Scrip was introduced to the cafeteria patrons this year. Students had a choice of being on the usual contract plan in which all but Sunday was paid for. A majority of the students changed to or remained on the scrip plan second semester.

Yeah! Mail

1972 was a year of great importance for the "young people" between 18 and 21, as we were constantly reminded by earnest and helpful candidates for various offices. Evidence of growing political involvement was shown on campus through posters, buttons and stickers supporting and condemning political celebrities.

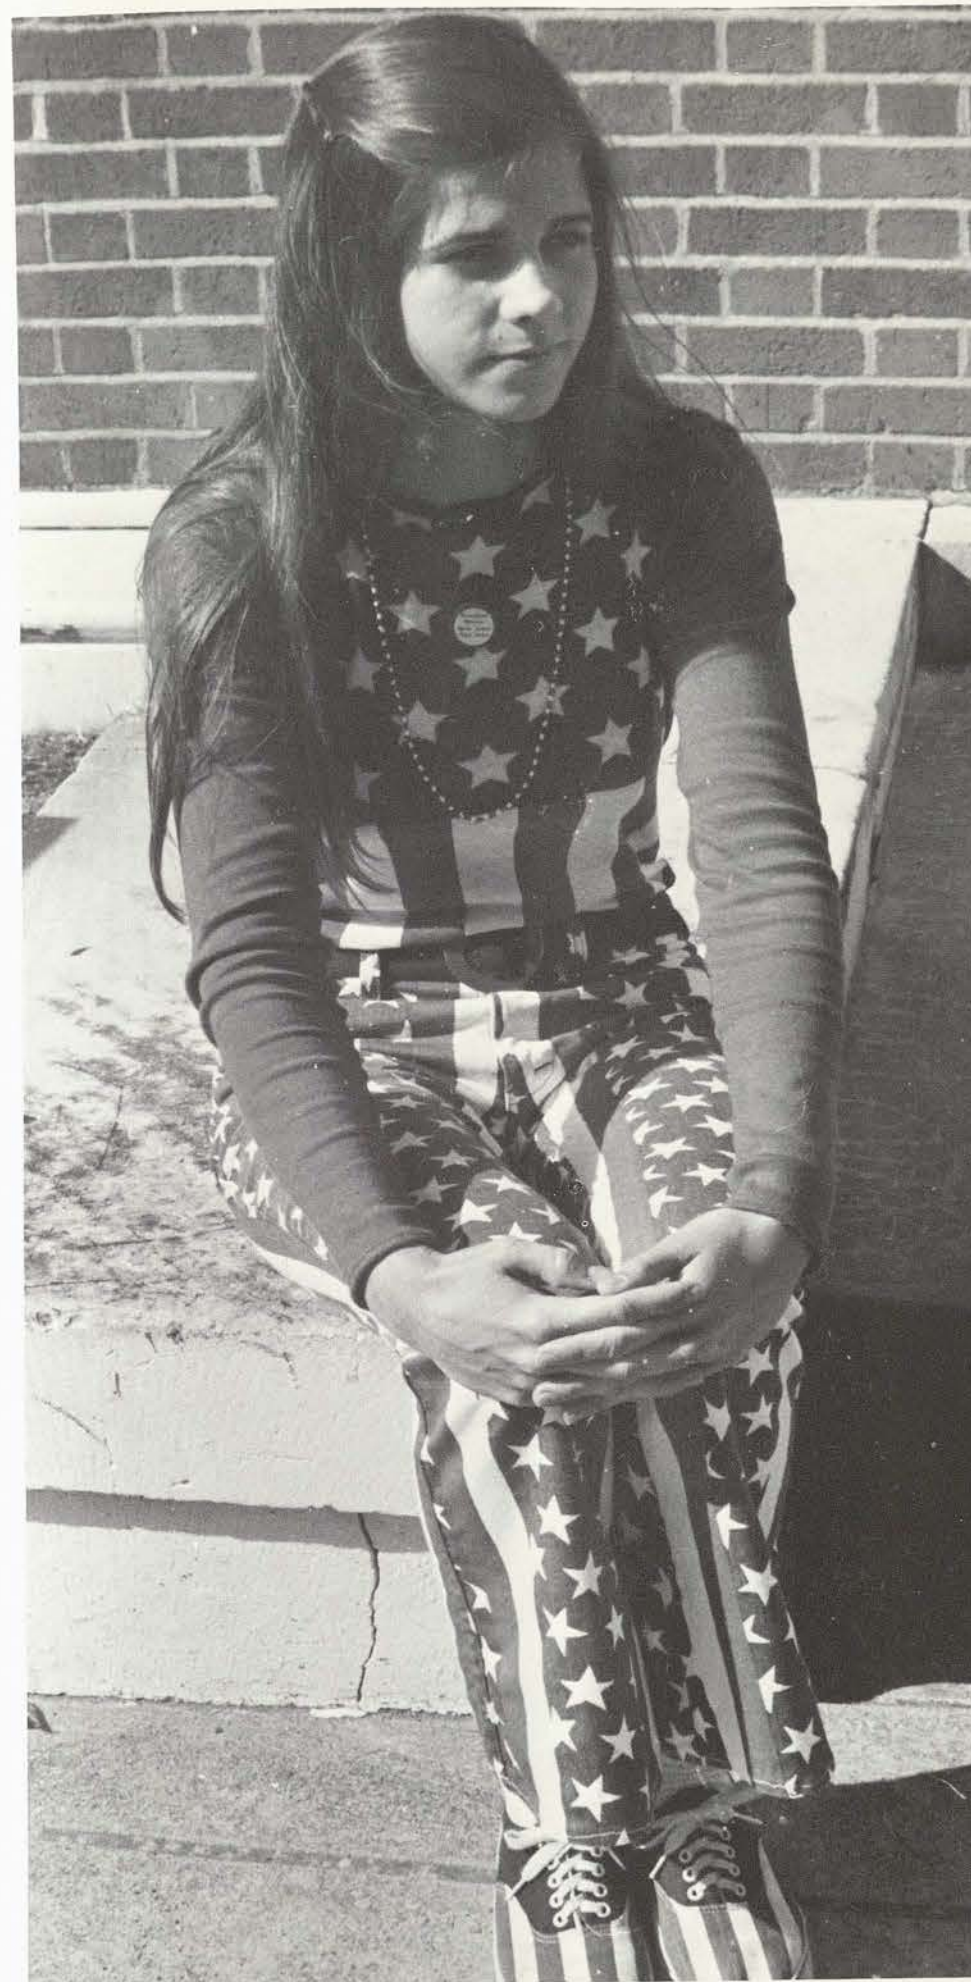

With the typical independence of the political novice, I refused to commit myself to the label of "Democrat" or "Republican." At registration I, as instructed, stated that I intended to settle in "Dynamic Denton" indefinitely so that I could vote at school. Party Affiliation? Independent.

