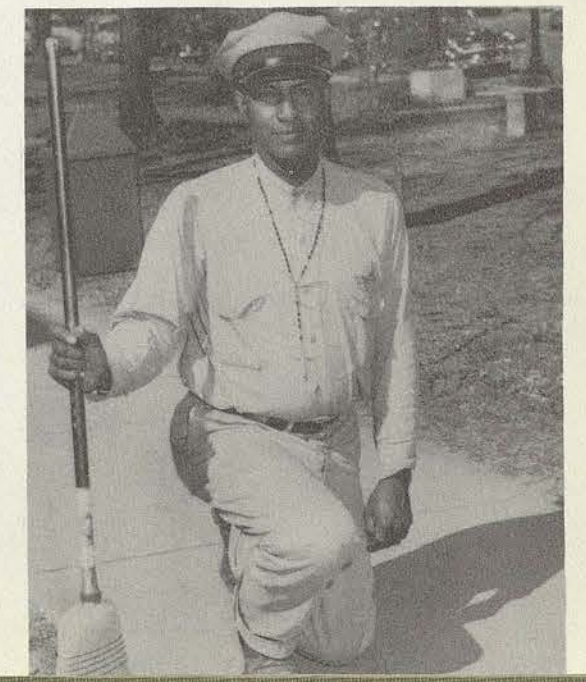

Mr. Weaver ... he's in a new location but his friendship's just the same.

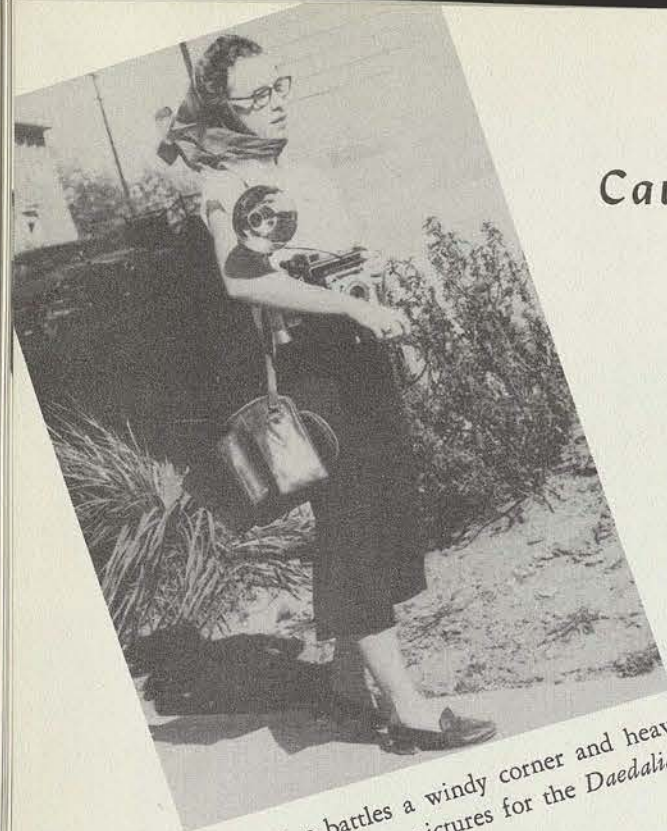

Carl and his friend "the Dutchman" carry on the Fort Worth-Dallas rivalry with Mr. Hurst to referee.

Walter ... how many miles of sidewalks has he swept?

Caught by a Flash!

Surprise! The camera snaps seniors Nancy Armistead, Sue Mims and Mary Loomis at the Stoddard Christmas party.

Doris James eyes one of the ever-famous cold pills from Hygeia.

