

College Bulletin

Texas State College for Women

A University for Women

Denton, Texas

Welcomes You

No. 432

September 15, 1953

Issued semi-monthly by the Texas State College for Women at Denton, Texas. Entered Dec 17, 1917, Denton, Texas, as second-class matter under Act of Congress, August 24, 1912.

- TSCW is fully accredited and by any standard of evaluation ranks as an outstanding educational institution. It is the only woman's college with a top-flight university program.
- The college consists of various departments and colleges, offering approximately seventy degree groups leading to specialized careers for women. For those interested in a general education, TSCW has always maintained a rich program in the liberal arts. (See the TSCW Careers for Women bulletin in your school library, or write for a copy.)
- A strong graduate school attracts many young women who wish to obtain advanced degrees. Masters' degrees are offered in most departments and divisions of the College and work beyond the masters, including the doctor of philosophy, also is available.
- The superiority of career courses at TSCW also attracts many graduates of junior colleges and transfers from other institutions.
- TSCW traditionally has a cosmopolitan student body, attracting outstanding students from various parts of the United States and foreign countries.
- By virtue of its diversified program of offerings, supplemented by extensive research programs and backed by more than 50 years of outstanding achievements, TSCW may well claim to be the world's leading university for women.

- Expenses are extremely low. Many scholarships are available, and numerous students qualify for campus employment to earn additional income. TSCW wishes to make it possible for every deserving girl to get a superior college education.
- The College dormitories are modern and comfortable, and the meals, prepared in a new ultra-modern central dining unit a city block square, are excellent. The dining unit is completely air-conditioned.
- The College research programs, like its teaching work, are nationally recognized. TSCW believes in being of greatest service to its students, their parents, other Texas citizens, and the industry of the great Southwest.
- A well-rounded extra-curricular program is available in scores of student organizations. There are clubs and other groups to meet every wish and need. TSCW provides activities and conditions conducive to a well-rounded social and emotional, as well as intellectual, life.
- You are cordially invited to visit TSCW at any time. And write for detailed information, about any one of the long list of majors leading to degrees, all planned exactly for careers for young women. Write THE REGISTRAR, TEXAS STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, DRAWER A, TSCW STATION, DENTON, TEXAS.