As the magic day of November 7 approached, I found myself being courted by many candidates. Speakers came to my classes; political enthusiasts handed me cards and circulars as I walked to dinner. My mailbox now contained not only my customary "dear occupant" letters, but "dear Voter" letters as well.

Finally the "first Tuesday after the first Monday in November" arrived. I walked to the Courthouse that afternoon, my voter registration card safely in my coat pocket. Standing in the long line of voters, I felt that the "fate of the Nation" rested on which side of the candidate listing I placed my X's. My disappointment at finding the art of voting to be so mundane was unbounded; there were no fireworks, no bells, nothing.

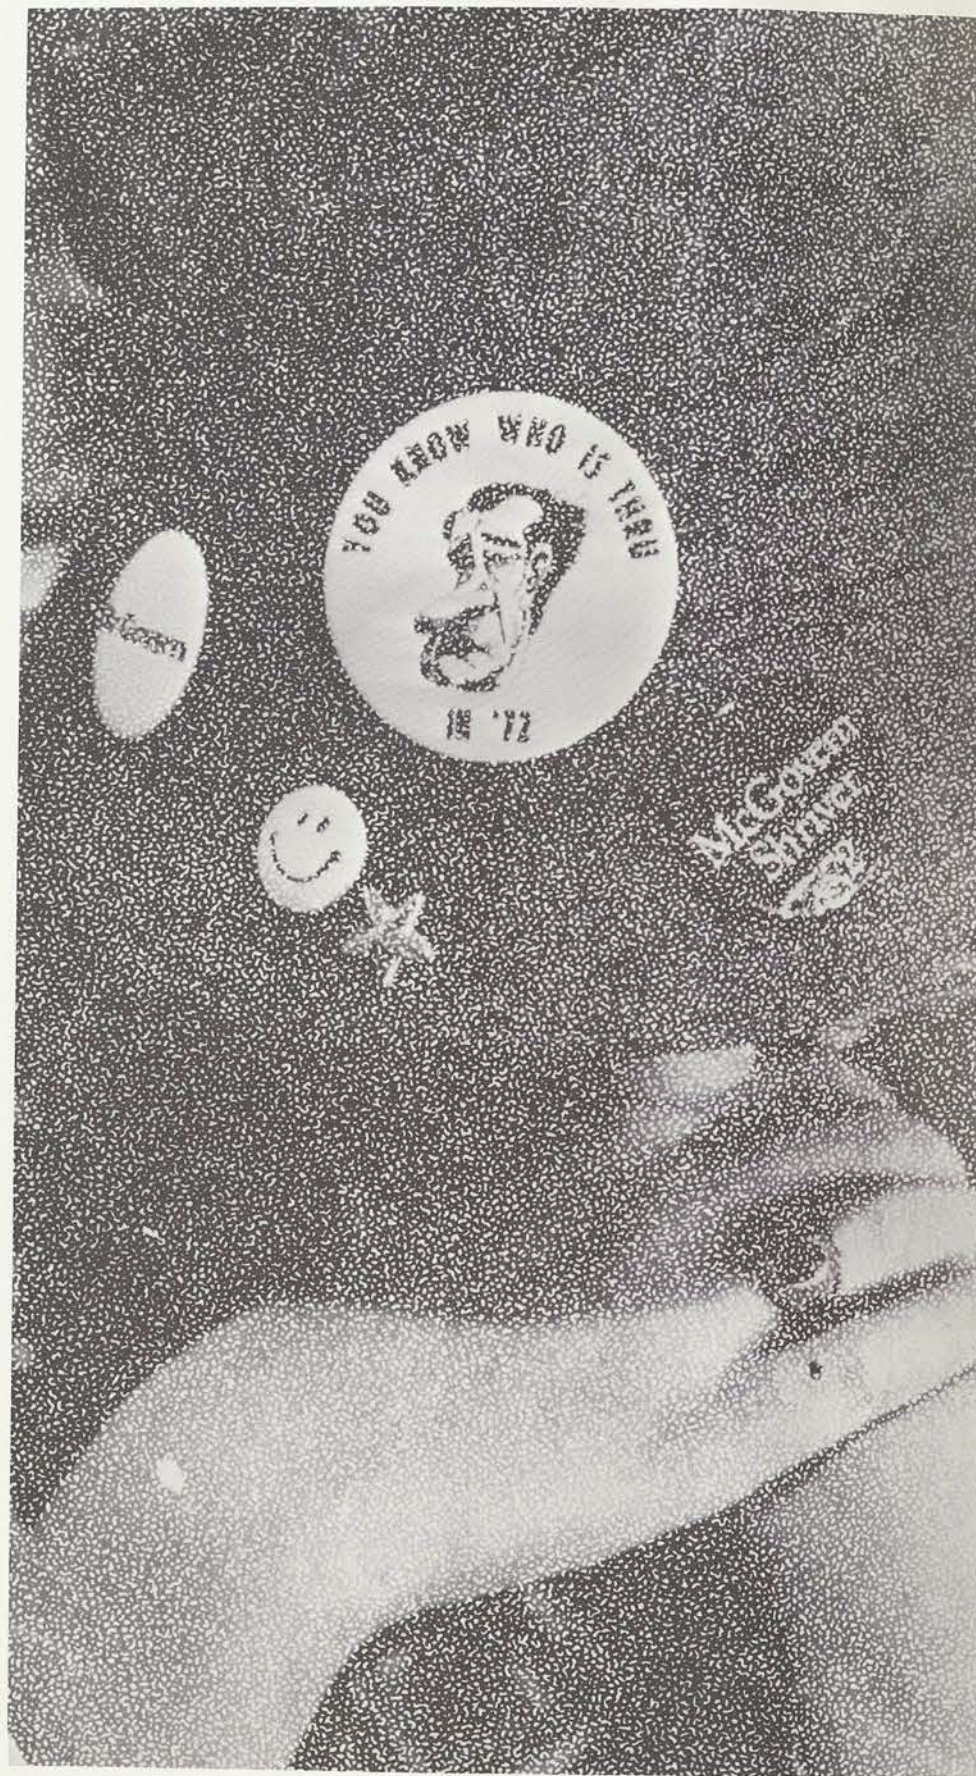

On leaving the Courthouse I reflected that I had just performed one of the greatest privileges and duties of a citizen, yet I was no different and somehow I felt the country was unchanged and unconcerned by my vote.

I turned around and headed back to the dorm.

A Woman's Feeling . . .