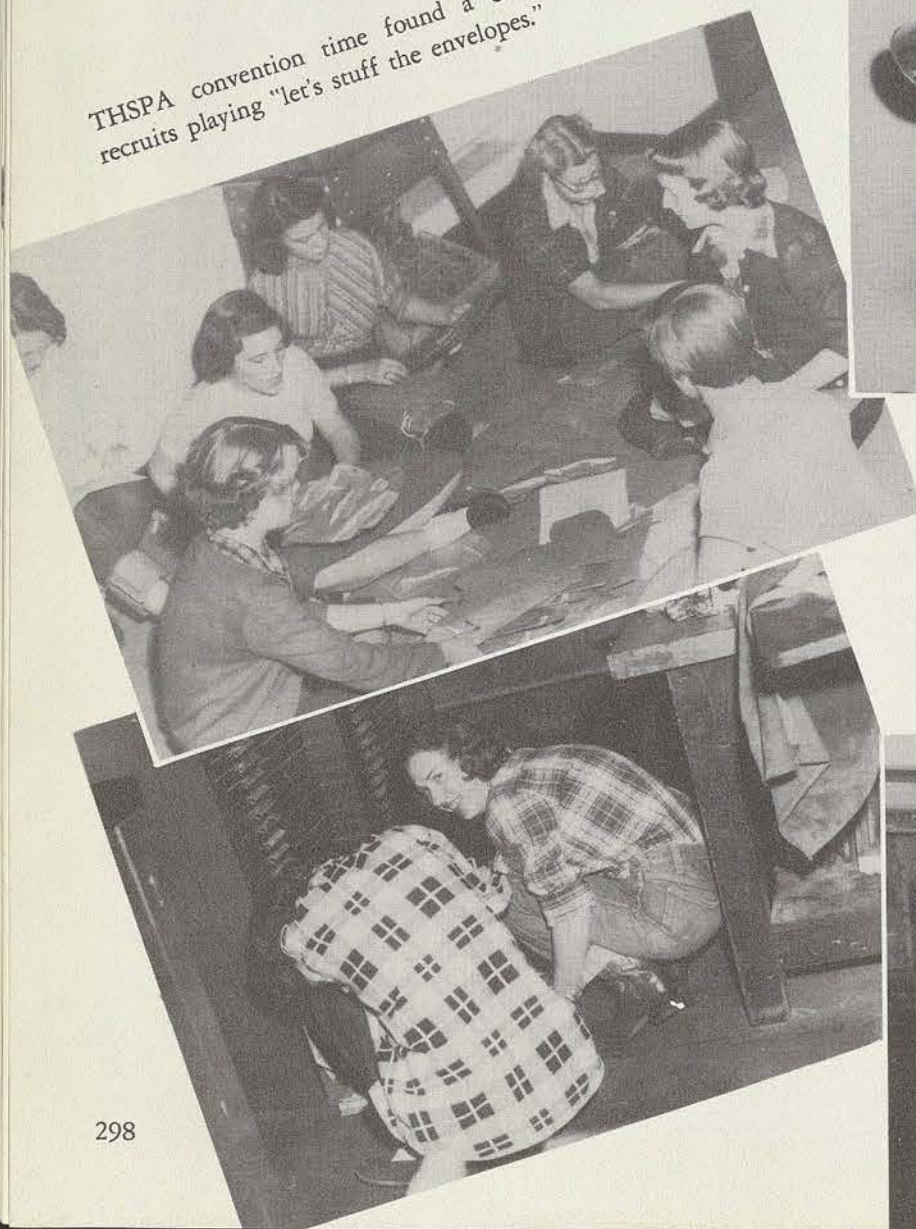

At left is really a surprise. Dr. Mac caught J-Majors Peggy Andrews and Georgia Oliver picking up pyed type. (Ed. note: Pat was in on this too but she ducked before the camera went off.

Aggies enjoy a game of ping-pong in the Rec Room.