How does a woman feel so deep?
Why does she hurt with the emotions that cannot be divided from her very soul? Must she always experience such joys, pains, happinesses, sorrows, loves, and frustrations?

Can it be because she is Woman?

... The Quiet
Laughter . . .

... The Personal Introspection

. . . The Inward Pain . . .

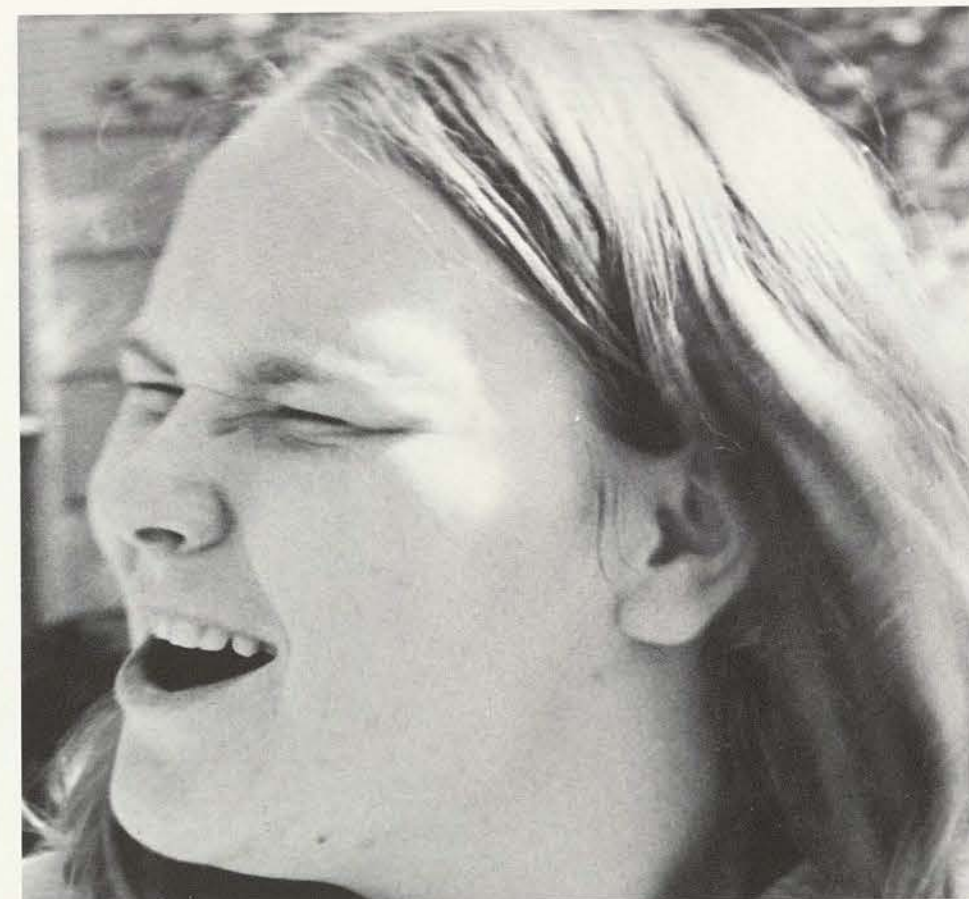

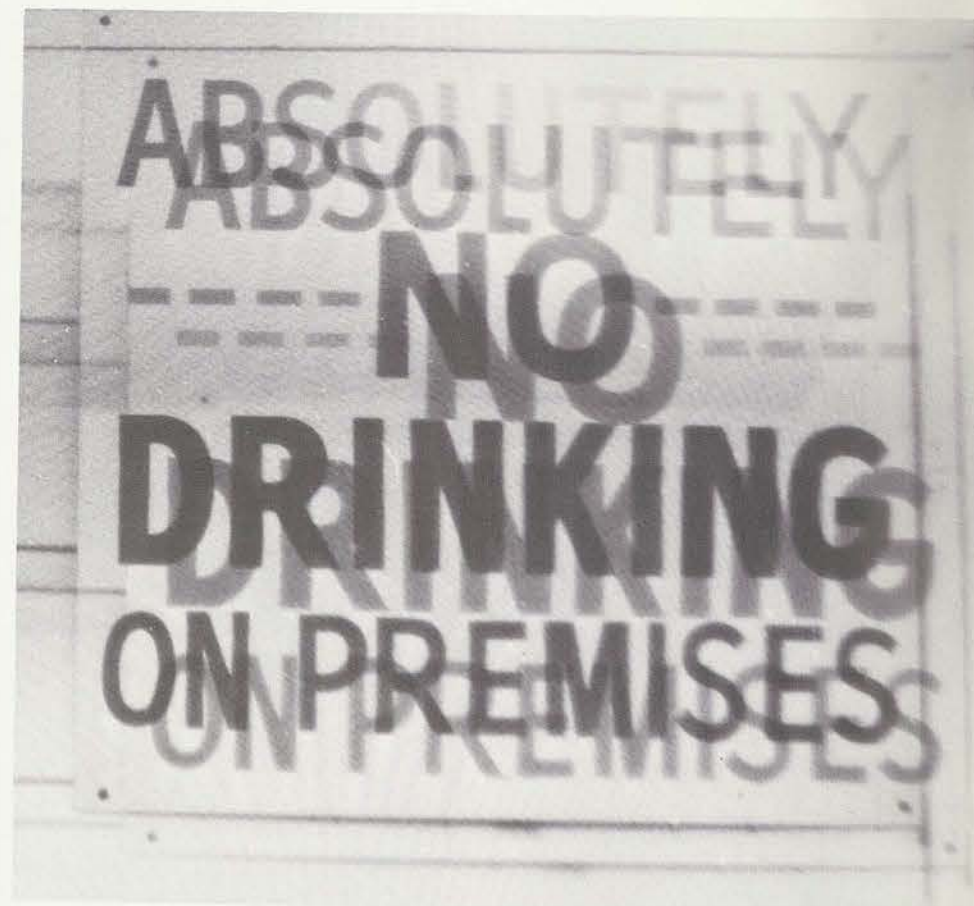

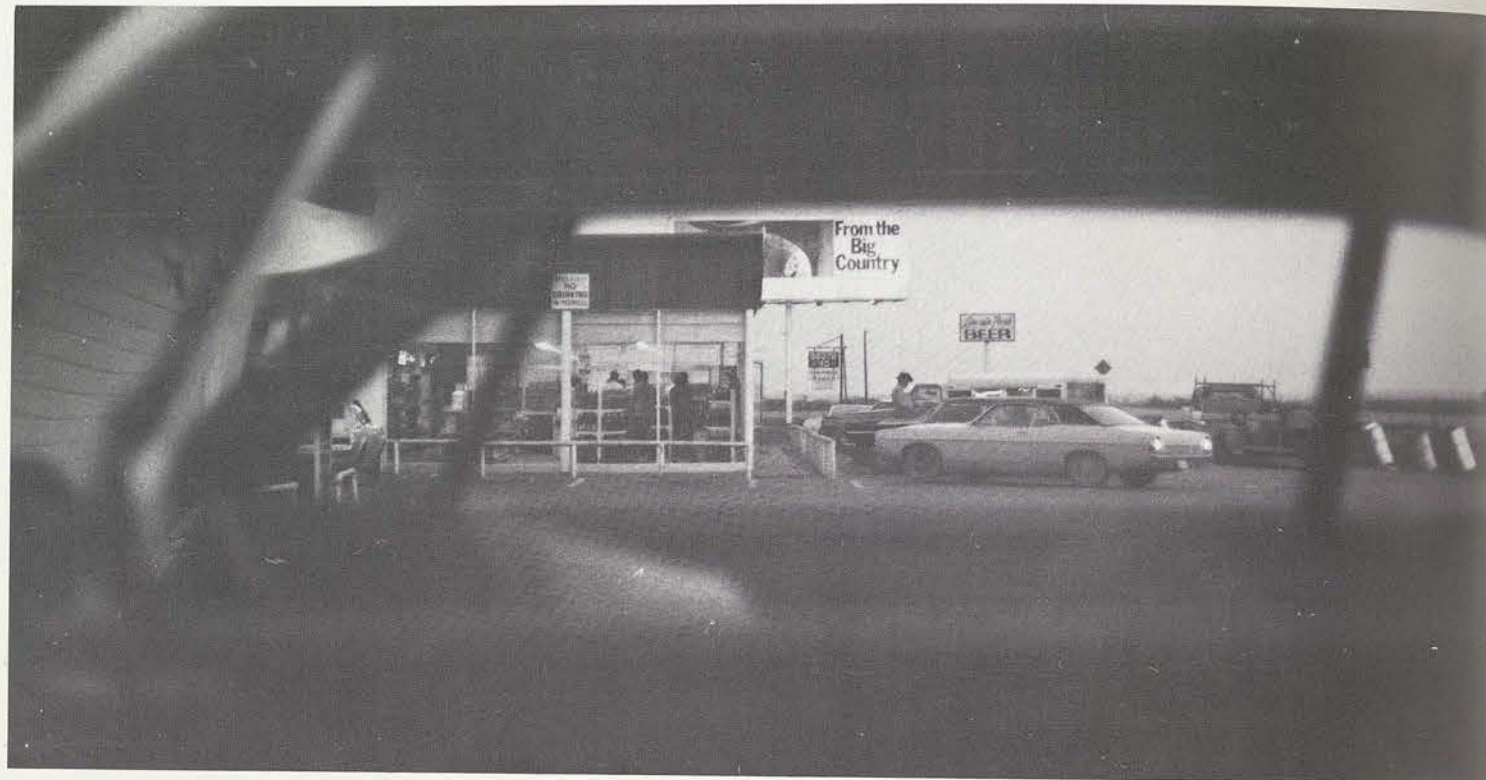

She experiences all and releases it. And after having opened her heart to the world, she stores the memories of emotion inside until they are called again.

. . . Woman.

C & D Series

Democrat. Politician.
President. These were titles shared by the little man from Missouri and the big man from Texas. . .
"Down to earth." "Country."
Whatever the label, both displayed a home-like quality that extended into their presidential roles.
Each man inherited the nation's highest office
unexpectedly; with the position came obligations:
World War II; Vietnam.
Linked by common experience in life, it is perhaps fitting that Harry S. Truman and Lyndon Baines Johnson should die within a few weeks of each other.

Time will determine their impact upon the world in which they lived.

To them: Commemoration.

CHIEN TRANH VIET-NAM

Saturday, January 27, 1973 — the War is officially over. Hooray.

No ticker-tape parades, no loud celebrations, nothing to show that any event took place at all except for news specials on TV.

The End of The War. It meant getting out of an area of the world many felt we had no right to enter. It meant POW's coming home at last — many after six, seven, even eight years of captivity. It meant, to some, the copping out on old allies and old promises. And to others, it meant just relief.

Peace. It's a nice word with a rich, mellow sound to it — like rolling r's off your tongue. But to a wary public, it also resembles the brass ring on a merry-go-round — you see it, sometimes even touch it with your fingertips, but it's always just out of reach. Peace. "Oh, really?" you say. Yes — till the next war or crisis breaks out.

January 1973. Vietnam became past history as far as most Americans were concerned. The dominant attitude, however, was not one of joy, but one of weary cynicism, a desire to believe in the "just and lasting peace" — like a twelve-year-old still trying to believe in Santa Claus.

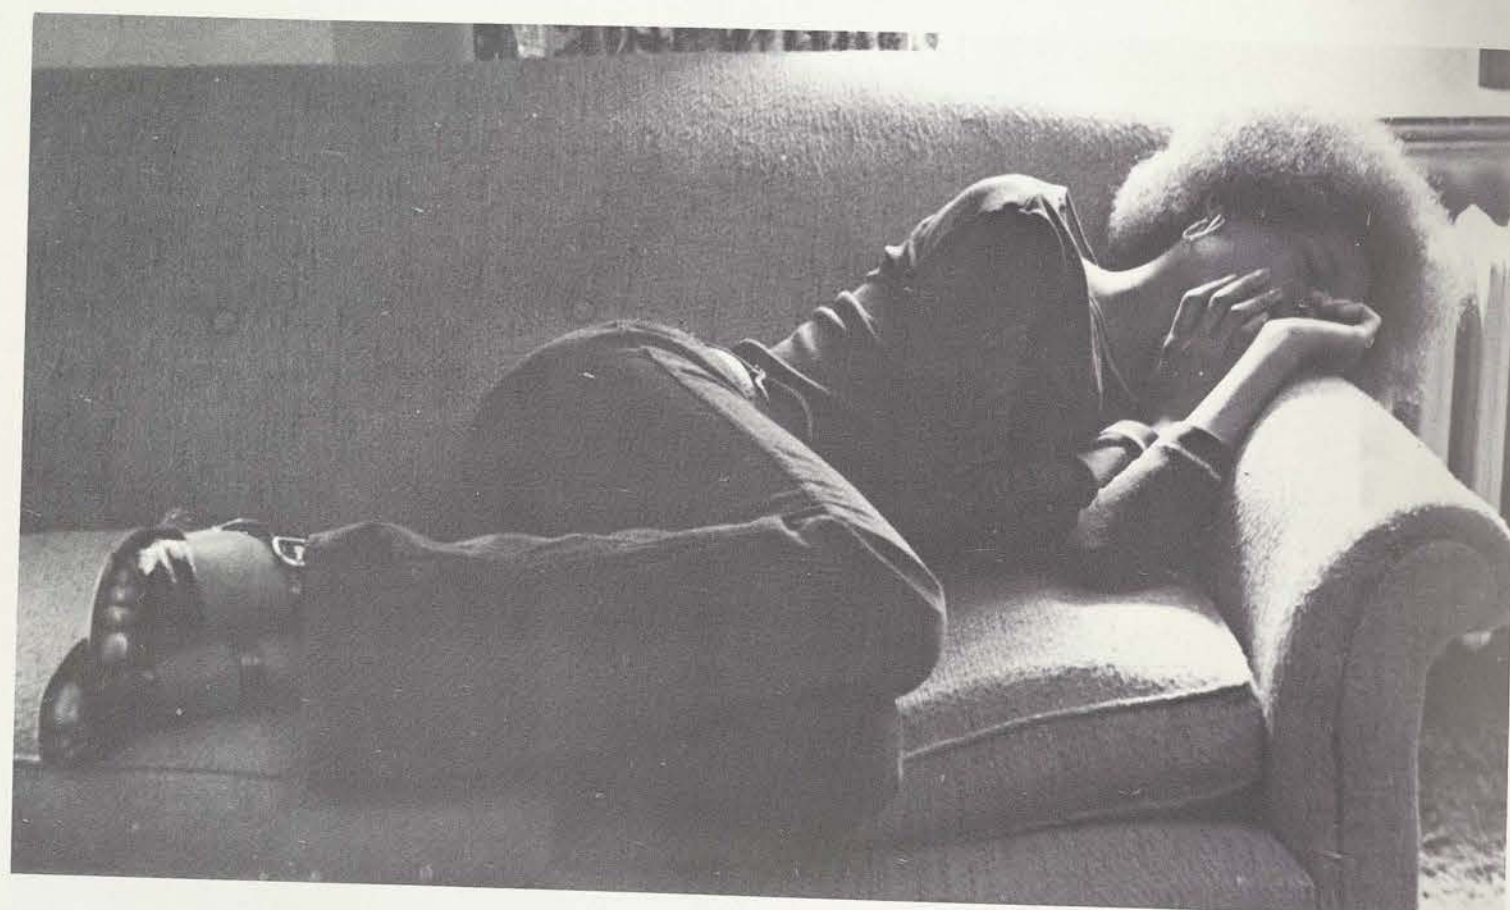

"They have not wanted peace at all;
They have wanted to be spared war —
as though the absence of war
was the same as peace."

International Food Fair

Students from many lands and cultures found much in common, as they planned, prepared, and served an "International Food Fair" for a fund-raising project.

Entertainment, native costuming, and the wide variety of dishes added a touch of spice to the many campus and area visitors who came to the food fair.

THSPA

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the Founding of the Texas High School Press Association was celebrated in December, when 1200 high school journalists joined in honoring those "Trailblazers" who have spent years in promoting good journalism. THSPA director, Mrs. Lillian Hefner, welcomed and presented medallions to the honorees, including retired Chairman of the TWU Department of Journalism Frank C. Rigler and TWU president John A. Guinn. Other honorees were Dr. Guion Griffis Johnson, founder of THSPA in 1923 at Mary Hardin-Baylor College; Dr. DeWitt C. Reddick; Mrs. Edith Fox King; Col. Joseph Murphy; Prof. Les Benz; Prof. Paul Swenson; Taylor Publishing Company; and the two "homes" of THSPA — Mary Hardin-Baylor College and Texas Woman's University. Many outstanding lecturers conducted workshops for the student journalists, who also enjoyed "browsing" in the THSPA library.

Mortar Board

Delphi went "national" when 33 Delphi members and alumni were initiated into the Mortar Board chapter in a ceremony held at the Little Chapel. Delphi is an organization for seniors, with a grade point average above 2.0, who demonstrate qualities of "leadership, scholarship and service."

Installation officers included Mrs. Shauna Adix, national Mortar Board president; Mrs. Connie Wallace, section coordinator; and Mrs. Katherine Evans, director of elections. TWU became the 166th chapter of this woman's national honor society.

Who were they, those sideburned, hairy-legged, biceped Tessies? Why, they're the symbols of TWU's policy of a new element of the University. If female Tessies had envisioned a horde of men breaking down the gates of TWU to get enrolled, they soon thought again. Sexual desegregation consisted of 12 males who were best known for their invisibility among 6,000 women. The scope of TWU's future (and thinking) is being re-focused, however, as more men are expected to enroll next fall — amid rumors of dorms being rejuvenated for male habitation.

Men?

The Choraliers finished their exams a month early and headed south, straight for the Caribbean. They did a month tour, performing at military bases and sight-seeing before returning to the United States and TWU.

Bon Voyage

Capping

Waiting for "capping" had been worth it, after all. And when the caps were all in place, a bit of fun and relaxation was in order.

From Water Into Water

Dean Duggan Appreciation Day

After 37 years of service at TWU, Dr. Anne Schley Duggan, Dean of the College of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, has retired. An "Appreciation Day" was held in her honor in April, with dance groups and sports demonstration teams from all over Texas coming to share in the festivities.

Tributes and gifts ranging from a portrait to scrapbooks were presented to her, each recognizing a facet of her eminence as a dancer and a teacher of dance, as well as her leadership in the HPER programs of TWU.

Among those applauding her were TWU president John A. Guinn and many of the faculty of the HPER College.

Dean Duggan took her undergraduate degree, in English and Literature, from Mary Hardin-Baylor College. Her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in HPER were awarded by Columbia University in New York City. The author of many articles about her chosen field, Dean Duggan has also written 12 books during her TWU years.

DEPARTMENTS

Dr. Ethelyn Davis — Acting Dean

College of Arts and Sciences

The purpose of the College of Arts and Sciences is designed to provide opportunities for qualified persons to acquire the fundamentals of a liberal education; to concentrate in the several fields of the humanities, the natural sciences, the social sciences and in education; and to obtain broad and sound study preparation for further study at the graduate level and in specific professional fields.

Department of Biology

Faculty — Biology

Mohamed M. Aboul-la — Associate Professor
 Janet L. Aune — Associate Professor
 Alan W. Cockerline — Associate Professor
 Howard E. Erdman — Associate Professor
 Kenneth A. Fry — Professor and Chairman
 Robert Fuerst — Professor
 Raymond A. Gerdes — Assistant Professor
 John F. Hines — Assistant Professor
 Eugene W. Hupp — Professor
 Karen Kaiser — Lab Coordinator
 Helen M. Oujesky — Assistant Professor

Dr. Kenneth A. Fry is chairman of the Biology Department. Under the sponsorship of the National Science Foundation, the department has offered a number of programs which enhance the study of biology.