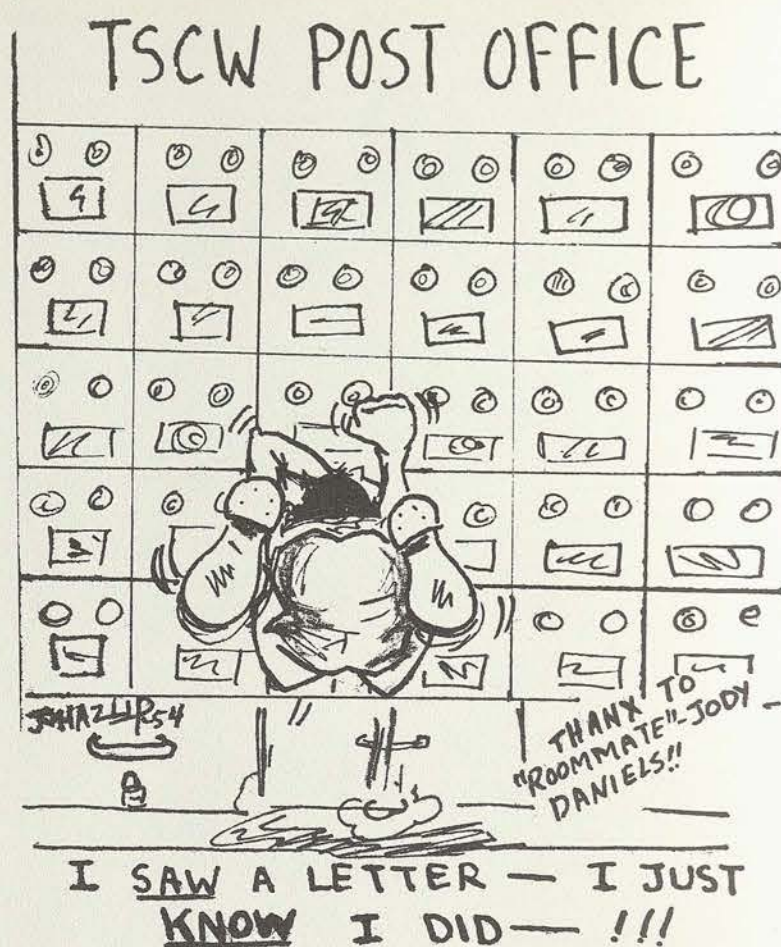

THSPA convention time found a circle of recruits playing "let's stuff the envelopes."

Shakespeare once said . . . "You Can't Take It With You"

Balcar now says . . . "You Can Have It"

Yep, it's all yours now—It's your '52 Daedalian. Our nights of seeing page dummies jump over the desk to the finished stack are just memories of the past now.

But what memories went into the making of the 320 page bulletin board! Hours spent here in the office . . . using the inter-com for "simple times" . . . Anne and Mary slinging hash for the beauty party . . . freezing when the heat was off but deadline pages weren't . . . kidnapping cars to make frantic dashes for the last bus to Dallas . . . typing a novel of copy on the little pink sheets . . . and somewhere in the stage our change from green editors of not knowing what to do to veteran editors doing "whatever's right."

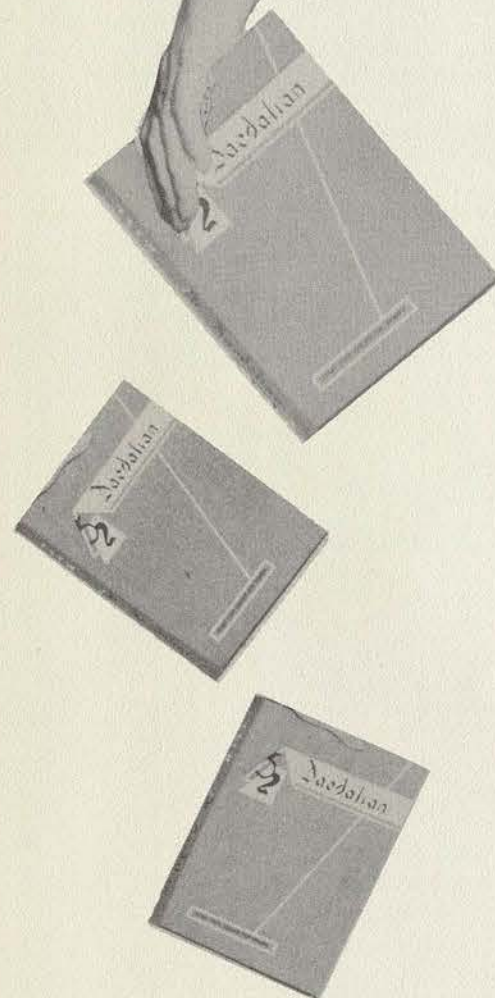

If you'll read between Mary's ads, Peggy's art work and my two-cents worth you'll see other people working on these pages. Dr. Mac taking picture after picture and adding his original McDonald comments to give us subjects for nights of conversation . . . Pat becoming a co-panic partner and chief board cleaner while camera and photo chemicals cooled off . . . the class editors matching names to faces and faces to dummy boards . . . section editors insuring us that our magnetic rubber cement would stick their fingers on typewriter keys until copy was written . . . Mr. Eisenlohr of Dorsey Company traveling to Denton to cure our problems . . . Mr. Sterling waiting a full hour while Peggy and I changed the destiny of the cover color a dozen times . . . and you the student body playing the "let's pose for a picture" game so many times.

All such as that went into the making of this '52 Daedalian. I really hate to say "so long" because we've loved every frantic minute of this book. It's been oodles of fun and like so many things at TSCW the work just developed more friendships that will last for always.

But all good things must end so we leave it, plus the three cans of rubber cement and the thumb tacks we consumed, to Marie Jackson, your '53 editor. May you enjoy the "panic times" as much as we have.

In behalf of the '52 staff.

THELMA BALCAR,
Alias "Bum", the Editor.

to thee . . .