Department of Business and Economics

The curriculum of this department is designed to provide an opportunity for the understanding of basic institutional structure and behavior patterns of the modern industrial society.

Faculty — Business and Economics

Dr. Mona S. Hersh — Assistant Professor
 Mrs. Mabelle M. Kalmbach — Instructor
 J. Murray Kendrick — Associate Professor
 Dr. T. L. Morrison — Professor and Chairman
 Mrs. Glenda B. Simmons — Instructor
 Dr. Virginia B. Sloan — Professor
 Dr. Eldred C. Speck — Associate Professor

Graduate Assistants

Miss Pamela Fore
 Miss Carolyn Wiley

Department of Chemistry

Faculty — Chemistry

Lyman R. Caswell — Professor
 Norman J. Goster — Associate Professor

Department of English

A primary function of the English Department is to provide education to all students for the first required courses. Its programs do, however, reach out past the basic bachelor and master degree levels to include the doctorate, preparing students for careers as professional writers, instructors in the language, and related fields.

Department of Foreign Languages

Dr. A. Wallace Woolsey serves as Chairman of the department. Course offerings include French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish, as well as studies in Latin and Greek roots. For the benefit of foreign students, a course in English is also a part of the curriculum.

Faculty — Foreign Languages

Mr. William F. Bishopp — Assistant Professor
Miss Maurine Faulkner — Associate Professor

An election year added spice to history and government classes. Political speakers, sponsored by the department, brought the subject alive for the first 18-year-old voters eligible to choose their local, state, and national leaders this year. Faculty members encouraged more political awareness by sponsoring party groups such as the Young Democrats and the Young Republicans.

College of Education

Individual attention is stressed in the College of Education. The goal of the College is not only to select qualified persons to become teachers, but also to equip these individuals with the proper attitudes, abilities, and personalities needed by teachers in all Texas schools. The College moved from the old Education Building into the new Multipurpose Classroom-Laboratory Building during the school year.

Department of Counselor Education and Personnel Services

Operating strictly on the master's degree level, this Department pursues graduate programs in counseling, supervision, visiting teaching, and certification teaching. TWU is the only institution in the state with such a program approved by the Texas Education Agency.

College of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation

Known affectionately as the "HPER Department," the College offers more than 25 areas of activity and training. Each student enrolled at TWU must take four consecutive semesters of physical education, but the larger emphasis of HPER is on training teachers and specialists in the many facets of health and recreation, as well as skills in physical dexterity and enjoyment.

The College of Household Arts and Sciences has a two-fold purpose: foster and guide the growth and development of young women in areas of personal and family living, and equip them for careers in one or more of the several fields which are emphasized here.

The College of Nursing, directed by Acting Dean Opal White, has set as its goal the education of nurses who will not only be capable of complete and competent bedside care, but will also have the background and personal qualities necessary for leading other nurses and health workers, for making wise decisions, and for initiating change in health care and the nursing profession.

Student nurses at the Dallas Center benefit from courses taught in the Dallas County Hospital District. Most of their practical training is done at the Parkland Memorial Hospital, accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, and by the Council of Medical Education of the American Medical Association.

Dallas Center

Miss Eleanor K. Barns — Instructor
Miss Lee Ann Rowe — Instructor
Miss Florence Stattel — Associate Professor

One of the least-publicized departments in this University, the School of Occupational Therapy deals with the science and art of employing activities for hospital rehabilitation programs. The occupational therapist, according to the catalog, "works with her hands as well as her mind" in this medical service profession.

School of Physical Therapy

Utilizing both the Denton and Houston campuses, the School of Physical Therapy gives its students the basic knowledge and skills needed to become a practicing physical therapist. The program is designed for the high school graduate beginning her education in PT.

Faculty — Physical Therapy

Miss Elizabeth A. Hall — Instructor, Houston
Mrs. Dorn W. Long — Instructor, Denton
Fred S. Shepard — Instructor, Houston
Dr. Laura K. Smith — Associate Professor and Director, Houston

Dr. Joseph E. Unsworth — Director

School of Health Care Services

The School of Health Care Services has two upper-level baccalaureate programs presently operating and two more in the planning stages.

Although it has been in existence for some time, the school is relatively unknown. With the development of its newer programs, however, the school's role in the University will increase in scope.

A master's degree in Health Care Administration is offered, as well as in Health Sciences Instruction. The first prepares administrators in the field while the second prepares students for college and university teaching positions. Located in the new Multipurpose Classroom-Laboratory Building, the teaching facilities are among the most modern to be found, designed especially for the programs.

Department of Dental Hygiene

Faculty — Dental Hygiene

Mrs. Nancy Daggett — Instructor
 Mrs. Jennifer Housley — Instructor
 Dr. Warren Jespersen — Professor
 Mrs. Karen Johnston — Instructor
 Dr. Harry McCarthy — Professor
 Dr. Ruth Sims — Professor
 Ms. Mary Thorne — Instructor
 Dr. Joseph Unsworth — Professor and Chairman

Whiter, brighter smiles have become more evident as TWU students volunteered to have work on their teeth done by the Dental Hygiene trainees. Brightening, too, was the Department's newly received accreditation.

Research Institute

This year the Research Institute received a $116,000 grant from the U. S. Department of Agriculture for a cottonseed food project. Directed by Dr. Pauline Beery Mack, the program dealt with vegetable proteins and their potential use as a substitute for animal protein, fed in the school lunches of children who would not eat enough animal protein in their homes, thus raising the nutritional values of the foods they eat.

Also, the Research Institute is one of the most widely recognized "in use" textile and nutrition laboratories in the nation. The research work in textiles is made possible because of interest in the unique facilities at this University. Faculty members, working men, and some graduate students are available for wearing of garments on a strictly "controlled wear" basis. Dorms serve as labs to test carpets, bedding, and certain types of floor coverings. In addition, there are extensive textile testing devices in the labs, to measure wear, strength, and other qualities.

The Library is one of the first facilities a student learns to use upon her arrival at TWU. Its intricate system of shelving makes reading and research easily accessible to the researcher, the casual reader, or the student seeking further information.

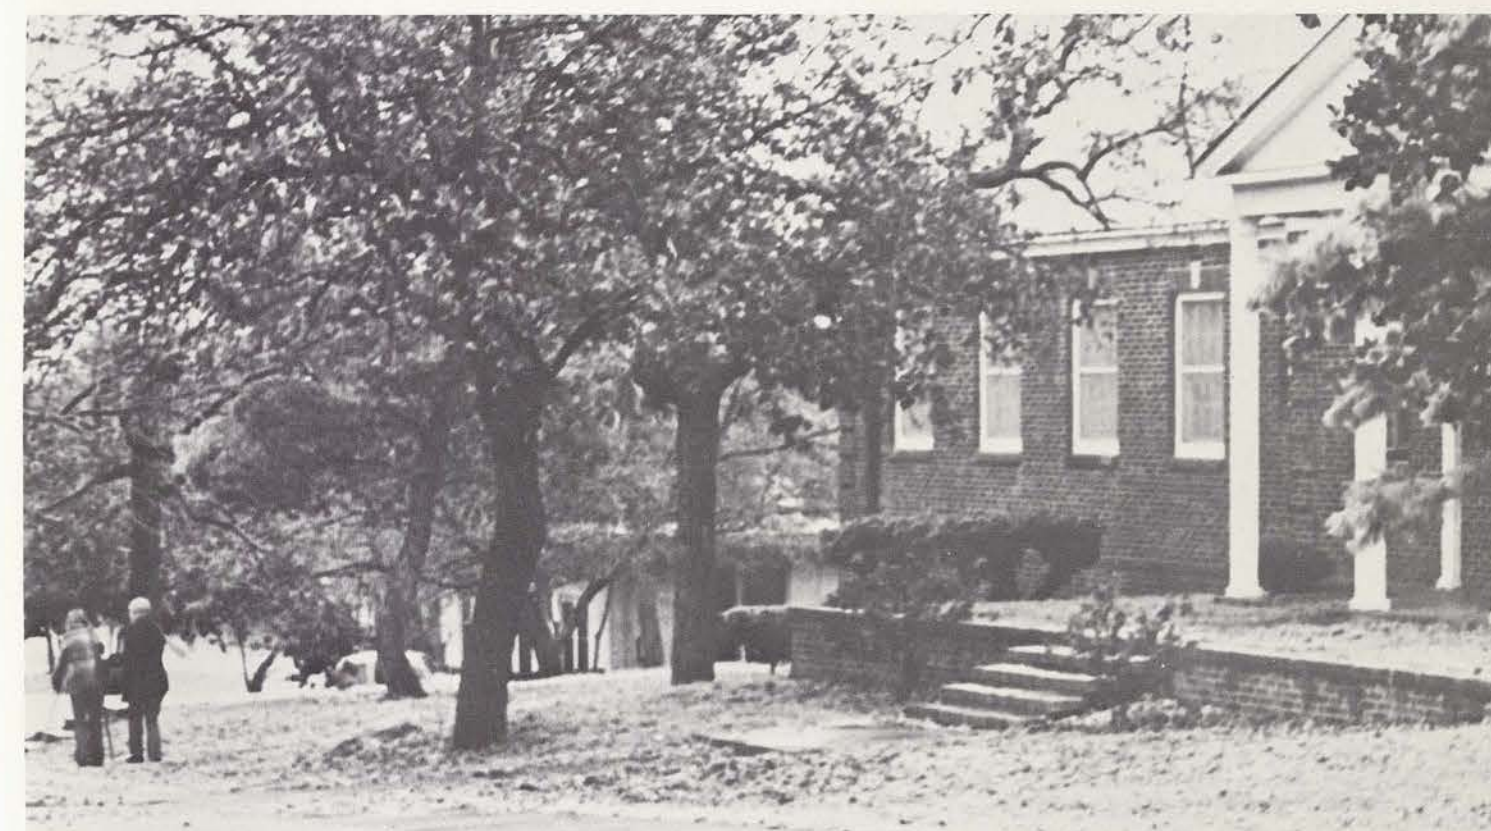

Hygeia

Offering infirmity services to the University, Hygeia is the only facility of its kind on campus, functioning to assist each student in maintaining good health during her academic years at TWU. Denton physicians are available to diagnose and treat all illnesses, should they develop.

Orientation

足向

পরিচিতি

SUB, AS, CFO, beanies, '76, fish. It's all a part of the language thrown at incoming students to TWU. So this is Denton, and this is TWU. The picnics, the tours, the receptions together make up orientation to the institution.

81. Direct

Registration

Dhi Jen Hoc
l'enregistrement

You hear experienced students wryly laugh about it and you wonder what the inside joke is. Registration. Lines. ID's food plans, lines, classes, lines and more lines and, of course, fees. Now the wry laughter is yours.

University Review

Revista universitaria

You learn about Stunts, Redbud, rules, Gold Rush, finding dates and, of course, cutting your cake. It's a kaleidoscope of learning which introduces new students to the real TWU.

Traditions Assembly

Überlieferung

Versammlung

Ah, this is where the real nitty gritty TWU history comes in. The mystery of fish and copters is solved for freshmen by naturally biased upperclassmen singing all the class songs they know. Spirits run high, as does rivalry, when big sisters expose their little sisters to the joys of being a '76 fish.

Gold Rush

Gold An-drang

淘金漳月

Not quite Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey but it's TWU's substitute. Students join together to make Gold Rush, the annual carnival, a resounding success. Games, prizes, displays and children all make up the variegated patterns of carnival time at TWU.

Corn Huskin'

L'éplucher
 मसूर पारिष्कार

A look at the "good ole days" in Texas, that's Corn Huskin'. TWU "hillbillies" take part in old-fashioned contests — log-sawing, egg-tossing, and, of course, corn husking. A touch of nostalgia, perhaps, for older faculty members; a new experience for many other faculty members, students, and townspeople.

Pledge Week

la semaine du gage

semana de sociedades de amistad

Pledging. Not quite like joining a sorority since TWU sports no such organizations. Often referred to as LS clubs, literary social clubs accept new members after a grueling week of resigned pillow-carrying and cries of club recognition across campus.

Perhaps the most satisfactory moment of Stunts is not the presentations themselves but the return of old Tessies of various fish and copter classes. These Tessies are the greatest actresses; their still bubbling spirit and enthusiasm glow with the devotion they continue to feel for the University. For many of these audience-actresses, '73 Stunts were a reliving of their own class productions. The phrase is borrowed but true, for there truly are "no people like Stunts people," past and present . . .

'73 Stunts, perhaps coincidentally, focus on the theme of love, for each of the extravaganzas involved one couple bitten by Cupid's deadly sting. Though the '76 Stunt dealt with breaking tradition, TWU's traditions reigned supreme as Dr. Guinn presented the Stunts Cup to an estatic senior class, breaking the long line of underclass and fish winners.

286/The Year

Stunts

矢豆 罰

les nouvelles sensationnelles

Freshmen

Fuchs
Le novice

"Anything goes" tells the whole story of the '76 stunt. The "sweet young thing" is Chinese; the guy's the all-American boy. Chinese traditions go out the window much to the dismay of the girl's grandfather, Rice a roni. Confucius, however, helps him come around to the new way of life in the U.S. The grand finale — a Chinese festival to prove all traditions don't die.

Sophomores

Segundo año

la seconde année

All is gray and drab in the town of Aurora as the town children decide to rediscover color by finding old Hue Brightly. Rebellious and determined youth attempt to "show the light" to their more conservative parents who see everything in terms of black and white. The "brightly hued" finale where Hue agrees to "make like a tree" and leave the forest to return to Aurora, rivals the feathers of the NBC peacock.

Juniors

Dercero año der Unterstufe

There's green in Arabia as a leprechaun finds himself in King Babalou's palace, surrounded by famine. Sean's promise to feed the peasants can't be fulfilled till he finds his pot of gold. No food at dawn means no head for Sean, the prince or his servant-girl love. But Sean comes through, the famine ends, and who can say it better than the Grand Vizier, "If you can't beat it, eat it."

Seniors

Bursch

L'aîné

WINNER

Boiling pots, flashing lights, and brilliant setting formed the backdrop for the '73 Stunt. The problem: finding a husband who can pass the King's test for Sopotilla, princess of the gypsies. The secondary problem is breaking the curse on the queen so that "the mouse devours the hawk" and she regains her voice. The dream man comes in the form of "hot stuff Jalapeno," aided by a convincing witch. All ends well for the gypsies; Jalapeno wins the princess, the queen wins her voice, and the Seniors win the cup.

"I remember in my day . . ."

This is the prevalent phrase during Homecoming, as alumnae return to their Alma Mater to reminisce about CIA, TSCW, and the earlier days of TWU.

Current students get a look at the "good old days" as recalled by these older but very spirited Tessies.

This year, Stunts were the culmination of Homecoming events, uniting the classes of yesteryear with those of '73, '74, '75, and '76.

But leading off the events was the annual Homecoming luncheon, honoring some of the distinguished alumnae.

Recognized this year for their continuous service to the University were Miss Ola Lummus, Mrs. LaVerne Harrell Clark, and Mrs. Frances Matsler Gordon.

Sharing their pride and delight were TWU President John A. Guinn and Alumnae President, Mrs. Dorothy Holland.

Other activities included tours of the rapidly changing campus, the Showcase of TWU talents, a chapel service at the Little Chapel in the Woods, a breakfast for the honor classes, and business meetings.

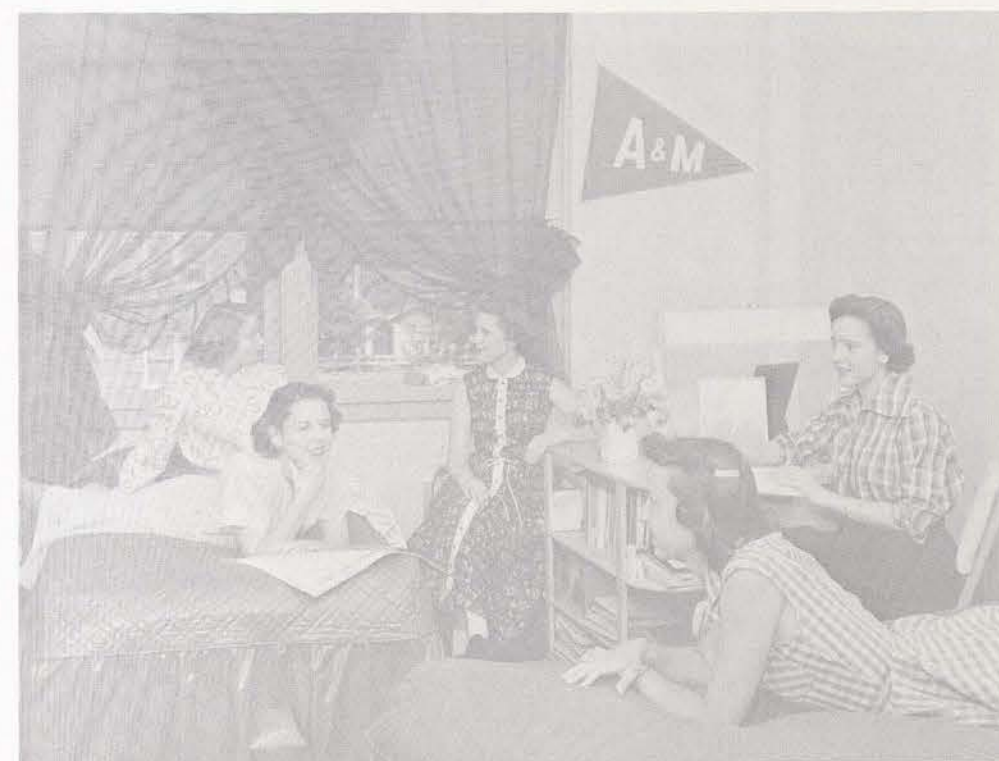

But, mostly, it was, and always will be, "Remember? Remember when . . .?"

Homecoming

Festival de bienvenida

Heimwärts

Redbud

botón rojo

le bourgeon de rouge

The blooming trees on Redbud Lane mark the approach of not only Spring, but of Redbud, the annual Spring formal at which a court of 24 crown princesses and the queen rule for an evening. For the 60 class princesses, it means a week of teas, banquets, flashing smiles, and "goodbye, grubs" — for a week, that is.

Selected for U.S. Tryouts
for World University
Games

Carol Ammerman
One of 18 women in U.S.
trying out for 12-member
U.S. basketball team participating in World University Games
in Moscow, Aug. 15-25, 1973.

Dear Lord
I am finished.
Will they despise it? Won't they love it?

I am so proud and so ashamed. Nevertheless, it is done. Good or bad, it is over.
We, together, have accomplished with our own and others hands/minds
And learned to love and respect this work.
And thank you, many hours over, thank you.
Because without Patricia the dirty work would still be undone,
Without Sue those last minute pictures would still be unprinted
Without Robt. there would be no love to keep the spirit moving,
Without you, God, there would not be.

God bless Mrs. Hefner, for leaving us alone yet being there; Norman, for his help;
Sallie, for being that unfailing artist; Gloria, for being a scatterbrained, good photographer; Karen, for the experience; Margaret, for her putting up with it all; Margie, for her bounce; Kyle, for his pictures on page 172-3; NASA, for the picture on page 8-9; Shirlee Shaver, for her pictures on pages 320, 324, 343;
Julie; Fluet; Penne; Pam; Sara; Deborah; Mr. Burchard; the J.B. Security Cop;
Ed; my family and the Fuchsia formal.

In His Name
Amen.
